COLLEGES ENROLLMENT GOES UP... AND UP...

Despite a shaky economy and pessimistic predictions, the mid-year enrollment in Suffolk's College divisions has taken a big jump over last year. Figures supplied by Data Processing Coordinator Tom Condon show the enrollment up 370 students from a similar period a year ago.

With late registrations still to come, a total of 4091 students are enrolled in the Colleges of Liberal Arts and Business Administration. This already surpasses last year's final tally of 4001. It includes both graduate and undergraduate programs in day and evening divisions.

Mary A. Hefron, registrar for the colleges, pointed to the College of Business Administration as the biggest plus, notably Suffolk's rapidly growing Master of Public Administration program. "The combined day and evening enrollment in the business college, including graduates, is up 350 from the period of a year ago," Miss Hefron said. "The number of special students has increased by 209 from last year."

Here are some sample figures: Day enrollment - 1972 - up 239 from 1974; Evening enrollment - 2009 - up 134 from 1974; Emerson - 8 - down 10 from 1974; Western Electric - 68 - a plus 2; Flexible Campus - 29, an increase of 16 and the new program in Swampscott 5.

The day College of Business Administration went from 629 to 735. The Evening College jumped from 927 to 1171. The day College of Liberal Arts was down 9 to 1246 while evenings went from 1733 to 2009, a plus of 276.

Miss Hefron predicted that the enrollment will increase by about another 100 before late registration comes to a close.

President Fulham said he was "extremely heartened" by the increase. "This is something we couldn't predict, but it indicates that more and more people are still interested in continuing their education at Suffolk because of the availability of these programs," Fulham said.

Included in the enrollment were 6 senior citizens.
S.U. HOOPSTERS CAPTURE MERRIMACK TOURNAMENT; SURGE TO 7 IN A ROW

Veteran Coach Charlie Law called the Brandeis game the turning point in a season which saw his well-balanced Rams five move from early disappointments to a winning streak that had reached 7 games as the SUN went to print.

"We really started to click in that game," assessed Law. The Rams lost to Brandeis by only 91-82 and the Judges are one of New England's top college ranked teams.

Suffolk went from that game to the Merrimack Christmas Tournament. Seeded fourth with their 2-4 record, the Rams walked off with the championship trophy, beating Merrimack 75-73 in the opening round and then nipping pre-tournament favorite Colby, 75-74 in the title game.

Suffolk's clever guard, Kevin Clark of Cambridge was named the most valuable player in the tournament. Three Suffolk players were named to the All Tournament Squad. Joining Clark were forward Steve Barrett of Watertown and Capt. John Howard, guard from Holbrook.

The S.U. five continued its winning ways in January, defeating Framingham State 91-85, Barrington, 78-64, Lowell State 97-72 and Nichols 91-71. Two players, Chris Tsiotos of Winthrop, averaging 22 points a game and forward Bob Ferrara of the North End, averaging 12 points a game, have been named to the weekly All-Star teams of the Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference. The Rams also defeated Bryant, 76-67.

In winning the Merrimack tournament, the 1975 Rams became the first Suffolk team to win a basketball tournament since 1961 when S.U. won the Babson Invitational Tournament. It also marked the first time Suffolk had defeated Merrimack in 11 years.

STATE LOTTERY DRAWING WILL BE AT SUFFOLK FEB. 6

Chalk up a first for Suffolk.

The Feb. 6 Massachusetts Lottery drawing will be held at 9 a.m. at the University Auditorium. President Fulham, Board Chairman Judge Rowe, Vice President Flannery and other top Suffolk officials will be on hand for the drawing, the first ever conducted at a school or college.

The drawing was arranged through the Suffolk Public Administration Society and lottery officials.

So, who knows, maybe a lucky $50,000 Suffolk ticket holder will be right there in person when his winning number is made known.
S.U. GETS $34,490 GRANT FOR TEACHER SCIENCE PROGRAM

The university has received a $34,490 grant from the National Science Foundation to be used for a science improvement study for some 60 elementary teachers in Boston's school system.

Suffolk and the Boston schools will implement the program for the 1975-76 school year. First to fifth grade teachers will receive training at Suffolk and the Boston School Department Science Center in Dorchester.

Suffolk Biology Professor Arthur J. West, who will direct the program, said that the teachers will attend weekly, two-hour sessions at Suffolk and three Saturday morning sessions during one semester. During the second semester, staffers will observe teachers in classroom situations.

Joining Dr. West in the program will be Education Prof. Robert M. Bates and Arthur F. Gustus, a veteran Boston teacher and administrator. The program will utilize the School System's Science Curriculum Improvement Study.

Dr. West, who worked with Dr. John A. Tyrell, director of science for the Boston School Department, in arranging the project, said the purpose of the program is "to increase the potential for utilization of the SCIS in all elementary classrooms in the Boston school."

In addition, West said that it is hoped that implementation will establish a long term relationship between Suffolk and the Boston school system using the resources of each to improve educational opportunities.

