True Christmas

The story of the Christmas season is felt by all. The familiar story of the Christ child being born in a manger and the events that followed have been celebrated by all. The story of the Christmas season is certainly a time for everyone to pause and reflect and think about the Christ child and the death and resurrection to prevent all falsehood. Throughout the school year, the students must maintain their best behavior, their best behavior should show their appreciation.

Stardust For Rams

What could be the most successful basketball season in Suffolk history? Or another history? For years, Coach Charlie Law has patiently pushed the fortunes of Buffalo's basketball. For the most part, under severe handicaps.

Unlike many other colleges, Buffalo doesn't offer much in the way of basketball. It is relatively difficult for any athlete to survive through college.

The athletes go on to other careers and theจบ that all successfully end in their careers following basketball in the past, many of the best student-athletes have ended their careers.

This season, however, Law has a big talent that has been playing under him for two seasons. Mary is the star student-athlete and center for the school's women's basketball team, which under John Hahn's guidance showed a lot of talent when the season opened. Mary is the pride of Buffalo is finally getting a little of that star's attention this year. The student-athletes have been watching and have been wanting the best team in the region for a few years.

Journal Scraps

Buffalo students worry about having their cars stolen from in front of school for just families.

Christmas time is about when freshmen get to know each other well.

There have been enough B.C. dinners this semester to make the most behind-the-scenes.

It's just during B.C. Sitcoms or Harvard-Yale football weekends that we really notice football at all.

Funner how meaningful to mention someone's name to an issue can happen on you.

It's like the 'Williams.' Black also ask about when the Journal will be out and whether it will be published.

The absence of the familiar joke can make millions turn their them to this magazine. Nobody in the country, nobody has the feel for it that Schmid has.

White, Moore Ruled Eligible For S. U. Five

Suffolk's draft-halted Rows, seeded by the school's Eligibility Committee, scored an impotent last round when two of the 11 players involved in recent probated appeals appeared in.

Eli McManis and Ford White, the two doubtful draft, were announced in those who are due. None of the 115-employment, booking candidates in the five-salary column, and a good.

Suffolk University now number a distinguished scholar, editor, and translator among its alumni. Jerome John Zeff, who has an A.B. degree and a graduate degree from Brandeis University, is one of Brandeis graduates who has made a difference to the community. Professor Zeff, 35, also editor and critic, is now teaching at Brandeis University.

PROF. ZEFF

Zeff is one of the few professors in the country who is in the field of Germanic literature. He is also a research scholar at Brandeis University. He is a member of the American Association for the Advancement of Science and the American Philosophical Society.

Zeff's work has been recognized in several publications, including The New York Times, The Christian Science Monitor, and The National Review.

Zeff is also the author of several articles, including "The Influence of Germanic Literature on the Development of English," which was published in The Modern Language Journal in 1961.

Zeff's research has been funded by the National Endowment for the Humanities, the Ford Foundation, and the National Science Foundation.

Zeff is married to Sarah Zeff, and they have two children, a son and a daughter. The family lives in Cambridge, Massachusetts.

Zeff is a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, the American Philosophical Society, and the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

Dear Gabby:

Dear Gabby, I am an attorney and was not on the floor when you raised your hand to speak. I was inside the courtroom for the first time of competition and saw you enter the courtroom. I was impressed with your poise and confidence. I am writing to express my belief that you have a bright future in front of you.

Sincerely,

STUDENT LIFE

ON FLUNKING

Nobody I know ever dreams of failing. But here's a little story that will give you a startling subtle hint that you may be in for a shock. A high school student was asked, "What is the funniest thing that happened to you in school?" His reply was, "Being flunked for the first time!" And, believe me, it starts early, and the struggle never ends. Kids these days are under so much pressure, trying to please everyone. It's no wonder they flunk out. My advice: just relax and enjoy the ride. After all, life is a journey, not a destination.

ATTENTION ALL SUFFOLK MEMBERS: CEC students have been invited to a Banquet at East Standard Hotel Co. in Record Hall during recent fall semester. The main topic for discussion will be the East Standard Company, which is a major player in the oil industry. The event will feature a keynote speech by a former CEO of the company, who will discuss the future of the industry and the challenges facing companies in the sector. The event is open to all Suffolk students, faculty, and staff.

BANQUET AT ORION'S

On Dec. 11, a Banquet was held at the Hotel Orion, with a candlelight dinner scheduled from 6:00-9:00 p.m. Speaker of the evening was John Smith, a renowned business expert who has spoken at numerous conferences and events. The theme of the evening was "Leadership in the Digital Age," and the event was attended by a number of distinguished guests, including dignitaries and industry leaders. The keynote speech was followed by a lively discussion and Q&A session with attendees. The event was sponsored by the Suffolk Student Government and the Suffolk Business Club.
