HISTORICAL SKETCH

Suffolk University was foreshadowed when Suffolk Law School was founded by Gleason Leonard Archer in September 1906. This school soon became the symbol of the open door of opportunity to the ambitious and worthy youth of the land who must win higher education if at all while engaged in wage-earning pursuits. It became a leavening force in Greater Boston and soon attracted a clientele of aspiring young men in an ever-widening circle until all New England and even foreign nations found representation in its student body.

Trained for leadership and worthily fulfilling their responsibilities as lawyers, judges, or legal experts in industrial fields in all parts of the Union, the alumni of the Law School indirectly created a demand for the extension of Suffolk's educational program. The impressive demonstration of the value of combining educational theory and daily wage-earning experience as a preparation for life encouraged the Board of Trustees to offer similar educational opportunities in other fields than in law.

A College of Liberal Arts was naturally the first unit to be added. Although New England had long been famous for its day colleges, yet until our College of Liberal Arts was established, no opportunity existed in any of the five New England States whereby an ambitious man or woman might earn a Bachelor of Arts degree entirely through evening study. In July 1934, President Archer was authorized by the Board of Trustees to take immediate action in the creation of a College of Liberal Arts to provide collegiate education in the liberal arts for young men and women who must earn their living while qualifying for a college degree. President Archer was fortunate in securing the co-operation of the late Dr. Patrick T. Campbell, Superintendent of Schools of Boston and Dr. Frank W. Wright of the State Department of Education. A splendid curriculum, without unnecessary electives was agreed upon. With the further co-operation of other leading educators a faculty was chosen, men of outstanding ability as teachers.

The College of Liberal Arts was formally opened on September 24, 1934. The Board of Trustees applied to the Massachusetts Legislature in January 1935 for degree granting powers for the new College of Liberal Arts. The Legislature, with only two votes recorded in opposition, enacted the desired legislation (Chap. 15, Acts of 1935). Thus was inaugurated the first evening College of Liberal Arts in New England.

The Graduate School of Law was authorized by the same legislative charter and in September 1935 this third department was created. Courses leading to the degree of Master of Laws have proven deservedly popular. Since its inception the Graduate School of Law has conferred its degree on forty-three candidates.

The College of Journalism was founded in 1936.

In 1936, the Board of Trustees voted to petition the Massachusetts Legislature for the consolidation of Suffolk's group of schools and colleges into Suffolk University. The General Court granted this privilege in April 1937 and also authorized the creation of a fifth department—a College of Business Administration. Suffolk University College of Business Administration opened its doors September 27, 1937.
An Act to establish Suffolk University

Whereas, the deferred operation of this act would tend to defeat its purpose, therefore it is hereby declared to be an emergency law, necessary for the immediate preservation of the public convenience.

SECTION 1. The name of the Suffolk Law School, incorporated by chapter one hundred and forty-five of the acts of nineteen hundred and fourteen, is hereby changed to Suffolk University. Said corporation shall consist of not more than twenty-one members.

SECTION 2. Suffolk University shall include the departments now known as Suffolk Law School, Suffolk Graduate School of Law, Suffolk College of Liberal Arts, Suffolk College of Journalism and a new department to be known as Suffolk College of Business Administration.

The said university shall possess all the powers and privileges heretofore granted in chapter one hundred and forty-five of the acts of nineteen hundred and fourteen and chapter fifteen of the acts of nineteen hundred and thirty-five together with such additional powers and privileges as are possessed by colleges of Journalism and Business Administration in this Commonwealth including power to confer degrees appropriate thereto and to grant diplomas therefor.

LAW SCHOOL OFFICE STAFF

Miss Catharine C. Caraher, Secretary
Mrs. Margaret M. Gillespie, Assistant Secretary
Miss Dorothy M. McNamara, Recorder
Suffolk University Law School from its inception in 1906 has specialized in the training of part-time students. Its very method of teaching is based upon the idea that students who are working for a living must be given every possible aid in their quest for knowledge. Since time is limited, legal principles must be given to them in clear and concise form rather than by the laborious case method. Such students are usually better equipped than the average day student to absorb and master principles of law.

