Suffolk University Newsletter (SUN), vol. 05, no. 8, 1975

Suffolk University Office of Public Affairs

Follow this and additional works at: https://dc.suffolk.edu/sun

Recommended Citation
https://dc.suffolk.edu/sun/83

This Newsletter is brought to you for free and open access by the Suffolk University Publications at Digital Collections @ Suffolk. It has been accepted for inclusion in Suffolk University Newsletter (SUN) by an authorized administrator of Digital Collections @ Suffolk. For more information, please contact dct@suffolk.edu.
LAW SCHOOL TUITION IS INCREASED

The Board of Trustees has voted to increase tuition in the Law School $250 for the Fall 1975 term. This will bring the tuition for full-time day law students to $2000. Evening Law School tuition was hiked $175 to $1500.

In the colleges a part-time three-hour course will be increased from $140 to $160. In addition, a four-credit course will cost $215.

There will be no tuition increase in the full-time day colleges program.

Rising costs, principally the $3 million renovation of the Fenton Building and the accompanying move of the college departments from the Donahue Building, necessitated the increases, Vice President Francis X. Flannery said.

WOMEN WIN KEY STUDENT POSTS IN LAW SCHOOL

Women have been elected to two coveted positions for law school students.

Pam Hunt of Cambridge and formerly of Des Moines, Iowa, has been elected the first woman editor-in-chief of the Suffolk Law Review. Ms. Hunt, a 28-year old graduate of Mills College, California with a masters in college administration from the University of Denver, served as a counselor at Fitchburg State College before entering Suffolk Law School. She is a second year day student.

Ms. Barbara Beccles of Roxbury and formerly of Philadelphia, was elected president of the Student Bar Association. A 34-year old mother of one son, she is the first woman and first black to head the SBA. Ms. Beccles is deputy assistant for research and program development for Model Cities, Inc. She is a second year day student.
LIBRARIES DIRECTOR RICHARD SULLIVAN TO RETIRE

Richard J. Sullivan, director of libraries, is retiring after 17 years association with the university. His retirement becomes effective Aug. 31.

Sullivan, 68, has spent some 40 years in library work. He served as librarian at the Lawrence Public Library for nearly 20 years and was document librarian for Avco Research and Development before coming to Suffolk in March of 1958. He was formerly chairman of the Massachusetts Board of Library Commissioners, a position he held for nine years.

President Fulham praised Sullivan's contributions to the university. "The present outstanding condition of our college libraries, which were commended highly in the recent report of the New England Association of Schools and Colleges reaccreditation, is due largely to the untiring efforts of Professor Sullivan," Fulham said. "We are extremely grateful for his outstanding devotion to the university."

Sullivan, who makes his home in Reading, has bought a 3-bedroom ranch house in Aiken, S.C. where he and his wife, Mary, herself a librarian until retirement, will settle in ideal climate.

An avid golfer, who shoots in the mid-eighties, Prof. Sullivan points out that Augusta, Ga. is only 17 miles from his new home. "And that's the site of the Master's Tournament which I have never seen. I guess it will be mixed emotions in retiring. I will miss all of the wonderful friends I've made at Suffolk and of course the work, but I won't miss the New England winters," he smiled.

A search committee has been formed to select Sullivan's successor.

GOVT. CENTER GARAGE TO DISCONTINUE REDUCED RATES

Beginning May 10, Suffolk students, faculty and staff will have to pay the full rate of $2 a day to park at the Government Center Garage on New Sudbury Street.

The university has been notified by Parking Specialties, Inc. operators of the garage, that the half price arrangement for S.U. personnel will be discontinued on that date. The policy has been in effect since shortly after the garage opened several years ago. Suffolk stamped parking tickets were honored for the reduced rate of $1.
S.U. HOLDS PUBLIC MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE FRIDAY

Suffolk's Center for State Management and the American Society for Public Administration will sponsor a one-day conference for public managers and administrators Friday at the Hotel Lenox.

Dean Richard McDowell of the College of Business Administration and Graduate School of Administration will welcome an expected gathering of 200 for the program entitled "Development of Public Managers" at 9:30 a.m.

There will be a special effort to provide informational services on opportunities for minorities, women and students. Throughout the day, leaders from governmental departments and agencies, labor unions, education and the legislature will explore public management.

Dean Nesta M. Gallas of the John Jay College of Criminal Justice, CUNY, and president-elect of the American Society for Public Administration, will be the keynote speaker. John F. Buckley, secretary of administration for the Commonwealth, will be the luncheon speaker.

