Honorary Degrees Recipients at the Law School Commencement. Seated (left to right) Vincent A. Fulmer, Chairman of the Board of Trustees; Vernon E. Jordan, Jr., President of the National Urban League; Curator of the Doolin-Brown-White Collection Margaret M. Heckler of the 10th District; Standing (left to right) Garrett H. Byrne, JD’74, former Suffolk College of Liberal Arts and Sciences student, who received an honorary degree; Gustave E. Husson, professor of chemistry at Mount Holyoke College; Frank Sawyer, President and Senior Fisheries research biologist for the National Marine Fisheries Service; Anna J. Gilmore, a widowed mother of six, was presented with the Daniel J. Fern Award, the Daniel J. Fern Award, which will study at the University of Massachusetts and to Kevin MacLellan of Pembroke, a philosophy major, who will pursue doctoral studies at Brown University. Top scholastic award in the law school, the Daniel J. Fern Award, was presented to Robert Petitti of Quincy, who received a B.S.B.A. degree. The Harriet Lillian Andersen Award, presented by The Center for Policy Alternatives, was awarded to Robert Petitti of Quincy, who received a B.S.B.A. degree. The Harvard Lillian Andersen Award, presented by The Center for Policy Alternatives, was awarded to Robert Petitti of Quincy, who received a B.S.B.A. degree.

Suffolk’s Authors on Display—The College Library recently had on display more than 100 publications by Suffolk alumni and Suffolk faculty. Here, College Librarian, Edmund G. Hamann (right) discusses Law Librarian Edward J. Bander’s recent book, “Legal Research and Education Abroad.” The display coincided with the commencement season and Suffolk’s approaching 75th anniversary.
Director of Annual Funds for the Colleges Named

Robert L. West, BSBA'75, has joined the University as an assistant director of development. A marketing major, he comes to the University from Foot-Joy, Inc., where he was a Customer Service Representative.

Mr. West will be responsible for the Annual Fund for the Colleges and its related activities. He stated, "The accomplishment of the Annual Fund in recent years has been most impressive. But we are moving forward to meet new challenges as the alumni are becoming more aware each day of their importance to the University and its programs."

He replaces Frank A. Sablone, BSBA'70, EdM'71 who became the Associate Director of Resources for Tufts School of Veterinary Medicine. Mr. Sablone directed the Annual Fund for the Colleges and its related activities. His efforts resulted in a 68 percent increase in the number of alumni now participating in the Annual Fund.

He will be missed by all of the volunteers who worked with him.

Sablone was also instrumental in establishing alumni programs in other states. Richard W. Novak, BSBA'58, of the Washington, D.C. Alumni Club, expressed everyone's sentiments when he wrote, "We are going to miss you. You have done a fine job of bringing the alumni of Suffolk University.

And most importantly, you were also able to unite alumni from New York; Maryland; Virginia; Washington, D.C.; and Florida. The Washington, D.C. Alumni Club of the General Alumni Association was really your creation and we won't forget you."

Second Annual Alumni Golf Day Draws 81

Eighty-one golfers participated in the Second Annual Alumni Golf Day which was held at the Wollaston Golf Club in Milton, Massachusetts. Unfortunately, some afternoon showers prevented a number of players from completing their rounds, but everyone was able to enjoy the cocktails, dinner, and the prize giving of 40 golfers.

Paul D. DiFederico, MBA'78 won an engraved silver tray for low net score of 72 after the Calloway System was applied. Frank A. Sablone, BSBA'70, EdM'71 took the honors for the second year with a low gross score of 80.

Anthony F. Farma, BS'77 won the honors for the second year with a low gross score of 80.

What pleased Walsh most was the winning season, reversing an 8-12 record of 1978 and several off years. Suffoke shortstop Jim Gratia led the club in batting with a .397 average, highlighted by the Framingham State game in which he hit for the cycle (single, double, triple and homer). But right behind Gratia was veteran Gary Donovan with a .396 batting average.

Donovan concluded his Suffolk career brilliantly. He was undeated as a pitcher with a 6-0 record in addition to outstanding play at second base. He capped off the year by being selected as a Division III All-Star playing for the College Division team in their 3-2 victory over the University Division team in the All-Star game at Fenway Park.

Big wins for the Rams were an 11-7 record and a team batting average of .308.

"Buying Your First Home" seminar speakers: (left to right) Richard W. Novak, BSBA'58; Arthur Bell, BSBA'75; Robert L. West, BSBA'75; Paul D. DiFederico, MBA'78; Robert A. Sablone, BSBA'70; and Anthony Farma, BSBA'77.

House Seminar Draws Capacity Crowd

Plans are already underway to repeat the popular luncheon seminar, "Buying Your First Home", in 1980. Over 160 alumni crowded into this year's June 3 program over 50 couples were turned away.

Sponsored by the General Alumni Association and the MBA/MPA Alumni Association, John A. Zorka, MBA'74 and Dr. George N. Torrey, BSBA'56, MAEd'74, deserve special recognition for coordinating the program. The five hour program covered such topics as: Consumer Awareness, Viewing for a Home, Home Inspection, Financing, Buying and Selling, the Purchase and Sale Agreement, the Closing and Condominiums.

Rams Baseballers Post Winning Year

Suffolk baseball team socked its way to its most successful season in seven years this Spring, finishing with a 11-7 record and a team batting average of .308.

"This is one of the hardest-hitting teams I've ever coached," said Coach Tom Walsh, BS'74, EdM'76 head mentor for the past seven years and a Suffolk alumnus. "Right down the lineup we had guys who could hit, and that's what paid off."

What pleased Walsh most was the winning season, reversing an 8-12 record of 1978 and several off years. September shortstop Jim Gratia led the club in batting with a .397 average, highlighted by the Framingham State game in which he hit for the cycle (single, double, triple and homer). But right behind Gratia was veteran Gary Donovan with a .396 batting average.