The law student engaged in industry is in daily contact with the very conditions of life upon which law is based. Principles enunciated in the classroom find instant response in the minds of those whose daily experiences furnish illustrations of the law in operation.

The practical experience of the employed student largely counterbalances the additional leisure of the full-time student. In building up a law practice after graduation the part-time student has a distinct advantage. Since law practice comes chiefly from business men, an acquaintanceship with business men is a requisite of success. The average part-time student has been in daily contact with business men for years before entering the practice of law. If he has won the confidence of such acquaintances he starts with a clientele of great potential value.

Our Student Body

Students of Suffolk University Law School are a cosmopolitan group. Here meet on common ground, ambitious men of all races and creeds. Bankers, brokers, business men, federal, state and municipal officials, leaders of the working classes and men of all honorable occupations find in our school inspiration and opportunity. Men of all ages attend our classes. The presence of men of maturity and sound experience adds much to the earnestness and helpfulness of classroom discussions. A spirit of comradeship develops in our classes that makes for true Americanism.

THE SUFFOLK LAW SCHOOL SYSTEM

Suffolk University Law School has always adhered to a belief that men whose time for study is limited by the necessity of working for a living cannot master the elements of the law by the case system without unnecessary hardship. That system was designed for those who have all their time for study. It involves gleaning the law from original sources without the aid of textbooks and lectures.

Suffolk University Law School early evolved a system which combines text, lecture, case and statute thus saving the student much time, yet offering a wider understanding and more effective training for the profession than is possible under the case system within the limits of the time that the employed person can possibly devote to the study of law.

Instead of leaving the student to discover the law from study of original sources, as in the case system, it uses texts in which the law is stated in simple language with adequate illustrations. Thought-compelling lectures and oral review of previous work are regular features of the Suffolk system.

Suffolk also requires the student to read and make written abstracts of cases as a means of training in deducing the law from original sources. Our students are constantly occupied in solving legal questions during classroom hours and in other school periods devoted wholly to written tests and examinations.

The case system, on the other hand, is mainly occupied with analyzing or memorizing another person’s reasoning. The Suffolk plan compels original, constructive reasoning by the student. It combines the best in the case system with the best in the text and lecture systems together with original methods evolved by the Founder of the school.

Textbooks from the pen of Dean Archer, and notes written expressly for use in Suffolk University Law School by its professors, are vital to the Suffolk method of teaching. Unchanging fundamental principles of law, accurately and concisely set forth and abundantly illustrated therein by actual cases offer the student a solid foundation of legal understanding.

The Suffolk system, moreover, possesses the unusual merit of obliging every student to work with unflagging zeal if he is to maintain a passing average. No chance exists to make up defects by cramming for examinations. Every day and every week counts toward his semester average. Our system, therefore, builds constructively through four years of intensive training a knowledge not only of the common law and its development through the ages but also what it is today after generations of legislative tinkering.

It is significant of the weakness of the case system that several of the great universities, for years its militant advocates, have recently abandoned it as no longer adequate to modern needs or to a proper understanding of the rapidly changing laws of the present day.

Personal Attention To Educational Needs of Students

The Research Department of the Law School prepares all questions to be used in problems, tests or examinations. It directs the work of the student outside the classroom. By means of written work it gives him the personal attention essential to rapid development of understanding of law. It constantly tests the quality of his work, corrects his misunderstandings, and requires of each regular student more than one hundred and fifty written opinions on problems in case-form each year. The department grades these opinions carefully and returns them to the student with appropriate marks and suggestions, together with official answers and citations for his instruction and future use. This grading of written opinions greatly aids the careless or weak reasoner or faulty writer. It accords to the high-grade student recognition of merit which promotes assurance and poise.

The Department Director devotes his entire time to the work and is available at all times for conferences with the students.

