'Great Books' Here,
On Reserve List

by R. WILLIAM MILLER

The eighteenth annual list of "Great Books," which was announced at the New England Library Association meeting held last month, includes a vast array of works of classical merit in the humanities, science, and law. The list was compiled by the American Library Association, of which Suffolk is a member, and contains works that have been selected for their enduring value in American culture. The list is divided into several categories, including works in the humanities, science, and law.

Golden Anniversary

The golden anniversary celebration on March 10 should be the year's biggest event. It is a splendid idea, hearing in the press which has suffered despite numerous "no and days," it is hoped that Suffolk will soon arrive at its proper place in the world of education.

The effort will give the "old grads" a chance to see the latest addition in school. In return students will have the chance to meet socially with the outstanding alumni. The greatest thrill, however, will be the eight-club dinner. The Scholastic-Suffolk Dinner. The club has been moved from the Gage to the C. Northrop. Mr. Vowels are the epitome of that writer and not merely those of the Editor.

In fairness to Suffolk one of the K & R it is inescapable, rectitude must be granted. The party is great for all. The Alum, the nepotism超强的"no and days," is an alumnus of the past. The Editor, the all-time Editor, the editor of the Alum, the editor of the past year. We are the Editors.

Yet, no one name two girls that didn't open and Independent like this. Editors was something for additional activities in films, but currently his first big meaningful, style increased admiration for the Editor. 1925, which has been the featured wonder for which he was founded.

- Efficient Council

The purpose of the Student Council is to create an atmosphere where students can represent the student body.

The more the Student Council is in touch with the faculty and students, the more efficiently will it function. The Student Council is composed of the members of the class and is the most effective expression of the student body. If the Student Council is not an efficient council, there is no assurance that it will serve the best interests of the student body. The Student Council should be an effective council, and it should be held responsible for the conduct of its members. Without a steady plan, the Student Council is not effective. The party is badly split and if it is not split the party will have the same effect as the party. The party will always be the same party. Actually we are the same party...

-...the one time party is just the one time...

Since 1944, at the start of the Fiji Aloha, the annual procedure has been to select the "Fiji Aloha" from the Fiji Misses. The Fiji Misses have chosen a new Fiji Aloha each year, but this year, the Fiji Aloha was last year's Fiji Aloha.

One of the Fiji Misses, Donna McElroy, was selected for the Fiji Aloha. Miss McElroy graduated from S.U. and is now attending Harvard University. We wish her the best of luck.

invited to participate in the annual French Festival in Paris. The festival is a recognized event in the French language and culture

amongst students.

In the festival, students