Donovan concluded his Suffolk career brilliantly. He was undefeated as a pitcher with a 6-0 record in addition to outstanding play at second base. He capped off the year by being selected as a Division III All-Star playing for the College Division team in their 3-2 victory over the University Division team in the All-Star game at Fenway Park.

Big wins for the Rams were an 11-7 decision over powerful Division II University of Lowell, 12-6 triumph over Tufts University.

Suffolk’s baseball team socked its way to its most successful season in seven years this Spring, finishing with a 11-7 record and a team batting average of .308.

"This is one of the hardest-hitting teams I've ever coached," said Coach Tom Walsh, BS'74, EdM'76 head mentor for the past seven years and a Suffolk alumnus. "Right down the lineup we had guys who could hit, and that's what paid off."

What pleased Walsh most was the winning season, reversing an 8-12 record of 1978 and several off years. September shortstop Jim Gratia led the club in batting with a .397 average, highlighted by the Framingham State game in which he hit for the cycle (single, double, triple and homer). But right behind Gratia was veteran Gary Donovan with a .396 batting average.

Donovan concluded his Suffolk career brilliantly. He was undefeated as a pitcher with a 6-0 record in addition to outstanding play at second base. He capped off the year by being selected as a Division III All-Star playing for the College Division team in their 3-2 victory over the University Division team in the All-Star game at Fenway Park.

Big wins for the Rams were an 11-7 decision over powerful Division II University of Lowell, 12-6 triumph over Tufts University.

Suffolk’s baseball team socked its way to its most successful season in seven years this Spring, finishing with a 11-7 record and a team batting average of .308.

"This is one of the hardest-hitting teams I've ever coached," said Coach Tom Walsh, BS'74, EdM'76 head mentor for the past seven years and a Suffolk alumnus. "Right down the lineup we had guys who could hit, and that's what paid off."

What pleased Walsh most was the winning season, reversing an 8-12 record of 1978 and several off years. September shortstop Jim Gratia led the club in batting with a .397 average, highlighted by the Framingham State game in which he hit for the cycle (single, double, triple and homer). But right behind Gratia was veteran Gary Donovan with a .396 batting average.

Donovan concluded his Suffolk career brilliantly. He was undefeated as a pitcher with a 6-0 record in addition to outstanding play at second base. He capped off the year by being selected as a Division III All-Star playing for the College Division team in their 3-2 victory over the University Division team in the All-Star game at Fenway Park.

Big wins for the Rams were an 11-7 decision over powerful Division II University of Lowell, 12-6 triumph over Tufts University.

Suffolk’s baseball team socked its way to its most successful season in seven years this Spring, finishing with a 11-7 record and a team batting average of .308.

"This is one of the hardest-hitting teams I've ever coached," said Coach Tom Walsh, BS'74, EdM'76 head mentor for the past seven years and a Suffolk alumnus. "Right down the lineup we had guys who could hit, and that's what paid off."

What pleased Walsh most was the winning season, reversing an 8-12 record of 1978 and several off years. September shortstop Jim Gratia led the club in batting with a .397 average, highlighted by the Framingham State game in which he hit for the cycle (single, double, triple and homer). But right behind Gratia was veteran Gary Donovan with a .396 batting average.

Donovan concluded his Suffolk career brilliantly. He was undefeated as a pitcher with a 6-0 record in addition to outstanding play at second base. He capped off the year by being selected as a Division III All-Star playing for the College Division team in their 3-2 victory over the University Division team in the All-Star game at Fenway Park.

Big wins for the Rams were an 11-7 decision over powerful Division II University of Lowell, 12-6 triumph over Tufts University.

Suffolk’s baseball team socked its way to its most successful season in seven years this Spring, finishing with a 11-7 record and a team batting average of .308.
MBA/MPA Alumni Association Board of Directors

*Frank Kempisty, MBA’78
Charles J. Hamilton, MPA’75
Clara A. Bortney, BS’74, MPA’77
Douglas R. Baird, BSBA’71, MBA’75

Robert P. Edson, BSBA’67, MBA’72
President

Clerk

U.A.C. Representative

John A. Zorka, MBA’74

Robert P. Zickell, Jr., MBA’73
Vice President

Vice President

Robert P. Zickell, Jr., MBA’73
Vice President

Celia E. Strickler, Exec. MBA’78
Vice President

University Alumni Council Representatives

Robert P. Edison, BSBA’67, MBA’72
John A. Zorka, MBA’74

Congratulations to all!

Guest speaker at the annual MBA/MPA alumni dinner/dance was political commentator Dick Flavin (left) shown with John A. Zorka, MBA’74, outgoing MBA/MPA Alumni Association President and Suffolk University President Thomas A. Fulham.

Dear Alumnus/Alumna,

I am pleased to report to you that the Board of Trustees at the request of the faculty has changed the name of the College of Business Administration/ Graduate School of Administration to the School of Management. The change represents a recognition of present practice rather than any major departure from activities in the recent past.

The School of Management serves business, government, and non-profit organizations. We presently offer undergraduate degrees in Management, Accounting, Public Administration, Finance and Marketing. We offer graduate degrees in Business Administration and Public Administration. Our students and faculty are involved with both the private and public sectors. We recognize our responsibility to management practice in a variety of settings. Hence, the change in the name of the School.

We believe that the School of Management is in an excellent position to provide support for management in all sectors in the 1980’s. Our commitment to the success of the free enterprise system, and to the effective management of government and non-profit organizations continues unabated. We are determined to make every effort to assist aspiring men and women to advance their careers and the fortunes of the organization that they serve.