The Dean of the school also, in addition to office contacts with the student body, devotes much time to personal conferences on student problems. Individual members of the faculty likewise give freely of their time in order to assist Suffolk undergraduates to maximum efficiency.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Registration

Incoming Freshmen must register by filling a formal application for admission together with proof of the requisite college training. Application blanks may be obtained from the law school secretary and must be approved by the Dean and the Committee on Admissions.

A personal interview with the Dean when presenting the application is desirable, but registration by mail is possible if proof of general education and proper letters of recommendation accompany application. Certificates of registration will be issued to all whose applications are accepted. The registration fee will be returned on all rejected applications but it is not returnable to any applicant after he has been accepted and officially entered in the school records. The necessary proof of general education should be supplied, if possible, at the time of registration; in any event not later than two weeks after the opening of school.

Students of the upper classes will register in the classroom at the opening sessions by filling out class attendance and study cards.

The office of the Secretary is open for registration on school days from 9:00 A.M. to 8:00 P.M. (Wednesdays and Thursdays 9:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M.). The Dean is at his office on Mondays and Fridays, day and evening, to meet prospective students. From August 15th to opening date of school he is at the office every day except Saturdays.

Admission Requirements

Beginning with the entering class of September 1938 applicants for admission to Suffolk University Law School will be divided into two groups: (a) those who may enter the law department directly and
(b) those who must take the pre-legal course before beginning the study of law.

Group A

College graduates or those who can present credentials covering sixty semester hours of college work may immediately enroll in the law school.
Proof of such prior education must be supplied in advance of beginning the study of law. A college diploma or other official evidence that the applicant has been graduated from an approved college may be accepted as final by the Secretary of the Law School. The credentials of others will be passed upon by the Committee on Admissions.

Group B

(1) Applicants who have partial college training but less than sixty semester hours may complete the requirement in Suffolk University College of Liberal Arts by taking courses prescribed by the Committee on Admissions.

(2) Applicants who are graduates of an approved day high school or preparatory school may qualify by completing sixty semester hours in the following subjects:

The time required to complete the pre-legal course will depend upon the capabilities and industry of the applicant. Two years and two summers or a combination of day and evening classes may shorten the time of preparation. For tuition and hours see page 19 for further information on Pre-Legal Department.

LENGTH OF COURSES LEADING TO LL.B. DEGREE
For regular law students, four academic years is required, the year being divided into two semesters of seventeen weeks each.

Classes meet Mondays, Tuesdays and Fridays of each week both day and evening. One evening each month, usually Wednesday or Thursday, is devoted to written examinations in all classes. At the end of each semester three entire evenings are devoted to examinations.

Morning Classes
The forenoon divisions in all classes meet at 10 A.M. and are dismissed at 12 o'clock. The work of the day department exactly parallels the work of the evening department.

Evening Classes
The evening session for the incoming Freshman Class of 1942 will meet from 6:30 to 8:30 P.M.
Sessions in the Sophomore, Junior and Senior classes are maintained with lectures from 5:30 to 7:30 P.M.

The later divisions meet at 7:35 P.M. and are dismissed at 9:30 P.M. Lectures in each division are of two hours' duration.

TUITION AND FEES
The tuition in the Law School has been kept as low as possible in order to permit attendance of students of limited means as well as those who must earn their living while attending school. The Placement Bureau renders to ambitious students every possible assistance in securing employment to defray the modest tuition charges.

(1) Matriculation Fee
Applications for admission to the Law School must be accompanied by a matriculation fee of $5.00. This fee is payable the first year only. No application is recorded until this fee has been received. The matriculation fee is not a part of the tuition and will not be refunded after the student has been duly admitted to the Law School. However, upon receipt of a written request it may be applied to another year should the applicant postpone registration.
(2) Tuition

The tuition fee is $160 a year payable in four equal instalments on the following dates: September 19, 1938; November 14, 1938; January 30, 1939; March 27, 1939.

Admission to classes is by attendance ticket bearing student's signature. A book of official tickets sufficient for the current tuition period is given to each student upon receipt of the quarter's tuition.