BUSINESS COLLEGE PLANS EXECUTIVE SEMINAR SERIES

A three-part Executive Seminar Series will be sponsored by the College of Business Administration at Marriott Hotel, Exit 51 and Route 128, and the Mass. Turnpike.

Co-chairmen are David G. Rissmiller, chairman of Finance and Banking at Suffolk, and William E. Donoghue, president of W.E. Donoghue & Co., consultants of Springfield.

The other two seminars, "Financial Forecasting Seminar" and "Capital Budgeting Workshop," will be held on March 24-26 and April 2-4 respectively.

Tuition is $325 per person per seminar. This includes 9 to 5 instruction, a luncheon and specially developed seminar study materials.
NEWS FROM THE FACULTY DEPARTMENTS

BUSINESS COLLEGE - Prof. Robert C. Waehler and Prof. Bernard W. Meyler have been reappointed to the Committee of Relations with Educational Institutions for the Massachusetts Society of Certified Public Accountants... Prof. William DeGiacomo and Stanley Dennis represented Suffolk at a symposium on accounting opportunities Jan. 18 at Northeastern University... Prof. Harold M. Stone has been elected to the Educational Committee for the Massachusetts Association of Public Accountants.

ENGLISH - Dr. Stanley Vogel is back from his sabbatical, which he capped off with a cruise to the West Indies, stopping at Nassau, Haiti, and Jamaica... Over the holidays, Dr. Edward Clark visited his parents in Ohio, and Drs. Fred Wilkins, Dennis Baron and Ann Bouteille mixed mots with the literati at the annual MLA conference in New York City... Mrs. Marilyn Jurich attended the Eastern Regional Conference of the Educational Arts Association in Boston earlier this month. The name of Mrs. Jurich appears in the preface of a text book, "Literature for Adolescents" by Stephen Dunning and Alan Howes. The authors acknowledge her help in reading the manuscript and making helpful suggestions... Dr. Bob Johnson and wife, Pat, and family visited Pat's parents in Independence, Mo. over the Christmas holidays.

LAW SCHOOL - Associate Dean Cliff Elias has been elected to a three-year term on the Alumni Council of Phillips Academy. He has also been appointed to a joint trustee-council committee to plan the school's bicentennial in 1976. Dean Elias has also been elected a trustee of Bon Secours Hospital, Methuen... Prof. Charles P. Kindregan is again listed in the American Bar Association Redbook (1975 issue)... Dean David J. Sargent hosted Suffolk Law School Alumni from the San Francisco area at a reception during the annual meeting of the Association of American Law Schools.

EDUCATION - Dr. Donald Unger, department chairman, has begun his semester sabbatical with Dr. Glen Lewandowski serving as acting chairman... Dr. Glen Eskedal has an article published in the winter edition of the Journal of Counseling Psychology. It is entitled "Symbolic Role Modeling and Cognitive Learning in the Training of Counselors..." The department has four new lecturers this semester. They are: Dr. Patricia J. Maslon, Martin S. Raben, Dr. Stephen Shatkin and Dr. Samuel E. Toto... Dick Santeusanio attended a Correctional Educator's Conference sponsored by the American Bar Association's Clearinghouse for Offender Literary Program in December at the Holiday Inn, Bethesda, Maryland. He was the only educator from this state to attend.

SPEECH - In their first tournament of the new year, the Suffolk Debating Team placed fifth at the University of Delaware competition involving 20 colleges from nine states. Suffolk was the lone Bay State representative. S.U.'s John Ryder, a freshman, placed fourth in presenting an analysis of a speech by George McGovern... This coming weekend Suffolk's team will be debating at Harvard University marking the first time that a Suffolk entry has appeared there in more than eight years... Suffolk will be hosting a high school speech tournament again this year. It is expected that on Saturday, March 8 more than 200 Massachusetts high schoolers will be on hand to take part.
As predictable as the swallows coming back to Capistrano was the news that Watergate star witness John Dean is launching a campus speaking tour, following his release from prison. And one of the first schools on the Dean's list is Suffolk. The former White House counsel is scheduled to appear here Feb. 25. Naturally, he'll pick up a healthy paycheck and will make a bundle on his tour... Another upcoming speaker is Jerald terHorst. Remember him? He held one of the shortest reigns ever as a Presidential press secretary, quitting President Ford over the Nixon pardon. terHorst will speak in the Auditorium Thursday at 1 p.m... President Fulham is one of a five-member citizen's committee which will screen applicants for the Mass Port Authority's executive directorship vacated by Ed King... The College of Business Administration and Graduate School of Administration is sponsoring a reception for women in management Thursday at 4 p.m. in Faculty Dining Room. It's open to all S.U. women interested in the field of management... Congratulations to two of our Mathematics professors who have completed their Ph.D requirements. Prof. Donald Cohn's doctorate work was done at Harvard University while Prof. Paul Ezust did his study at Tufts University... Prof. Marshall Hastings of Modern Languages and a group of his French students took a five-day field trip to Quebec City during the January class break... Eileen Fairchild of the College Library had a wonderful Christmas. It was on that day she became engaged to Walter R. White of Brighton. They plan a Fall wedding... Dr. Leo Lieberman will mark 19 years as chairman of the course in creative management when he again conducts the program in New York Feb. 3-7 for the American Management Association...