We appreciate your help in the past. We look forward to your continued support in the future.

Sincerely,

Richard L. McDowell, Ph.D. Dean

Outgoing director of the MBA/MPA Alumni Association, Robert G. Babion, MBA’73, is recognized by Dean Richard L. McDowell for his two-year active participation on the alumni board. Also recognized was Daniel A. Sullivan, BSBA’70, MBA’76.

Newly elected President of the MBA/MPA Alumni Association Charles J. Hamilton, MPA’75. Mr. Hamilton is Assistant Director of the Massachusetts Lottery Commission.

In the recent MBA/MPA Alumni Association election, the following alumni were elected to the Board of Directors:

Douglas R. Baird, BSBA’71, MBA’75
Clara A. Bonney, BS’74, MPA’77
Charles J. Hamilton, MPA’75
Frank Kempisty, MBA’78
Celia E. Strickler, Exec. MBA’78
Robert P. Zickell, Jr., MBA’73

At the initial meeting of the Board of Directors the officers for the 1979-1980 academic year were elected. They are:

President

Charles J. Hamilton, MPA’75

Vice President

Robert P. Zickell, Jr., MBA’73

Clerk

Michael L. Backer, Exec. MBA’77

University Alumni Council Representatives

Robert P. Edison, BSBA’67, MBA’72
John A. Zorka, MBA’74

Investment Property

Topic of Seminar

The MBA/MPA alumni luncheon seminar, “Analyzing Investment Property from a Small Investors Point of View,” held on Thursday, May 24, brought approximately 25 alumni back to the university campus.

The program featured Frederick D. Kay of the Frederick Kay Realty Company of Brookline. Since 1963, Mr. Kay has engaged in general real estate practice and is experienced in the brokerage, financing and management of real estate. He received his B.S.B.A. degree from Syracuse University and holds membership in the Greater Boston Real Estate Board, National Association of Real Estate Boards, Society of Real Estate Appraisers, Legislative and Taxation Commission (1977), and the Brookline-Brighton-Allston Investment Council.

Following his talk, Mr. Kay distributed a description of an investment property and showed his audience how to read, interpret and question the figures listed. He warned the group that the average two-family owner-occupied dwelling, today, just about breaks even. He went on to indicate that at least six units were necessary to make money. He also indicated that condominiums were the least expensive way to live now.

They are:

Robert P. Zickell, Jr., MBA’73

Celia E. Strickler, Exec. MBA’78

Frank Kempisty, MBA’78

Charles J. Hamilton, MPA’75

Michael L. Backer, Exec. MBA’77

Congratulations to all!

Law Fund Surpasses Goal
Wysocki Steps Down as Chairman

The Fourth Annual Law Fund has passed its goal of $100,000, Ronald A. Wysocki, JD'72, Outgoing National Chairman has announced. "Our goal was to break six figures and show a mature level of support, and this has been achieved with gifts of $134,400," Wysocki reported. "I thank the 1,550 alumni and friends who have given generously this past year. Special thanks is due to the many volunteers from coast to coast who spent time on the phones." Attorney Wysocki is stepping down as National Chairman after three years in that role. During his term, the Annual Law Fund has more than doubled from the $42,000 collected from 755 donors in 1975-1976. Last year $75,600 was realized from 1,250 donors. President Thomas A. Fulham lauded Wysocki for his efforts. "We are very grateful for the commitment that Ron has made to the school for these three years," Fulham said. "We are pleased with the way alumni have responded to his appeal."

A practicing lawyer with offices at 41 Temple Street, Boston, Wysocki received his Outstanding Alumnus Award in 1978 from the Suffolk Law School Alumni Association. Before beginning the practice of law in 1972, he was a columnist with the Globe. A practicing lawyer with offices at 41 Temple Street, Boston, Wysocki received his Outstanding Alumnus Award in 1978 from the Suffolk Law School Alumni Association. Before beginning the practice of law in 1972, he was a columnist with the Boston Globe. A detailed report on the Annual Law Fund as well as lists of donors and members of gift clubs will be included in the University Report to be sent to alumni in October.

The Annual Law Fund receives unrestricted gifts to the Law School from alumni, friends, corporations, and foundations. It also receives gifts from alumni sources. The fund year, like that of the University's fiscal year, ended on June 30.

Law School News

Law School Alumni Association Board of Directors

*Arnold E. Johnson, JD'56
Marianne B. Bowler, JD'76
* Arthur C. Coffey, JD'49
Leonard N. Augello, JD'52
Russell G. Murphy, JD'73
Russell G. Murphy, JD'73
* David J. Saliba, AA'49, JD'52
Charles N. Collates, JD'64
*Joseph D. Clancy, JD'51
Arthur T. Murphy, JD'38
William G. Murphy, JD'80
Joseph P. McDonough, JD'40

Law School Alumni Association Board of Directors

*Arnold E. Johnson, JD'56
Marianne B. Bowler, JD'76
* Arthur C. Coffey, JD'49
Leonard N. Augello, JD'52
Russell G. Murphy, JD'73
Russell G. Murphy, JD'73
* David J. Saliba, AA'49, JD'52
Charles N. Collates, JD'64
*Joseph D. Clancy, JD'51
Arthur T. Murphy, JD'38
William G. Murphy, JD'80
Joseph P. McDonough, JD'40

Suffolk University Law School Class of 1969 Reunion brought members back from as far away as California to join in the 10th reunion celebration.

Law Placement Notes

Professor Alfred Mason, (left) compares notes with Paul W. Kreswick, JD'72 at the annual reception in conjunction with the annual meeting of the Massachusetts Bar Association. The reception was held on June 8 at the Radisson-Ferncroft in Danvers. Faculty, administrators, alumni and friends were well represented in the 150 guests in the garden court area of the hotel.

