The Negro in Latin America

Cold Turkey on Jim Crow

Editor's Note—Our article in the June 25 issue of the Chronicle described the 25th anniversary of the founding of Colored People's Congress of Latin America (CPCA). This week, Attorney-General Robert F. Kennedy is also president of the organization, which is marking its 25th anniversary. He was also president of the CPCA in the 1960s. The CPCA has been in existence since 1945, and has held annual conferences in Latin America and Europe.

The CPCA has long been involved in the struggle for civil rights in the United States. It has been an important force in the fight against segregation and discrimination, and has played a key role in the development of civil rights legislation.

The CPCA is an international organization that works to promote civil rights and social justice throughout the world. It is dedicated to the principle of equality for all people, regardless of race, religion, or national origin.

The CPCA is a member of the International Democratic People's Union (IDP), which is affiliated with the World Federation of Democratic Youth (WFDY). The IDP is an international socialist organization that works to promote democratic socialism and world peace.

The CPCA is also a member of the World Alliance of姊 cities of Democratic and Socialist Countries (WADSC), which is an international organization of socialist cities.

The CPCA is a member of the World Federation of Democratic Youth (WFDY), which is a world-wide organization of socialist youth.