Other speakers at the conference will include Dr. Donald Levitan, director of Suffolk's Center for State Management, Rep. Barbara Gray of Framingham, Robert H. McClain Jr., deputy director of the State Department of Administration and Finance, Nancy Beecher, chairman of the Massachusetts Civil Service Commission, Paula Gold, chief of the Consumer Protection Division for the Commonwealth, Paul Parks, secretary for educational affairs, U.S. Magistrate Willie J. Davis and John Boone, director of urban affairs for WNAC-TV Channel 7.

CHARLIE LAW IS WINNER OF 'DOGGIE JULIAN' AWARD

Basketball Coach Charlie Law is the 1975 recipient of the Doggie Julian Award, presented annually to an individual who has made outstanding contributions to basketball in New England.

The award, made in memory of the late Dartmouth College and Boston Celtics coach, was made at the annual New England Basketball Awards dinner at the Sheraton Lincoln in Worcester. It was voted by New England basketball coaches.

Law has coached Suffolk basketball for 29 years and the past season directed the Rams to a 19-7 record, best ever for Suffolk, and climaxed by play in the Division III NCAA tournament held at Brandeis University.
S. U. - HUB SCHOOL PERSONNEL WILL MEET HERE SATURDAY

President Fulham will greet Boston school personnel and other educators at an awareness activity session at Suffolk Saturday designed to acquaint participants with the Science Curriculum Improvement Studies program for elementary teachers. The program, sponsored by the university and the Boston Public Schools, will begin in the Fall.

The get acquainted program will begin at 10:30 a.m. with discussions among members of the Boston Public School Science Department and the university. Dean Michael Ronayne, Education Professor Robert Bates, Biology Prof. Arthur West will take part for Suffolk.

Other participants will be Dr. John Tyrell, director of the Boston Public Schools Science Department, Dr. Francis P. Collea, professor of science education at California State University at Fullerton, Dr. Stephen Godomsky, professor of science education at the University of Maine at Farmington, and Dr. Chester E. Raun, director of the SCIS Leadership Program at Temple University.

Suffolk is sponsoring the program under a $34,490 grant from the National Science Foundation. It will assist selected elementary teachers to implement improvement studies in Grades 1-5.

SPRINGFEST MAY 9 WILL FEATURE TALENT CONTEST

A new twist has been added to this year's Spring Fest which will be held Friday, May 9 at 8 p.m. in the Suffolk Auditorium. A talent contest, featuring 13 acts, including student and faculty, will be conducted on stage instead of a guest entertainment group, as in the past.

The committee, chaired by Dr. Ilse Fang of Modern Languages, urges all of the Suffolk community to attend. The audience will be the judges of the talent and receive ballots to vote for the winner. There will be cash prizes.

And that's not all. Following the talent show, a reception in the main dining hall will offer food delicacies made by faculty, staff and families. Guests are invited to get out their recipes for cookies, cake, brownies, cocktail dips, and the like and bring them to Suffolk that evening or they can be delivered to the school cafeteria earlier that day.

RECOGNITION DAY ON THURSDAY MAY 1

Director of Student Activities Jim Peterson reminds faculty and staff that Recognition Day will be held Thursday at 1 p.m. in the Auditorium. This is the day when Suffolk honors its students who have demonstrated outstanding academic achievements and social service-athletic accomplishments.

A reception will follow the activities.
There's usually a winner in the audience when the State Lottery conducts its weekly drawing and the one at Suffolk University was no exception. Stepping up with a winning $5 ticket (a blue match) was Willie Ross of the Service Department... Anyone interested in selling new and used textbooks should check in to the Book Store between May 1 and May 30 or call Extension 350 at your convenience... The blood drive conducted by Alpha Phi Omega exceeded its goal of 100 pints by more than 20, best drive in memory. Jim Peterson of Student Activities reminds all donors that they and their families are covered for one year if they should require blood... Faculty and staffs should be receiving official notices within a week or so of the final department moves to take place when the Donahue Building is converted to Law School use... The William Randolph Hearst Foundation has renewed its $5000 grant to Suffolk. The grant is used for the high school newspapers competitions and journalism programming... James Sahakian, the third-year law student who received the Outstanding Student Award for 1975, is the son of Dr. William Sahakian of Philosophy... Dr. Fred Wilkins of English addressed an assembly by the Humanities Club on "Arts in Postwar Poland" April 29. Earlier in the month, Dr. Anne Boutelle's honors seminar heard from Jane Grignetti of Beth Israel Hospital's Psychiatry Department on the pathology of Zelda Fitzgerald, wife of the famed author... The French classes of Ronni Lacroute have put together a couple of videotaped French plays for presentation on WSUB in May. One features a mini-bike race down Ridgeway Lane. The classes will also view two modern plays by Ionesco and Beckett and acted by the company of Bernard Uzan... Dr. Joe McCarthy of Education is getting ready to read his paper, "The Struggle to Integrate Boston Schools, 1844-55; A Question of Interpretation" at the Eighth Annual Bloomsburg State History College conference at Bloomsburg, Pa. May 2 ...