Law Placement Notes

It is quite apparent that the Placement Newsletter issued bi-monthly is a worthwhile and well-received service. Professor Anthony DeVecio, Director of Career Planning and Placement for the Suffolk, also as numerous publications, have cited Review articles. It is our belief that the Review is a valuable addition to one's library. In addition to articles written by legal scholars and practitioners, the Review publishes student written Notes and Case Comments to keep its readers abreast of recent major developments in the law. The Review also publishes an annual review of decisions of the First Circuit Court of Appeals and an Annual Survey of Rhode Island Law.

Law Review Subscriptions Sought

The Suffolk University Law Review will publish its fourteenth volume during 1979-80. Since its inception in 1967, the Law Review has attained recognition within the legal community for its literary quality and exhaustive research. Accordingly, many courts, including the Supreme Court of the United States and the Supreme Judicial Court of Massachusetts, as well as numerous publishers, have cited Review articles. It is our belief that the Review is a valuable addition to one's library. In addition to articles written by legal scholars and practitioners, the Review publishes student written Notes and Case Comments to keep its readers abreast of recent major developments in the law. The Review also publishes an annual review of decisions of the First Circuit Court of Appeals and an Annual Survey of Rhode Island Law.

Subscriptions Sought

Law Review Subscriptions Sought

If you are interested in finding a new position, hiring an attorney or law student—think Suffolk!

Law Review Subscriptions Sought

The Suffolk University Law Review will publish its fourteenth volume during 1979-80. Since its inception in 1967, the Law Review has attained recognition within the legal community for its literary quality and exhaustive research. Accordingly, many courts, including the Supreme Court of the United States and the Supreme Judicial Court of Massachusetts, as well as numerous publications, have cited Review articles. It is our belief that the Review is a valuable addition to one's library. In addition to articles written by legal scholars and practitioners, the Review publishes student written Notes and Case Comments to keep its readers abreast of recent major developments in the law. The Review also publishes an annual review of decisions of the First Circuit Court of Appeals and an Annual Survey of Rhode Island Law.

Law Review Subscriptions Sought

Much of the Review's success derives from the assistance and encouragement received from alumni; to insure continued success, we need your continuing support. A full one-year subscription to the Law Review costs $14. All five issues of the Law Review, including the First Circuit Review and the Annual Survey of Rhode Island Law are included in the subscription price.

If you are not presently a subscriber but would like to subscribe to the Law Review, please complete the form below and return it to the Law Review office, or call the Law Review at 723-4700, Extension 180.

Suffolk University Law School Class of 1964 Reunion. The Parker House, Boston marked the site of the 25th Reunion dinner.

Suffolk University Law School Class of 1964 Reunion. The Parker House, Boston marked the site of the 25th Reunion dinner.
Suffolk Director of Admissions, Marjorie Cellar, laughs when confronted with the stereotype: 'It's a single, working mom. She's a waitress or a bank vice-president.'

"The tangibles are easy; just look for competence. As for the intangibles, it's a kind of sixth sense. You have to be careful because social workers, journalists, former popcorn vendors, Playboy bunnies and brick layers—tend as well. "We find that people who have been successful in business as well. "We find that people who have been successful in business, nurses, pilots, community-oriented focus of her former volunteer activities. As vice president of the League of Women Voters, Poss was spending long hours chairing committees, drafting legislation and attending meetings. She had also come to the point in her life where she felt she would rather market her services than volunteer them. The former Lexington High School government teacher entered law school to make a professional transition. "I love the subject matter, love opening the books and studying. Law is training me to think like a lawyer." David Adelson of Brookline, a 47-year-old businessman with a BA from Tufts and an MBA from the Harvard Business School, is another evening student. A manufacturer's representative for the past 20 years, he has found his work satisfying and profitable. Yet he says, he was looking for "professional and intellectual challenge. I'm not sure what I'll do with my degree; that's still the $64,000 question. I may teach, use it with my MBA or with my present work. I probably won't go into private practice." Adelson says the major problem he faces is "finding time. I've had to learn to juggle time so that I don't hurt my business. Weekends are the key; they are devoted to study at home or in the office. If I don't get the weekends in, I'm in trouble. Fortunately, I've never required a lot of sleep." Helen Moreschi of Roxbury, a second year evening student, begins her day in the city rather than the suburbs. At 6:30 or 7 a.m. she reports to whatever construction job is the site of her day's work, and will work there in the evening.
Honored by Bar Association—State Representative W. Paul White, JD'73, of Dorchester (left) and State Senator John A. Brennan Jr., BSBA'70, JD'73, of Malden (right) were selected as "Legislators of the Year" by the Massachusetts Bar Association. The Suffolk alumni are pictured with Dean David J. Sargent at the Massachusetts Bar convention.

Second Group Joins Supreme Court Bar

Principals in the program were (left to right) Mary Ann Gillespie, JD'72, Chairman of the Washington program; Dean Sargent; President Thomas A. Fulham and Deanne C. Siemer, General Counsel of the Department of Defense and luncheon speaker.

Emile L. Genest, JD'68, of Maynard was one of the participants.

John J. McDonough, JD'24, of Portland, Maine was the senior participant in the group.

Keeping their parents in tow in Washington were Richard, Walter, Peter and Kathleen, sons and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Radulski, JD'68, of North Andover. Anastasia Finnegan was the youngest in attendance. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Finnegan, AB'68, JD'73 of Brookline.

Mass, Bar Association Honors Two Alumni

Two alumni have been selected by the Massachusetts Bar Association as "Legislators of the Year."

Honored by the association at its annual convention Thursday, June 7 at the Radisson-Ferncroft Hotel, Danvers were State Sen. John A. Brennan, Jr. of Malden and State Rep. W. Paul White of Dorchester, who were classmates at Suffolk University Law School.