Since the tuition is payable in instalments, no refund will be made if a student withdraws from classes before the end of a period for which he has paid.

Students withdrawing from a course after it has begun because of a contemplated condition will be charged for the entire quarter in the subject dropped. If, however, he pays for a semester or entire year in advance and withdraws for reasons of business or ill-health, a refund of all except the current quarter's tuition will be made.

Students required to repeat an entire year's work will pay the regular tuition fee. If required to repeat one subject, a proportionate rate will be charged.

The tuition for making up courses in Summer School is $20.00 per subject per semester.

(3) University Fee

An annual University Fee of $10.00 is due and payable in full with the first quarter's tuition. The fee is not a part of the tuition, but an administrative fee which includes library fee; admission to University dramatic activities; admission to intercollegiate debates held at the University; use of the recreational facilities provided on the roof campus; and a year's subscription to The Suffolk Journal.

Weekly Installment Payments

Weekly tuition payments of $5 each will be accepted from students of very limited means. This privilege will be allowed only in case of students furnishing satisfactory evidence of necessity therefor. A charge of one dollar per quarter will be made for this service.

(4) Books

The cost of books in the various law classes varies but slightly from year to year. The 1937-38 costs were as follows:

- Freshman Class
  First Semester: $12.70; Second Semester: $9.70

- Sophomore Class
  First Semester: $11.00; Second Semester: $2.50

- Junior Class
  First Semester: $9.00; Second Semester: $13.25

- Senior Class
  First Semester: $11.25; Second Semester: $6.25
Placement Bureau

From its inception Suffolk has championed the cause of the student who must earn a living while attending school. For many years it has maintained a free Employment Bureau. The economic depression has intensified the problem of finding employment for needy students. In September 1935, a Placement Bureau was established and a director was assigned to the task of keeping in constant touch with the employment situation in order to discover desirable employment for students. Scores of students have been enabled to continue their education during the past year through the activities of the Placement Bureau. The office of the Placement Bureau is in the University Building.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND PRIZES

The Walsh Scholarship

A scholarship of the value of one-half the annual tuition, known as the "David I. Walsh Scholarship," is awarded annually in June to the student who has maintained the highest general average in scholarship during the Freshman year.

The Boynton Scholarship

A scholarship of the value of one-half the annual tuition, known as the "Thomas J. Boynton Scholarship," is awarded annually in June to the student who has maintained the highest general average for the Sophomore year.

The Frost Scholarship

A scholarship of the value of one-half the annual tuition, known as the "George A. Frost Scholarship," is awarded annually in June to the student who has maintained the highest general average for the Junior year.

Archer Scholarships

The Archer Scholarships are three in number, each equal to one-half the recipient’s tuition, and are awarded at the close of the year to those men who finish second in Freshman, Sophomore and Junior Classes.

Steinberg Scholarship

This scholarship was established by Louis H. Steinberg of the Class of 1925 as a token of loyalty to Suffolk Law School and of sympathy for those who must support themselves while winning an education. It is awarded annually to the man who has attained the highest general average during the first two years, and is equal in value to one-half the tuition of the Junior year.
Fairchild Scholarship

The Fairchild Scholarship was established in December, 1926, by Mrs. Julian D. Fairchild of Brooklyn, N. Y., in memory of her late husband. This scholarship is awarded annually to that student whose school record, character, and general circumstances indicate the appropriateness of such award. Value, one-half the annual tuition.

Wilmot R. Evans Memorial Scholarship

In celebration of the Thirtieth Jubilee Year of the founding of Suffolk Law School, the Board of Trustees have created a graduate scholarship known as the "Wilmot R. Evans Memorial Scholarship," equivalent to $170, taking the form of a one year Master of Laws course in the L.L.M. division of the Graduate School. This scholarship is awarded annually at the Commencement exercises.

Bradley Prizes

The income from a gift to Suffolk Law School from Mrs. Julian D. Fairchild of Brooklyn, N. Y., is devoted to prizes to be awarded annually in memory of Mrs. Fairchild's father, Charles L. Bradley of New Haven, Conn. They are three in number—$10 to students who win first honors in each of the following subjects: Contracts, Real Property and Constitutional Law.