GENEVA BOUND - Judith R. Dushku of Government will be an observer at the U.N. Conference on Law of the Sea at Geneva, Switzerland. She teaches international law. The conference will consider such matters as fishing rights, territorial sea and exploitation of the resources of the ocean bed... Dr. Ed Clark of English attended the annual convention of the College Language Association on Black Literature in New Orleans April 9-12... Dr. David Stratman, lecturer in English, who underwent surgery recently, was welcomed back by his Freshman evening composition students enthusiastically. They presented him with a cake upon his return to class... If you're in the market for a toastmaster general, you might consider Dr. Mal Wetherbee of Psychology. His performance as emcee of the Pier Four dinner for the Suffolk basketball team won a five-star rating from all corners. Some very funny lines... David G. Rissmiller, chairman of Finance and Banking, spoke at the Spring meeting of the Middle Atlantic College Stores at Hershey, Pa. His topic was "Financial Records..." Dr. Glen Lewandowski, acting chairman of Education, reminds us that the department will offer three new graduate programs next Fall. They are: master of science in business administration, master of education in early childhood education and a master of education in special education... Bursar Paul Ryan and family visited Disneyworld in Florida... A SUN beam this month to Susan McCarthy of College Placement for her 20-mile hike in the Greater Boston Walk for Hunger in which she netted $52 for the benefiting agencies.

(continued on page six)
When Dr. Arthur West of Biology recently visited the California Berkeley campus, he had a chance to meet with a former student, Dr. Edward "Ned" Connolly, now a pediatrician and most recently associated with Oakland Childrens Hospital. They rehashed some pleasant memories of Connolly, married and the father of three, working his way through Suffolk - on the switchboard among other things - before attending Temple Medical School... Prof. Ben Diamond of the Business College has completed his second year as chairman of the finance committee for the Town of Canton. He's been a member of the committee for six years... Janice Fennell of the College Library staff has been missing from campus this month. The reason: jury duty... Suffolk Phi Beta Kappa faculty are making a concerted effort to establish a Suffolk chapter of Phi Beta Kappa, the national honor society. Dr. Walter Johnson of Physics, representing a S.U. committee, visited the society's headquarters in Washington, D.C. to discuss application procedures and how Suffolk might participate in national programs... Dr. Stanley Vogel's work, "German Influences on the American Transcendentalists," gets a high recommendation in Paul F. Boller Jr.'s bibliography on American Transcendentalism... Dr. Dennis Baron of English has reviewed in the January issue of Style, a new book on Theoretic Semics... Mrs. Marilyn Jurich and a group of her students from her Children's Literature course attended the first annual festival in children's literature at Boston State College... Suffolk's Theta-Lambda Chapter of Phi Alpha Theta, national honor society in history, will initiate Dean Michael Ronayne as a member May 8 in the President's Conference Room. Eleven students will also be inducted...

SUFFOLK'S BASEBALL TEAM picked up its fourth win of the season with an 11-3 victory over Curry Monday. Tom Walsh's Rams are now 4-8 and showing improvement... Bob Stackelbeck's tennis team is 2-4 and in its last outing defeated Eastern Nazarene College... Suffolk's Speech team finished 26th out of 110 colleges competing in the Fifth Annual National Speech Tournament at Niagara University. A fine showing to complete an outstanding season... Two new employees this month. Carol (Kaplan) Levine, formerly of Accounting, returns part-time in Sociology, and Mary K. Rogers of Brookline joins the Law School Admissions Office as a secretary... Mary Fallon of the Alumni Office enjoyed a trip to Bermuda... The Alumni is combining two events into one (Alumni Day and Suffolk Night at the Pops) and calling it Suffolk Alumni Night at the Pops. It will be held June 20 at 8:30 p.m. with tickets $11 per person and $55 a table. There will be a special reception at Symphony Hall following the performance... The Evening Division's "Mystery Ride" had as its destination, the Steak and Brew in Framingham. Excellent menu and good band, were the reports. Dean Joe Strain and Mrs. Marie Strain headed the contingent... A sure sign of Spring: Ray Parks of Humanities had his arts class out on Boston Common... We'll be back in May for our final issue of the academic year. See you then...