The awards, presented by MBA President Roy Hammer, are given traditionally for distinguished contributions to the administration of justice in the Commonwealth.

Brennan holds two degrees from Suffolk. He received a bachelor of science in business administration degree in 1970 and his juris doctor degree in 1973. He served as editor of the Law Review while at Suffolk. White also received his juris doctor degree from the law school in 1973. Hammer said the bar association was "extremely grateful to Senator Brennan for his sponsorship and active support of the Middlesex County Model Jury Selection Act. He has demonstrated a strong commitment to improving our judicial system throughout his State House career."

Hammer said, "Few legislators played as important and as supportive a role in the passage of court reform as did Representative White."

A vice chairman of the important Judiciary Committee, he has become very active over the years on matters concerning the judicial system and general substantive law.

White, who also served on the Arson Commission, the Alcohol Abuse Commission and the Joint Committee on Transportation, said of the award, "While public service was the direction that my primary career has taken, I find it most gratifying to receive this recognition from my own profession."

The Dorchester legislator was first elected to the House while attending Suffolk Law School. He is a candidate for an MPA degree from the Kennedy School of Government at Harvard.

Brennan said the Model Jury Selection Act was "designed to afford parties to trials in Middlesex County the opportunity to be tried by juries composed of a true cross section of the community. We hoped to also build into the system features that would minimize the economic hardships that so often accompanied jury service."

Brennan, who now chairs the Banks and Banking Committee, has sat on a number of committees both in the House and Senate. He is chairman of the Special Committee on Alcohol Abuse and the Effect of State Mandated Programs upon Property Taxes. "I am very pleased with this honor bestowed upon me by my profession," said the Suffolk graduate.

Also recognized at the annual MBA meeting were those members of the bar who have practiced law for fifty years. Of the lawyers and judges honored, the following are graduates of Suffolk Law School:

Antonio J. deCardos, JD'29
Frank B. Frederick, JD'28
M. Martin Gouldey, JD'28
David Miller, JD'27
Angelo Morello, JD'29
James D. O'Hearn, JD'28
Morris Shapiro, JD'29
Patrick J. Sullivan, JD'28

Congratulations!
Helen Moreschi, evening law student, works during the day as the Commonwealth's only female bricklayer.

"Bricklaying is physically demanding. When I'm working in the heat or cold eight hours a day, I appreciate law; on the other hand, after long hours of mental work I appreciate the benefits of whatever fresh air there is on the job. I guess you could say I have equal respect for both endeavors."

Moreschi hopes to start her own construction firm or to go into labor law, but is committed first to finishing her apprenticeship, which requires 6,000 hours on the job. "I hear so many contractors saying, 'My lawyer doesn't even know what I'm talking about.'" She adds, "And there is the handicap of sex—"Bricklaying is physically demanding. When I'm working in the heat or cold eight hours a day, I appreciate law; on the other hand, after long hours of mental work I appreciate the benefits of whatever fresh air there is on the job. I guess you could say I have equal respect for both endeavors."

Cellar believes that this year's graduating class is more equal, but adds, "When a woman stands up in class and gives a question, I think it helped me to become extremely efficient." She is familiar with the pressures evening students face. "It is very difficult to find any length of time to spend in the library; it is difficult to find time to spend reading case materials, law review articles or horn-books. There is limited time for clinical programs and interchange with faculty and class members."

There is truth to the picture of the night student as truth to the picture of the night student as a member. First year students carry five courses their first semester in school (contracts, torts, civil procedure, criminal law and legal practice skills) and all of the same courses, except criminal law, the second semester. Civil procedure is a particularly difficult first year stumbling block, as is preparation for Most Court competition in the Spring.

Suffolk Associate Professor Karen Blum, JD '74, who teaches civil procedure and serves as an advisor to first year students, is an evening graduate herself who works at Harvard for an LL.M., and returned to Suffolk to teach in 1976. "In terms of budgeting time and getting used to long, rigorous schedules, the Suffolk experience stays with you for quite awhile. I think it helped me become extremely efficient."

"Going to law school has gotten my mind back to work. It's a discipline that test scores can be unfair if they are going to sandbag a person. When they take this risk on you, you are not going to waste the opportunity. I personally have never put so much into a program nor gotten so much out of it."

John DeLiso, who was Suffolk's Director of Admissions for the seven years prior to Cellar, was known to say, "If you had to comb an American city for a group of motivated students, look at an evening law school. There is truth to his remark, yet an evening student is quick to counter. "Yes, but I have a free weekend again."
General Alumni Association Board of Directors

Robert E. Coughlin, AB'73, EdM'74
Mary Anthony F. Farma, BS'77
Patrick H. Dwyer, BSBA'62, EdM'70
Thomas A. Cady, AB'72
John G. Hommel BSBA'72, JD'76
Lawrence E. Blacke, AB'71, JD'76
Barbara B. Freedman, AB'74
Frank A. Sablone, BSBA'70, EdM'71
Terri F. L. Russell, BSBA'76
Vincent J. Vallone, MBA'73

Term Expires 1980
Term Expires 1981
Term Expires 1982

Luncheon

Washington, D.C. area alumni club founders at the annual President's Luncheon.

Luncheon Highlighted by Charter Presentation

The Annual President's Alumni Luncheon on April 25 marked a very special occasion for all the alumni in the Washington, D.C. area. Highlighting the event was the club charter brought by President Thomas A. Fulham which established the D.C. club as a recognized alumni organization, unanimously approved of by the University Alumni Council. It was the first such club to be formed outside of Massachusetts.

Special thanks go out to Anthony Vallone, MBA'73 for organizing such a fine program and to Richard Novak, BSBA'78, who initiated alumni functions and the chartering process for the D.C. area.