Monitorships

A number of students of high scholastic standing are annually appointed as classroom monitors. They receive from one-half to a full year's tuition in compensation for their services.

Honors

Students maintaining a general average of 90 per cent or over in the first seven semesters of their law school course will receive on their diplomas of graduation the inscription "With Highest Honors." Those whose scholastic average is 85 per cent or over but less than 90 per cent for the same period will receive the degree "With Honor."

Students in all classes who maintain a general average of 80% or over in any year will be included in the "Dean's List" published at the completion of the school year.

Conditions

Students who have incurred one major condition but whose general average is satisfactory will be permitted to clear up the condition in the Summer School.
A student with a low general average who has failed in one or more subjects will be obliged to carry these conditions as regular work and clear them within one year. The taking of advance work together with conditions is not allowable but special schedules will be arranged in meritorious cases.

A condition must be removed within one year from the time of incurring it.

The making up of any subject requires full attendance at lectures as well as the passing of all problems, tests, and examinations, and an average of 75 per cent or over in the conditioned subject. (Fee twenty dollars a subject, per semester.)

If, after a schedule for the year is made out and on file in the Dean's office, a student feels obliged to drop a subject it is necessary to notify the secretary's office, otherwise the tuition for this subject will continue through the semester. Dropping a conditioned subject and continuing with a new subject is not permitted.

Students who, on account of conditions or low scholastic average, are required to repeat an entire year are held responsible for full attendance and the passing of all written work and will be charged regular tuition rates.

A student who has any conditions at the completion of his Junior year may not, except with special permission of the Dean and the Faculty, be a candidate for the degree of LL.B. at the next Commencement.

The school authorities reserve the right to deny the privilege of continuance in the school to any student whose work is unsatisfactory at the end of one year. A student who on account of low scholarship has been obliged to repeat two years of work, with special permission may complete his law course, but may not be a candidate for the degree.

No student who on account of low scholastic average is required to repeat the Junior year will be eligible to take a make-up course in the Summer School.

Any student who neglects the opportunity to make up a Junior condition or who fails to pass the make-up subject, will be required to repeat the condition or conditions the following year as major courses, but will not be allowed to take the complete Senior course.

Special Courses

Students may choose to take less than the regular schedule of law work and thus require more than four years to complete their law training. The degree of Bachelor of Laws will be granted upon successful completion of all required work, provided no conditions were incurred during the years in which were carried less than the full quota of study.
Classroom Attendance

Attendance at one of the three class sessions is compulsory. A record of ten or more absences during a semester may entail loss of class standing. Absences from classroom for more than one week must be satisfactorily accounted for.

Withdrawals

Students who withdraw from the school in good standing may re-enter subject to rules and regulations in effect at time of re-admittance.

PRE-LEGAL DEPARTMENT

The Pre-Legal Department will hereafter be a definite adjunct of Suffolk University Law School. Classes will be maintained day and evening on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays throughout the school year.

Day Sessions

Classes will meet as follows: 9.15 A.M. to 12 M., Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday.

Evening Sessions

Classes will meet as follows: 6.00 to 8.50 P.M., Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday.

Tuition

The tuition is $160 a year on the basis of the full program of twenty-four semester hours, with a proportionate increase or decrease for variations from the regular program.

Liberal Arts and Law — Combined Course

If a candidate for the degree of Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science has earned by the end of his fourth year ninety-six semester hours' credit, at least forty-eight of which have been earned in this College, and has met all requirements for graduation except in number of hours, he may enter the Law School, and on completing satisfactorily the full work of the first year in the regular law course receive his college degree.
Students will find in historic Boston unrivaled opportunities for culture and recreation. The Boston Public Library system is justly famous. The State Library and the State Archives are across the street from the University. The Museum of Fine Arts and the Museum of Natural History are easily accessible. Boston Common, the Public Gardens and the Charles River Esplanade all have special appeal in Summer days. To the student of history Greater Boston is world-famous for its shrines of American Liberty—Faneuil Hall, the Old State House, the Old North Church, King’s Chapel, the home of Paul Revere, and the various burying grounds where our historic dead are sleeping. No city in America could be more inspiring to students and certainly none more conducive to scholarship. Beacon Hill and the State House form the very heart of historic Boston.

