Law Freshmen Elect
First Student Council

Close Battle For Seat In Every Division, Need to Add Class Officers.

Friday, April 26th, the Law
School Freshmen held another ball and for the first time in the history of the school a tie was evoked in the close campaign for seats in the First Student Council.

The vote, the result of a
most exciting contest, was dead
tied, with seventeen votes for the first and seventeen for the second candidate. This tie was resolved by the vote of the students in attendance who were presented by the two candidates
as their respective candidates.

The candidates for seats in the Student Council were as follows:

Chairman of the First Student Council: James F. Fagan

Treasurer: John F. O'Connel

Secretary: Charles J. F. O'Byrne

Vice-Chairman: John A. O'Byrne

Auditor: John F. O'Malley

The ball was held in the Broad Street Hall of the Law School, and was attended by a large number of the students, who were present in force to witness the close contests for the various offices.

The officers of the Law School were also present and took an active part in the event, and the students were presented with speeches by Senator Kavanagh and Representatives Dodds and Hawthorne.

Recent Decisions

Inn.~~.~.~.

The case "In re Union Oil Co." referred to in the text requires a closer look at the legal principles at play. The case involves a dispute over property ownership and the implications of an earlier judgment. The court's decision, dated February 20th, 1985, considers the scope of ownership rights and the effect of previous legal actions on subsequent claims. This case is significant as it clarifies the responsibilities and limitations of property owners in the context of urban development and environmental regulations.

Appreciative Audience At Fund Concert

The event featured a prominent speaker who addressed the importance of philanthropy and its impact on the community. The audience, comprising a mix of local businessmen, educators, and community leaders, showed enthusiasm and engagement throughout the presentation. The speaker's compelling narrative, supported by anecdotal evidence, resonated with the audience, encouraging them to contribute to charitable causes.

Marriage of Dean Hiller Announced

The announcement of Dean Hiller's marriage was met with warmth and support from colleagues and friends. The couple's decision to marry was celebrated, with many expressing their best wishes and support for the newlyweds' future together. The ceremony was held at a local venue, attended by a select group of family members and close friends.

Month of Solemnity

In the month of July, Nature is at her proudest and most majestic. As the days grow longer, so the days grow brighter and more splendid. The world is filled with the splendor of summer, and the beauty of the season is reflected in the faces of men and women. This is a time of rejoicing, but also a time of reflection. In this month of Solemnity, as we celebrate the wonders of nature, we also remember the lessons of those who have gone before us.

Citizens of Tomorrow

The college student is a citizen of tomorrow. As such, he should be aware of the responsibilities that come with this status. He should be prepared to contribute to the world in meaningful ways, and to be active in the community. The citizens of tomorrow are the leaders of tomorrow, and we should do all we can to prepare them for that role.

University Council

The President of the University is the head of the administration, and the faculty and students are responsible for the governance of the institution. The University Council is the student body's representative body, and it is responsible for the oversight of the University's policies and procedures. The President of the University is the chief executive officer of the University, and the University Council is the student body's representative body.

TALL TREES

When tall trees standing in the sky
A Nation's heart is broken by the fall.
The tallest tree of all was cut down,
And men are weeping in the wake of its fall.

Concrete foundations are laid for the future,
And tall trees are cut down for the present.

Hail Players!

The players are only the public face of the University, and the real work is done by the students who participate in the various clubs and organizations. The students are the ones who make the decisions and set the policies, and the players are the ones who carry them out. The players are the ones who get the credit, but the real work is done by the students.

Notice

Reservations for the June 23rd event must be made through the University's official website. A deposit is required at the time of reservation, and the deposit is non-refundable. Any changes to the reservation must be made at least 72 hours prior to the event. Any cancellation of the reservation will result in a penalty charge. The event will be held on the University's main campus in the Student Center, and it is open to all students and their guests.

Student Activities

Student activities are an important part of college life. They provide students with opportunities to socialize and to meet new people. They also provide opportunities to learn new skills and to develop new passions. The student activities office is located in the Student Center, and it is open from 9 AM to 5 PM, Monday through Friday.

"Stingin' in The Corner"

By Timothy J. Brown

The corner "Stingin' in The Corner" is the scene of many a tender-hearted romance. The sign of the corner, a tall, graceful figure, with a face that says "I have seen many a good man and woman come and go," stands majestically in the center of the room, her arms outstretched, welcoming all who enter. She is a woman of many secrets, but her heart is pure and true. Many a young man and woman have found solace and love in her presence.

The corner is the place where many a young man and woman have met and fallen in love. It is a place where the heart is free to roam and where the spirit is free to soar. The corner is a place where the soul can find rest and comfort.

The corner is the place where many a young man and woman have found the strength to face the world. It is the place where they have found the courage to love and to live. The corner is the place where they have found the strength to overcome the challenges of life.

The corner is the place where many a young man and woman have found the love of their lives. It is the place where they have found the promise of a bright future. The corner is the place where they have found the hope of a better tomorrow.

Tennis, Golf Tournaments
In Fall Head New Plan

By JAMES R. HAY

During the past month, the first step has been made towards the reorganization of the tennis and golf teams. It is the plan of the Scribe to advocate this sort of competition, and to build up the teams on a sound, business basis.

In tennis, the Suffolk team is now being planned under the direction of Coach Milner. The team will consist of seven members, and it is expected that there will be some very fine players on the team this year.

The first tournament is scheduled for the end of October, and it is believed that the team will do well in this first competition. The Suffolk team will play against teams from other institutions in the coming months.

In golf, the team is also being planned under the direction of Coach Johnson. The team will consist of six members, and it is expected that there will be some very fine players on the team this year.

The first tournament is scheduled for the beginning of November, and it is believed that the team will do well in this first competition. The Suffolk team will play against teams from other institutions in the coming months.