Suffolk students, enrolled in an intern program in Washington during their Spring semester, were also invited to join the alumni. They had a taste of what their alumni programs might be like after graduation, as they learned that the friendships made on Beacon Hill do live on in many regions of the country.

Election Results Finalized

Topping the ballot in the recent General Alumni Association election for three-year terms to the Board of Directors were:
Robert E. Coughlin, AB'73, EdM'74
Anthony F. Farma, BS'77
Mary R. Ferris, AB'73
John J. Norton, BS'75
Frank A. Sablone, BSBA'70, EdM'71

The officers for 1979-1980 will be elected at a meeting later this summer.

Congratulations to all!

College Fund Surpasses Goal

McDonald Steps Down as Chairman

Congratulations are certainly in order for John E. McDonald, BSBA'71, the General Chairman of the Annual Fund for 1978-1979, and the more than 120 alumni volunteers who assisted him throughout the past academic year. Their dedicated efforts have resulted in over 1,000 donors supporting the college's programs through gifts to the fund.

Unrestricted contributions have exceeded $45,800, a dramatic increase over last year's totals.

The students, faculty and administrators of the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences and the School of Management are all grateful for the many hours of work each alumni volunteer spent in personally contacting fellow alumni to attain this kind of support.

President Fulham said, "Jack's enthusiastic leadership will be missed. During his two years as chairman, the colleges annual fund increased 53% and the number of alumni participating expanded 37%. We are extremely appreciative of his efforts and many hours he devoted to the school."

Placement News Notes

Each year the Career Planning and Placement Center for the Colleges surveys the previous year's graduates for employment and salary statistics. Of particular interest to those alumni/ alumnii who are thinking of returning to school for a graduate degree, is the salary information obtained from the 1978 MBA graduates. Overall the average salary received by MBA graduates was $19,600.

MBA graduates with undergraduate degrees in engineering had the largest average annual salary, $24,400. MBA graduates with undergraduate degrees in Business were next with an average annual salary of $20,300. MBA graduates with Liberal Arts undergraduate degrees followed with an average annual salary of $17,500.

The purpose of compiling placement statistics each year on all University majors is to gain feedback on the effectiveness of our programs. Should any one program show a consistent trend over the years toward a high unemployment rate, the Placement Center can be geared to give more placement assistance to the graduates of this program.

In addition, those graduates who indicate they are unemployed and searching for employment can be notified of the services offered by the Career Planning and Placement Center, and asked to come to the Center for individualized assistance.

We at the Center are presently in the process of conducting a follow-up survey of recent graduates of the class of 1979. If you are a recent graduate and are looking for employment or are a seasoned alumnus in the process of seeking new employment, please contact the Center and set up an appointment with the Director.

The Center is open from 8:45 a.m. to 4:45 p.m. We look forward to having you visit with us. For an appointment with the Director call 723-4700.
1961
College of Liberal Arts & Sciences
John J. Walsh, BS, recently opened a real estate office under the name, Eire Real Estate.

1962
Law School
Robert B. Shumway, JD, is a senior partner in the Worcester law firm of Shumway and Giguerre and President of the Worcester County Bar Association.

1963
Law School
Edwin C. Swim, JD, has retired from his position as deputy group head of the financial services group at State Street Bank and Trust Company in Boston. Mr. Swim has been with the bank since 1935.

College of Liberal Arts & Sciences
John F. Tavares, Jr., has been appointed market manager supermarkets by Nashua Corporation in Nashua, New Hampshire. Nashua is a major supplier of labeling programs for supermarkets.

1964
School of Management
Vincent Polito, BSBA’39, MBA, is employed as the Controller at the Waltham Hospital.

1965
Law School
Harry E. Hoyt, JD, has been elected corporate secretary of the Insurance Company of North America, a subsidiary of INA Corporation.

College of Liberal Arts & Sciences
Terrance B. Gramm, PhD, is an assistant professor of biology at Hunter College.

1966
School of Management
Peter D. Rodick, JD, has been sworn in as Associate Public Works Commissioner for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

College of Liberal Arts & Sciences
Eldon C. Swim, JD, has retired from his position as deputy group head of the financial services group at State Street Bank and Trust Company in Boston. Mr. Swim has been with the bank since 1935.

In Memoriam
Alumni
JD’19 William V. Wallburg of Melrose.
JD’25 William H. Carey of Quincy.
JD’25 John Santoro of Boston.
JD’27 John J. Murphy of South Boston.
JD’77 Max Rosenberg of Malden and Delray Beach, Florida.
JD’78 Morris Sokolove of Brookline.
JD’73 George A. Lenzi of Wellesley.
JD’74 Albert Everett Goodhue of Quincy.
JD’70 William J. Walsh of Brookline.
MA’68 Charles M. Contostiris of West Newton.
MA’64 John J. Hanagan of Somersworth, New Hampshire.
AB’67 John W. Coveney, Jr., of Billerica.
MBA’71 William J. Robichaud of Phillips, Maine.
JD’76 John R. Castells of Boston.

1932
Law School
William J. Galvin, JD, currently practices law in Boston.

1938
Law School
George A. Dahm, JD, the administrative law judge to the Interstate Commerce Commission in Washington, D.C., plans to retire at the end of 1979 after more than 40 years with I.C.C.

1941
Law School
John E. Haggerty, JD, is the associate director of the New England Regional Primate Research Center of Harvard Medical School located in Southboro.

1959
School of Management
William J. Smith, BSBA, is presently working as branch manager of the Montville office of the Savings Bank of New London in Connecticut.