Transportation

The main railroad centers in Boston, the North and South Stations, are within a few minutes’ walk from the University. The same holds true for the Park Street subway station and the Park Square and Bowdoin Square bus lines. The State House is a landmark for strangers in Boston and the rear wing of the Capitol as indicated above, is next-door neighbor to the University buildings. Few, if any, locations could offer greater accessibility to transportation facilities.

Location

The University buildings are located on Beacon Hill; the University Building at 20 Derne Street and the other buildings on Hancock Street. All buildings are opposite the rear wing of the State House.

All classes are held in the University Building.

The main building is a modern fireproof structure located at the corner of Derne and Temple Streets. The cornerstone of the first unit was laid in 1920 by Calvin Coolidge, then Governor of Massachusetts and nominee for Vice-President of the United States. The last unit was added in 1937 and the completed building was formally dedicated in February 1938.

The University occupies the entire block bounded by Temple Street, Derne Street and Ridgway Lane running back 150 feet; hence it has light and air on all sides. Eleven dwelling houses were razed to make way for this structure. The building has a total floor area of more than 82,000 square feet—six stories in the rear (because of the downward slope of the hill) and five stories on Derne Street.
Splendid accommodations for educational work are provided. Located in it are the University Library, executive offices, twenty-three lecture halls, laboratories for Biology, Chemistry, and Physics, the Auditorium, Faculty Rooms, Trustees Room, bookstore, rest rooms for women, and lounging rooms for men. Certain of the more important facilities are described below.

University Library.

The library occupies the major portion of the third floor and serves all departments of the University. The reading room has an aggregate floor area of eleven thousand square feet and provides seating accommodations for over two hundred readers. Reference books, encyclopedias, classical and historical volumes, source material for research and every aid to scholarship are provided.

The law library section contains at present upwards of 8000 volumes with approximately 500 annual additions.

These books include: U. S. Supreme Court Reports; Lawyers’ Edition of U. S. Reports; American Law Reports; Massachusetts Reports; the National Reporter System complete with Digests; L. R. A.; L. R. A. (New Series); U. S. Circuit Court of Appeal Reports; Federal Reporter; American Bankruptcy Reports; Early New York Reports; Ruling Case Law; Corpus Juris Cyc.; Corpus Juris Secundum; American and English Encyclopaedia of Law; Massachusetts Digest; American Digest; Lawyer’s Edition Annotated Digest; U. S. Digest; U. S. Compiled Statutes, etc. Books in greatest demand are provided in several duplicate sets. Standard case and textbooks as well as books for general reading are also provided. Law students have access to books in all other departments of the University Library.

Auditorium.

The auditorium is on the Temple Street side of the building and has a seating capacity of one thousand. A completely equipped stage affords excellent facilities for student dramatics. The auditorium is also used for mass meetings, commencements, concerts, debating clubs, and similar functions.

Bookstore.

The bookstore is located on the second floor of the main building. It has every facility for rapid handling of textbooks and other college supplies.

Recreational Facilities.

The building has a flat roof with an area of more than thirteen thousand square feet. Plans call for the development of this area into a roof campus.
Thus, the students of all departments of Suffolk University may find healthful relaxation on their own premises.

Suffolk University Press

The building at the corner of Hancock and Myrtle Streets, formerly used by the College of Liberal Arts, will soon become the headquarters of the Suffolk University Press. An up-to-date rotary printing press large enough to print the school paper, “The Suffolk Journal” is to be installed. The editorial and newsrooms of “The Suffolk Journal” will be housed in this building.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

Because student activities offer splendid opportunities for the development of individual initiative, co-operative effort, and leadership, the University encourages each student to participate in such activities as may appeal to him. A member of the faculty is appointed to serve as adviser for each student activity. In order to discourage excessive participation in outside activities which would be incompatible with a high standard of scholarship, certain regulations are provided regarding participation which are printed in the current Student’s Handbook. The following activities are open to students in all departments.

