"FINEST YEARBOOK POSSIBLE"
GOAL OF SENIOR PRESIDENT

"All the effort, sweat, tears, and short hours of the junior class is being honored this year, toward the end of gaining the status of "yearbook success.""

Senior President, Jim Clarke, in an exclusive interview with the fluffy featheries,

"Grew just as much as his earlier would in the minds of the class as a particular one that they do something with it. By the end of February, all the names of the students will be known, and the class will be ready to do it."

A submission of this information is the School's way to show that it is ready to do it.

Debaters Take Eight Decisions
At Burlington

With the senior debaters taking the next step in the debates, they are out of eight titles. The debate is currently working on the "notoriest" bill in Burlington.

Among the eight Suffolk debaters taking part in the Burlington debate are: Ann Dickey, E. D. Cameron, Charles G. Thompson, John E. Godfrey, Leno Young, Joseph Farmer, and Mrs. Thompson. The debate is currently working on the "notoriest" bill in Burlington.

Educators Offer English Pounds

FIRE DRILL IN FOUR MINUTES

Fire Marshal said that training for a fire drill today involves the school of over a thousand students during a fire drill. Although the drill was a success, there was a fire alarm in the building which took place at about the same time as the drill. Best wishes to Suffolk University, Class 54 on their Thanksgiving Eve dance.

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

Number 7...THE RAVEN

"You can use my name...but don't quaff me!"

Neddy's rolling the cubes over this beat's eyes!

He's spent too many evenings in Psychology 1. He knows nothing about cigarette smoke...or one fast puff or a quick stuff.

A worthwhile comparison certainly doesn't give you much need to go on.

That's why we suggest:

The Normal Test... The 30 Day Camel-Making Test, which mixture can be used as a regular smoker - on a pack after pack, day after day. No need to judge yourself.

Here's your quaff Camel... and only Camel...

For 30 days try "I Love" "I & Four (4 for Test)
we believe you'll love....

More People Smoke Camels than any other cigarette!
Coast Artillery Brings
'Larry' Rand to Suffolk

By PERI TRAMONTE

New Instructor, for whom professor Larry Rand is a strangely named fellow who was once a sailor.

People have to be taught quite a lot to be taught. The generally important topic of the art of teaching is not a subject which gets much attention in the classroom. Prof. Rand, a member of the Coast Artillery Corps of the United States Navy, was invited to Suffolk to lecture on the problems of field artillery.

During the week, the Coast Artillery Corps is sheltered in the lecture hall by the Suffolk University faculty, and the Suffolk students are taught the art of artillery.

First Mid-Term Exams
Cause Much Anxiety
S. HAYTON MELVIA

As a Freshman student, I can empathize with the煎 stress and anxiety caused by first mid-term exams.

While preparing for exams, students are often overwhelmed by the amount of material to be covered. This can lead to feelings of inadequacy and fear of failure.

In addition, the pressure to perform well on exams can cause significant stress. Students may worry about their grades and how they will impact their academic standing.

To cope with these pressures, it is important to establish a routine and balance study time with time for rest and relaxation.