Class of 1964
Reunions
Fall Reunion events are being planned for the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences and the School of Management Classes of 1959, 1964 and 1969. If you are interested in participating on your Twenty-fifth, Thirty-fifth or Forty-fifth reunion, please contact the Alumni Office, (617)723-4700, Ext. 230. Only through your help can the Heritage Project succeed.
School of Management
Diane A. Colley, Jr., MBA, has been promoted to human resource manager of the company's products division at Baush and Lomb in Rochester, New York. Bruce D. Nelson, MBA, is currently the president of Bruce D. Nelson and Associates in Boston.

Jeffrey Slater, MBA, assistant professor of business at North Shore Community College in Beverly, recently had a textbook, Practical Accounting Procedures, published in Rochester, New York.

D. Elliott, P.C.
Bruce D. Nelson, MBA, is currently the president of the National Labor Relations Board in Boston, and is employed as a staff manager with personnel responsibilities for the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company in Boston.

School of Management
Bruce D. Chow, BSBA'68, MBA, has been named vice president/loan officer at the Indian Head Bank in Concord, New Hampshire.

David B. Hamilton, BSBA'70, MBA, is a vice president at Linnell and Company in Boston. George K. Jewell, BSBA'68, MBA, is an administrative controller for New England Mutual Life Insurance Company in Boston.

John Webster, JD, is working at Peabody District Commission.

J. Neil Forster, JD, maintains a law office in Medford.

Lowell D. Weeks, JD, recently opened a law office in North Windham, Maine. Science Management
John F. Gray, Jr., BSBA, is a cost price analyst for the Raytheon Company in Burlington.

Virginia Long, MBA, is an employment manager at Sanders Associates in New Hampshire.

College of Liberal Arts & Sciences
Nicholas C. Scaccia, JD, has been named a member of the administrative board of Filene's and Sons, Inc., in Boston.

L. Neal Forster, JD, maintains a law office in Foxboro.

John L. Bonee, III, JD, has become a partner in the law firm of Bai, Pollack and Goldberg in Boston.

John A. Zorka, Zorka, has been appointed as an appraiser by the American Association of Certified Appraisers. Mr. Zorka is a realtor for Lexington Realty in Lexington.

College of Liberal Arts & Sciences
Frank C. Agnes, EdM, is the administrative assistant of Parks and Recreation in Ashland, Sharon Ann Hogan, AB, presently is a substitute teacher in the Worcester Public School System.

Dorothy M. Villa, AB, has been designated a substitute teacher in the Woods College.

John Webster, JD, is working at Peabody District Commission.

Robert A. DeLeo, JD, has opened a private practice in serving Windthrop and surrounding communities.

John J. Mullen and William T. Murphy, JD'76, in Providence, Rhode Island.

Robert E. Longden, Jr., JD, is associated with the law firm of Bowditch and Dewey in Worcester.

Frank R. Naiman, JD, is employed by the Southern Maine District Court in Augusta.

Nicholas C. Scaccia, JD, has become a partner in the law firm of Bowditch and Dewey in Worcester.

School of Management
Edward J. Hynes, MPA, has joined the staff of the Department of Energy and Resources for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Maxami Kono, JD, recently opened an office for the general practice of law in Brattleboro, Vermont.

Carol K. McAuliffe, JD, has joined the law office of Arty. John G. Duggan, JD'75, in Milford.

Gerald M. Moody, JD, has been named town counsel of Milford.

Christopher J. Ritchie, JD, is the associate general counsel at Factory Mutual Engineering in Norwood.

School of Management
Robert W. Barris, III, MBA, is currently employed by the National Labor Relations Board in Boston, and is employed as a staff manager with personnel responsibilities for the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company in Boston.

Tina E. Freeman, MBA, has recently been promoted to product manager at Ocean Spray Cranberries, Inc. in Plymouth, Massami Kono, JD, recently opened an office for the general practice of law in Brattleboro, Vermont.

Robert S. Porter, MBA, is employed as a transportation planner for the Southeastern Regional Planning District Commission.

College of Liberal Arts & Sciences
Brian R. Mahoney, EdM, is employed as a teacher in the Lynn Public School System.

Arthur Goldie, JD, announces the opening of the general law practice of Nathanson and Goldie, in Boston.

Peter F. Krenau, Jr., JD, is currently a member of the law firm of Fano, Maloney and Krenau of Worcester and is an instructor of law at Becker Junior College.

John Webster, JD, is working at Peabody District Court as a public defender.

Alan A. Webster, JD, is presently practicing law in Lexington.

School of Management
Joseph M. Augustine, BSBA, is currently employed by Mapco Corporation in San Francisco.

Thomas M. Maloney, Jr., BSBA, is employed as a general manager at Fullam and Maloney in Boston.

Peter B. Wright, MBA, was promoted to financial accounting manager at Peerless Insurance Company in New Hampshire.

John A. Zorka, Zorka, has been recently designated as an appraiser by the American Association of Certified Appraisers. Mr. Zorka is a realtor for Lexington Realty in Lexington.

David M. Walsh, AB, is employed as a realtor by Robert Stone, Inc. in Braintree.

Law School
Louise E. Banks, JD, is associated with the law offices of Atty. Francis T. Magruder, LLB'67 in Fall River.

Joseph R. DeChantal, JD, practices law with Atty. James J. Mullen and William T. Murphy, JD'76, in Providence, Rhode Island.

Robert E. Longden, Jr., JD, is associated with the law firm of Bowditch and Dewey in Worcester.

Frank R. Naiman, JD, is employed by the Southern Maine District Court in Augusta.

Nicholas C. Scaccia, JD, has become a partner in the law firm of Bowditch and Dewey in Worcester.

School of Management
Edward J. Hynes, MPA, has joined the staff of the Department of Energy and Resources for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Maxami Kono, JD, recently opened an office for the general practice of law in Brattleboro, Vermont.