1. Intercollegiate Debating

   Debate teams, selected by competitive try-outs, meet teams from different universities and colleges during the winter months. The University engages for its whole student body a Director of Debating who coaches the teams and supervises the intercollegiate activities in public debating. Through the co-operation of broadcasting stations, intercollegiate debates are put on the air from time to time.

2. Dramatics

   “Suffolk Players” is an association of undergraduate students organized for the purpose of fostering dramatics in the University. One or more dramatic productions are presented annually by the organization in the school auditorium. Play-writing contests are held throughout the year.

3. Musical Clubs

   The University Glee Club and the University Orchestra are composed of vocalists and instrumentalists selected competitively.

4. Athletics

   Forms of intercollegiate and inter-departmental athletics are encouraged that are suited to an educational program. Sports such as swimming, golf, tennis, and volley ball are organized as demand and facilities make it advisable.
(5) The Suffolk Journal

"The Suffolk Journal," a monthly newspaper, is the official publication of the University. While it serves as a laboratory course for the students in the College of Journalism, students enrolled in any other department may participate in furnishing news and other material. This paper is published under faculty supervision, but news columns, features, editorials, advertising, make-up and mechanical work is of student origin. Election to the staff is a reward for prior services to the Journal.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The Alumni Association of Suffolk University Law School organized in 1920 has since September 1926 maintained an active Alumni Association with a club house at 73 Hancock Street, Boston, containing the Alumni library, conference and general assembly rooms.

To date there have been three thousand and forty-two graduates of the Law School, including those of 1938. The officers of the Alumni Association for 1938–39 are:

GRADUATE SCHOOL OF LAW

Requirements for Degree of LL.M.

Students holding the degree of Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.) from Suffolk or from other recognized law schools are eligible to take the Master's Course. The graduate courses are intended to supplement general professional education in the closely related fields of law and government by an intensive study of special subjects outside the ordinary scope of a law school curriculum.

The mental stimulus of return to the classroom—renewed association with lawyers who are ambitious to rise to greater heights in the profession—new vistas of law and of cultural understanding—these are some of the advantages of the Master's Course at Suffolk Law School. Every subject is given by an expert and every subject is of great value to the ambitious lawyer.

Opening Date

The Graduate Course re-opens on Monday, September 19th. Classes are held on Mondays, Tuesdays and Fridays from six to nine P.M. Students desiring to take the course in two years instead of one year may do so. It is also permissible for students to register for single courses.

Tuition

The tuition for the course if taken in one year is $160; in two years $175, payable quarterly. A graduation fee of $10 is to be paid by every student who qualifies for the degree of Master of Laws.

GIFTS AND BEQUESTS

Gifts and bequests of money, securities or real estate are gratefully received by Suffolk University. To serve the University in this way it is not necessary to make a large gift or bequest.

In order to extend its educational service, Suffolk University will welcome gifts and bequests for:

(a) Endowment
   (1) of professorships in any department
   (2) of Library in any department
   (3) of scholarships in any department
   (4) unrestricted

(b) Equipment and Buildings
   (1) reference books in any department
   (2) additional equipment for science laboratories
   (3) additional buildings.

Unless other use is specified, it is the general policy of the University to designate funds so given as a part of the permanent unrestricted endowment. In this case, the principal is never expended, but is loaned on adequate security.

The President of the University or the General Chairman of the Improvement and Endowment Campaign will gladly confer with any prospective donor as to the needs of the various departments.

FORM OF BEQUEST

I give and bequeath to Suffolk University, a corporation organized by the Legislature of Massachusetts for the education of deserving youth by Chapter 237, Acts of 1937, to be applied to the educational uses and purposes of the said University and under its direction the following sums:
