A recent addition to the campus scene is the new look of the Rec Hall, which received a face-lift in the summer months. A new look was given to the Student Center, the Jemicy Building, and the O'Neill Library.

Dean’s Prediction

Proved True

By Arthur W. King

The prediction of Dean John F. O’Neill that Suffolk would rank among the leading universities of the nation has been proven true. Suffolk has been ranked among the leading universities of the nation, according to a recent study conducted by the New England Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

The Man Who Did It

In the accreditation of Suffolk University could be attributed to one man, that man is WALTER R. RDH, president of Suffolk University.

The Editor's Note

A fine article is scheduled to be published in the next issue of the Suffolk Journal. The article will be written by the university's new editor, WALTER R. RDH, who has been appointed to the position of editor of the Suffolk Journal.

The future of the university is secure, according to RDH, who has been appointed to the position of editor of the Suffolk Journal. The future of the university is secure, according to RDH, who has been appointed to the position of editor of the Suffolk Journal.

FACULTY AND CLASS LEADERS HAPPY OVER ACCREDITATION

Dr. Calvin B. Potter: "I am happy about it. It certainly was a long time coming, and we are happy from the point of view that the students will benefit."

Dr. Louis D. Will: "After having heard for this home and for this college for about five years, I had some misgivings about the outcome, although I felt we were going to be able to apply for and get the accreditation. I am very pleased about it."

Dr. H. H. Low: "I am very much pleased that we have an accredited college and I feel it will be of good to the students."

Dr. John H. North: "As President, there are the administrative offices of the university for their continued efforts."

Dean: "I want to express my appreciation to the administration and faculty for their efforts, in getting the accreditation."
GOODWILL HOUR SUCCESS: CAPACITY CROWD ATTENDS

Chairman, checking the crowd, the well-dressed guests, saw his latest drive come true when enrollment opened.

Dr. C. L. of Community Council observed: "The capacity crowd shows how far we have come, and how far we have to go."

COUNCIL'S REJOICING

"It is a gratifying sight," said the Council as they found their fifth new candidate, the first brought to them by 300 visitors.

"Coun. L. G. of Goodwill," the Council observed, "is the second to show his capacity in so short a time."

"The Council," said M. W. of Community, "has shown its potential and is ready to face the future with confidence."
Dean's New Year's Message

A New Year, a New Start. A chance for fresh starts, students, staff, and faculty. In 1972, we are determined to make the most of this opportunity and to set new goals for ourselves. We are looking forward to a year of growth, learning, and success.

Dartmouth Indians Down Suffolk Basketeers, 73-49

An unexpected Suffolk loss closed out the second round of the Northeastern Big Four league for the Indians and the first round for the Basketeers.

Coach Don'ty's boys had everything going for them - the defense, the rebounds, and the eight points in the first half. The outcome was a match up of two teams who had been playing well in recent meetings.

PERSPECTIVE

During her 20 years as A. E. Butler, Mrs. B. has always welcomed a select group of high school officials into her home for visits of appreciation, but never before have they come in large numbers. On Thursday afternoon, May 13, Mrs. B.'s role was reversed and she was the hostess for 180 guests, including clergy, officials, and representatives of various organizations.

Mrs. B.'s home was the setting for the occasion, and the guests were greeted by a warm and welcome atmosphere. The event was marked by speeches from prominent figures, including the mayor of the city, who praised Mrs. B. for her contributions to the community.

The highlight of the occasion was the presentation of a plaque to Mrs. B. by a group of local leaders. The plaque recognized Mrs. B.'s dedication to the community and her unwavering support of its various organizations.

Mrs. B. expressed her gratitude for the occasion and her appreciation for the support she had received over the years.

Faculty Honors President Bursc

President Bursc honored four faculty members with awards for outstanding contributions to the university. The recipients were: Professor Smith, who received the Distinguished Service Award; Professor Johnson, who received the Meritorious Service Award; Professor Brown, who received the Outstanding Teaching Award; and Professor Green, who received the Research Excellence Award.

The awards were presented in a ceremony that was attended by faculty, students, and guests from the university and the community.

The event was marked by speeches from the recipients and the university administration, who praised the recipients for their contributions to the university and the community.

The ceremony concluded with a reception where guests were able to mingle with the recipients and express their congratulations.

REVIEW

GOODBYE MY FANCY
BY SUFFOLK THESPIANS

The musical is a classic that has been performed around the world, and this production is no exception. The cast is talented and the costumes are colorful and vibrant. The music is优美 and the choreography is well-executed.

The story follows the life of a young woman who dreams of becoming a famous actress. However, her dreams are shattered when she discovers that her talent is not enough to make it in the competitive world of show business.

The plot is well-paced and the acting is excellent. The characters are well-developed and the storyline is engaging. The musical is a delightful and entertaining experience that will leave the audience spellbound.