Carol K. McAuliffe, JD, has joined the law office of Arty. John G. Duggan, JD'75, in Milford.

Gerald M. Moody, JD, has been named town counsel of Milford.

Christopher J. Ritchie, JD, is the associate general counsel at Factory Mutual Engineering in Norwood.

School of Management
Robert W. Barris, III, MBA, is currently employed by the National Labor Relations Board in Boston, and is employed as a staff manager with personnel responsibilities for the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company in Boston.

Tina E. Freeman, MBA, has recently been promoted to product manager at Ocean Spray Cranberries, Inc. in Plymouth, Massami Kono, JD, recently opened an office for the general practice of law in Brattleboro, Vermont.

Robert S. Porter, MBA, is employed as a transportation planner for the Southeastern Regional Planning District Commission.

College of Liberal Arts & Sciences
Brian R. Mahoney, EdM, is employed as a teacher in the Lynn Public School System.

Arthur Goldie, JD, announces the opening of the general law practice of Nathanson and Goldie, in Boston.

Peter F. Krenau, Jr., JD, is currently a member of the law firm of Fano, Maloney and Krenau of Worcester and is an instructor of law at Becker Junior College.

John Webster, JD, is working at Peabody District Court as a public defender.

Alan A. Webster, JD, is presently practicing law in Lexington.

School of Management
Joseph M. Augustine, BSBA, is currently employed by Mapco Corporation in San Francisco.

Thomas M. Maloney, Jr., BSBA, is employed as a general manager at Fullam and Maloney in Boston.

Peter B. Wright, MBA, was promoted to financial accounting manager at Peerless Insurance Company in New Hampshire.

John A. Zorka, Zorka, has been recently designated as an appraiser by the American Association of Certified Appraisers. Mr. Zorka is a realtor for Lexington Realty in Lexington.

College of Liberal Arts & Sciences
Frank C. Agnes, EdM, is the administrative assistant of Parks and Recreation in Ashland, Sharon Ann Hogan, AB, presently is a substitute teacher in the Woods College.

Dorothy M. Villa, AB, has been designated a substitute teacher in the Woods College.

John Webster, JD, is working at Peabody District Court as a public defender.

Alan A. Webster, JD, is presently practicing law in Lexington.

School of Management
Joseph M. Augustine, BSBA, is currently employed by Mapco Corporation in San Francisco.

Thomas M. Maloney, Jr., BSBA, is employed as a general manager at Fullam and Maloney in Boston.

Peter B. Wright, MBA, was promoted to financial accounting manager at Peerless Insurance Company in New Hampshire.

John A. Zorka, Zorka, has been recently designated as an appraiser by the American Association of Certified Appraisers. Mr. Zorka is a realtor for Lexington Realty in Lexington.

College of Liberal Arts & Sciences
Frank C. Agnes, EdM, is the administrative assistant of Parks and Recreation in Ashland, Sharon Ann Hogan, AB, presently is a substitute teacher in the Woods College.

Dorothy M. Villa, AB, has been designated a substitute teacher in the Woods College.

John Webster, JD, is working at Peabody District Court as a public defender.

Alan A. Webster, JD, is presently practicing law in Lexington.
Champagne Reception following Alumni Night at the Pops.
Suffolk University Alumni Association

Presents

San Francisco, Hawaii, Las Vegas

10 DAYS/11 NIGHTS $649*

DEPARTING FROM BOSTON MONDAY, DECEMBER 3, 1979
RETURNING FRIDAY, DECEMBER 14, 1979

YOUR VACATION INCLUDES

• Round Trip Jet Transportation via a wide-bodied jet of United Airlines*
• Hotel Accommodations for 2 nights at the SAN FRANCISCO HILTON in San Francisco — for 7 nights at the deluxe HAWAIIAN REGENT in Hawaii — for 2 nights at the ALADDIN HOTEL in Las Vegas.
• All Transfers and Baggage Handling between the airport and the hotels and inter-city.
• All Taxes and Tipping for services included in the program.
• Half-Day City Sightseeing tours of San Francisco and Honolulu.
• A Hospitality Desk in each Hotel, staffed by Trans National Travel’s on-site team of professionals.
• Welcome Party in Honolulu.
• Optional Tours a variety of optional tours are available. Details will be sent to you when you register for your San Francisco-Hawaii-Las Vegas vacation.
• A Special “Dining Option” which includes 11 American breakfasts, 5 Dine Around Dinners in Honolulu $125.00 Per Person.

NO REGIMENTATION! YOU ARE FREE TO EXPLORE THESE EXCITING CITIES AS YOU PLEASE!

DEPARTING December 3, 1979
RETURNING December 14, 1979
DEPARTURE CITY PRICE
Boston $649.00 – 15% ($97.35) = $746.35

I want to go to SAN FRANCISCO, HAWAII and LAS VEGAS.
Enclosed please find $ as full payment for _____ number of persons. ($100.00 per person).
Enclosed please find $ as deposit tor _____ number of persons. ($100.00 per person).
Please charge my deposit of $100.00 per person to □ MASTERCHARGE □ VISA/CanadaAmerican.

I understand that final payment is due 60 days prior to departure. Please Print of more than one couple, attach a separate list with complete information as below.

Full Name Street
City State Zip Tel. No. Office Home No.

□ Single Occupancy (Add $250.00 to my final payment). I sharing room with another person (Name).

MAKE CHECK OR MONEY ORDER PAYABLE TO: Hawaii/West Coast Excursion

BOSTON OFFICE

617-723-4700 Ext. 131 Ellen Peterson

HAWAII OFFICE

617-262-9200 Hawaiian Department

PLEASE RETURN TO:
Suffolk University Alumni Association
Beacon Hill
Boston, MA 02114

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CALL: