A Special Lincoln Broadcast Today

A special broadcast commemorating Lincoln's birthday will be made by the Mutual Broadcasting System. President Lincoln has been portrayed in the radio play "My People," which was presented over the Educational station WPBR, Baltimore.

Included in the broadcast will be a dramatic sketch of Lincoln's career, with addresses on national unity by Lincoln's contemporaries and later by James A. Garfield, president of Harvard University, and by Charles E. McMillan, president of Columbia University. Also, a special address by Miss Alice Cunningham, the chaplain of the House of Representatives.

The broadcast will also feature several selections from "The Great Day," a Lincoln ballad, composed by Robert W. Service, and a selection from "The Old Rugged Cross."

Governor Attends Reed's Funeral

On Monday, February 13, the Governor of Massachusetts attended the funeral services of Governor William L. Reed, who died on February 7.

The Governor was accompanied by his wife and other members of the Reed family, and by officials of the State government.

The service was held at the Water納 Chapel of the New England Cemetery in Boston, where the Governor's body was placed in the vault of the chapel.

The Governor was a prominent figure in the political life of the State, and his death was a great loss to the Commonwealth.

Walt Disney to Satirize Racism

In New York—Mr. Walt Disney, who has promised the nation a movie about a Negro, has now promised a movie about a Jew. "The Jew," he announced recently, will be a "social commentary" picture about the "attitude of Negroes towards White people." It will be a cartoon, and will be released in theatres throughout the country.

Disney, who has already made several anti-Semitic films, including "The Roman" and "The Arab," is now planning a series of films that will depict the "real" Jews, as they are "truly" living today.

Disney's new film, "The Jew," will be a sequel to his previous film, "The Roman," and will be produced in collaboration with his co-director, Richard Williams.

Disney's films have always been controversial, and have caused a great deal of controversy in recent years. However, Disney has always maintained that his films are simply "social commentaries," and that they do not intend to cause offense.

The new film, "The Jew," is expected to be released later this year, and will be shown in theatres throughout the country.
Address the needs of people... the lovely, the sad, the young... with a smile... with a song... with a word.

To The Ladies!

As "EXTENDER":

Let your hair be your crown and your beauty a crown of splendor. Let it be your beauty that brightens the whole world.

Your hair is more than a part of your physical beauty. It is a reflection of your inner strength and vitality. It is a symbol of your health and well-being.

In this era of "soft" beauty, let us remember that health and beauty are not just skin deep. They are a part of who we are. Let us strive to achieve a balance between our external beauty and our internal health.

Yours sincerely,

We have always been led to believe that the American people are interested in political questions, and that they are willing to vote for and support candidates who will work for their welfare and advancement. We have always thought that the American people are intelligent and that they will not be tricked or misled by the speeches and promises of politicians.

SPORT SHOTS

By WILLIAM (Shep) JACKSON

It was a great week end. I had been away from the scenes of sport for about two years, and little did I realize that the boys weren’t missed. The old-time favorites were all there in abundance, and there were some new ones, too, that I hadn’t seen. The only thing that was missing was the old-time color of the fans, but I didn’t care. I was just glad to see the game going on as usual.

When the United States entered the war, it was estimated that 5,000,000 people were engaged in sport. Today, the number is estimated to be 30,000,000.

The war has had a profound effect on sport. It has caused the cancellation of many events, and has changed the complexion of many others. The war has also caused a great increase in the number of athletes who are actively engaged in sport.

THE RAMBLER

Greetings, dear reader. This is Leo J. Driscoll, Proprietor of the 'Lambert' in a gay mood tonight. First of all, I want to say that the American Theater is a fine old edifice, and I want to tell all of the folks who have been in it that I want to give them a vote of 'good night'.

The Village Shaw of the NACK the Free Press, was quite a bit out of order last night. Plans were not yet completed for the Saturday night opening of this week's production. That, in itself, is something quite new and unusual. So, if you're out tonight, you'll have to look for something else. The place was filled to the brim, and there were many who didn't get in. You'll have to look for something else.

Some of the members of the American Theater are quite excited about the news of the day, and I want to say that I'm happy to have a chance to talk to you about this.

The clock strikes 12, and I must say good night.
