DANCE AT COLEY PLAZA NOV. 26th TO TOP YEAR'S SOCIAL EVENTS

Popular Moots To Highlight Gala Thanksgiving Hop

S.C. Senior Club members informed that in November, the Copley Plaza Hotel is going to hold a thanksgiving ball, which will be the second annual Thanksgiving Dance that Senior Club has sponsored. The Ball was held last year and has been very successful. The Junior Club also sponsored a dance last year.

The theme of the dances will be Harvard H'mas and the college of the term. The Junior Club has had the benefit of both a thank-giving and a Harvard dance, but there will be some difference in the arrangements of the dances.

The Junior Club will have a dinner dance held on the Wednesday of the term, and the Senior Club will have a gala ball on Thanksgiving Day.

The Senior Club members are preparing for their annual dance which will be held on November 26th. The dance will be held in the Copley Plaza Hotel and is expected to be a tremendous suc-sess. The Junior Club will also hold a dance on the same night, but the arrangements will be dif-fierent. The Junior Club dance will be held in the Copley Plaza Hotel and will be attended by all of the students.

Women Falsely Judged, Says
Mills Educator

A Mills educato has given a lecture on the subject of the false judgment of women. The lecture was given in response to the proliferation of false judgments of women in the media. The speaker stressed the importance of understanding the true nature of women and the need to avoid making false judgments.

Voting Notice

A special notice has been issued regarding the voting process. The notice states that students must be registered to vote in the upcoming election. The registration deadline is October 30th.

To The Editor

I write with reluctance to present the editorial "Who is to Blame?" on the front page of our newspaper.

However, as a community, we must recognize the importance of acknowledging our collective responsibility and contributing to solutions. It's not enough to just blame others for our problems; we must also take ownership of our actions and continually strive to improve. Only by working together can we create a better future for ourselves and our society.

There is no news at the present time which can be considered satisfactory to the people of the State of Massachusetts. The decisions of the Supreme Judicial Court are not such as would cause the people to be satisfied with the administration of justice in this State. The ruling of the Supreme Judicial Court in the case of State v. Maguire is such as to cause the people to feel that the administration of justice is not such as they would expect in a free and independent Commonwealth.

The year to come turkey prize will be given in recognition of personal ability and taste, but at a social entertainment and social prize will be brought the same program.

Upon thorough investigation, it is discovered that most people prefer to attend this affair at a social entertainment.

The past years were formal, but vary from the present, as there is not the same sort of entertainment. This year we celebrate faithfully.

DEBATING TEAM TO WRANGLE B.C.

The Suffolk Debate Team will head north this week for the regional tournament to be held in Vancouver, B.C. The Suffolk delegation includes: Thomas A. Oleson, trumpet; Donald P. Bemis, trombone; Samuel A. Weisbart, clarinet; and Mary A. Brown, bassoon. The team will be among eight participants from the New England area. Suffolk has won the regional division in the past two years, but this year's competition promises to be challenging. Team members will face tough opponents from the Northeast, including Harvard, Yale, and Brown.

SPORTSCOPE HIGHLIGHTS

ROYALS ROLL TO HEAVENS, 4-0

The Suffolk Royals' baseball team defeated the Harvard Crimson, 4-0, on Saturday afternoon. The game was marked by strong defense and effective hitting by both teams. The Royals' victory was secured by a combination of timely hitting and solid pitching. Left-hander Bill Smith pitched a complete game, allowing only four hits and striking out six batters. The Crimson's best chance came in the top of the fifth inning, when they loaded the bases with no outs. However, Smith retired the next three batters, including a line drive to shortstop that was caught for the final out.

Side-Splitting Comedy Guaranteed To Keep Your Girdles A-Jumping.

BY GEORGE SMITH

In recent years, Suffolk has boasted of its own "Fashion Show," and students and faculty have been drawn to the auditorium for a variety of reasons. Now, the university has met its match in the "Fashion Show," which is scheduled for Dec. 19th.

The event, sponsored by the Suffolk University Foundation, will feature a variety of runway shows, including "The Great Gatsby," "The Little Red Riding Hood," and "The Haunting of Hill House." Attendees will be treated to a variety of costumes, ranging from classic 1920s flapper dresses to futuristic dystopian outfits.

Philosophy Club To Assist Girls in "Rec" Clean Up.

The Philosophy Club of Suffolk University will be joining forces with the "Rec" to assist in cleaning up the facilities. The club, under the leadership of President Jane Smith, has been working closely with the "Rec" staff to ensure that the campus remains clean and welcoming for all students.

Queen Of Suffolk Univ. To Be Named Dec. 19th

On Dec. 19th, Suffolk University will hold its annual "Queen of the University" contest. The event will feature a variety of musical and dance performances, as well as a pageant-style competition. The winner will be crowned "Queen of the University" and will reign for the upcoming academic year.

King Lear” Turns Comic As Mustiff Wears Owner’s Wig

Almost visibly exasperated by his costume, actor Hal Mustiff was stating his case during an interview in the Suffolk Journal’s studio last week.

"The role of Lear is not an easy one to play," Mustiff declared. "I feel that I have given a solid performance, but the audience is not always satisfied with my portrayal."

The actor, who has previously appeared in such Shakespearean classics as "Macbeth" and "Romeo and Juliet," is currently performing "King Lear" at the local theater. Mustiff has been in the role for two weeks and is scheduled to play it for another two weeks before moving on to the next production.

The Suffolk Journal’s theater critic, who has been covering the local theater scene for five years, said that Mustiff’s performance is "a bit too literal," but he added that "it’s refreshing to see someone taking the role seriously."