CHINA WEEK will be featured Feb. 18-21 with exhibitions in the lobby and in the library and Chinese dishes daily in the cafeteria. The program will be sponsored by the Course on Chinese History (Hist. 3.97). A highlight will be a lecture by Vilma Fairbank, former cultural attaché at the American Embassy, Chingking and Naking, entitled "Chinese Art of Painting." The lecture is sponsored by the Humanities Club... Another offering in February will be the Thomas Mann Centennial Celebration from the 24th to the 28th. A lecture by Henry Hatfield, professor at Harvard University, on "Achieving the Impossible-Thomas Mann" will be given Feb. 25 at 1 p.m. in Room 517. Two films, Herr Und Hund-Aman and His Dog (black and white in English and running 50 minutes) will be shown Feb. 27 at 1 p.m. in Room 517. That evening at 7:30 in the auditorium, Konigliche Hoheit (color, in German only and 105 minutes), will be screened. Deac Rossell, film coordinator at the Museum of Fine Arts, will introduce the film... Prof. Jehudah Leftin and Mrs. Leftin and their son traveled to Israel for the wedding of daughter, Linda, to Siman-Tov (Simon) Leviel of Maskepet Batga, Israel... Don Levitan, Suffolk's new director of the Center for State Management, was notified by the National Research Council's Division of Engineering that a research paper he authored has been accepted for publication and presentation at the 54th annual meeting of the Transportation Research Board. The title of the paper is "Massachusetts Route 128: A Non-emulative Enigma..." The Social Committee is planning its dance party for Friday, Feb. 28 in the cafeteria. All faculty and staffers are invited.

(Continued on Page Six)
A clipping from our newsclip service told of a recent reunion of the 1949 Towle, N.H. High School basketball team which won 20 games and lost two. The star guard of the quintet was Suffolk Law School Dean Dave Sargent. In those days, Dave was called "Sure Shot" Sargent... Speaking of basketball, the SUN beam this month goes to the Suffolk University hoop team, winners of seven straight at this writing. And of course, they're accomplishing it without a home gym and playing before rival audiences... The Museum of Afro History and the University Lecture Series will sponsor black novelist and poet Bryant Rollins Feb. 11 at 1 p.m. in the President's Conference Room. Rollins began his career as a reporter for the Boston Globe... And on Feb. 18 the Political Science Association will present new Secretary of State Paul Guzzi at 1 p.m. Guzzi will speak on "Reorganization..." Last reports were that Suffolk's club hockey team boasted a 12-0-1 record, which is something to talk about in any league... Students in Dr. Edward Clark's new course, "It Happened in Boston: A City in Fiction," had themselves a rare treat Tuesday with the appearance of Dr. Ola Elizabeth Winslow as a guest lecturer. Dr. Winslow, a Pulitzer prize winning author and authority on Boston, spoke on "Life in Colonial Boston." She formerly taught English at Wellesley College and Radcliffe and is the author of a plethora of critical volumes and articles...

THE SUFFOLK WOMEN'S PROGRAM COMMITTEE HAS planned an attractive program for Careers for Women Week Feb. 3-7. Workshops for women, discussions on obtaining jobs, advancement and alternative careers and a recruitment day for women will be among the topics on the agenda... Capt. Anthony DeVico, our Law Placement director, served as committee coordinator for the American Justinian Society of Jurists dinner in Boston Jan. 26. Capt. DeVico, former military judge in Boston, is treasurer of the society... One of the stars of the new TV hit, The Jeffersons, began his dramatic career while he was an undergraduate student at Suffolk. He's Paul Benedict, veteran stage actor, who got his B.S. in Journalism degree in 1960... President Fulham will host the opening reception of the International Law of the Sea Conference Friday evening at the Sheraton Boston. The conference brings together some of the world's leading diplomats and sea experts... When Grace Taggart of Lexington, sister of College Registrar Mary Hefron had her seventh child recently, first grader Timmy exclaimed to his teacher: "My baby brother weighed eight pounds, two quarts..." Just off the presses (Kendall, Hunt Publishing Co.) is Betty Williams' "Women Today! Tomorrow?" The S.U. Psych. professor's new book should be available in the bookstore shortly. Ms. Williams co-authored it with Eileen T. Nickerson, formerly of Suffolk and now of Boston University... Payroll Supervisor Alice DeRosa is justifiably proud of her nephew, Richard A. DeRosa, who received his bachelor's degree from Suffolk in 1968. He is now pursuing his Ph.D. in neuro-physiology at the University of Toronto... Chief Accountant Mike Dwyer and wife, Peggy, just enjoyed a week's vacation in Jamaica... Cashier Mike Lombard and wife, Pat, are expecting their first child in September... Finally, a salute to Dean Dick McDowell for his first rate job as Santa Claus at the recent Christmas party. The kids loved you, Dean... And that's the way it is at Suffolk in January, 1975. See you in February...