Annual OLD-FASHIONED PARTY and FROLIC

to be held in Kingsley Hall, Ford Building

TUESDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 26, 1935—at 6 o'clock

Larsen & Ericksen, our old friends, the famous Swedish caterers, will supply us with a chicken-pie dinner with all the fixings. 'Nuf sed about the eats!

On this occasion all Ford Hall Folks are commanded to forget the cares of the world and come prepared to participate in the Frolic. You will be expected to play the old-fashioned games (there is a rumor that postoffice is to be included) and to sing the old-fashioned songs, etc. New stunts have been planned by the Committee and a good time should be had by all. If life has become drab for you, you should be able to work it off at this party. If you have forgotten how to play, come anyway. We promise to teach you how.

As we can only accommodate a small crowd, please send your reservations in at once or secure your tickets at the Hall on Sunday evening. THE PRICE OF IT ALL IS 75c. A large committee has been organized to make sure that everyone is well taken care of.
