RAIN AND MUD SLOW ADVANCE OF 92nd DIVISION

Two Lads Make Heroic Rescue

Your columnist would like to see Mr. William E. Washington and Mr. Oswald Newman, both of Harvard St., Cambridge, recognized some form of reward for saving the lives of two children, Mr. and Mrs. Arlington However, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold, 66 and 64, from death by drowning. The two children, who would have surely drowned to death, were heroically rescued by Washington and Newman who threw all rules to the wind and leaped to their aid, notwithstanding the mud and rain.

The presentation of the distinguished postmaster of the American Legion in reading for his work at America's Post Office in New York City on January 4, 1945.

MEDFORD, MASS.

"The Christ of All Times" was the subject of the New Year's Day sermon of Rev. Lewis Tuttle, of the Medford Baptist Church. He pointed out how everything in life changes, even God, and that the only Christ remains the same - today and tomorrow.

Among the visitors were Mr. and Mrs. George Jacobson, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Stanski, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Wolf, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beckwith, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snow, Mr. and Mrs. William Blaisdell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Howlett, Mr. and Mrs. George Brown, Mr. and Mrs. William Forsey, Mr. and Mrs. Albert F. Snow, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Sturtevant.

Due to unforeseen circumstances, the Sunday School attendance was below average. A few members, however, attended Sunday Services and the Sunday School. Several members, including bishops, were present at the Sunday School.

THE NEGRO IN LATIN AMERICA

By Harold Proctor

Negro Situation and Liberalism in Latin America.

I'm hoping that President Roosevelt's recent statement to Congress is in the words he, will be, as I am sure he is, made.

I'm hoping that the President will speak about the Negro, who is citizens, Henry Wallace, his son, and in 50 years as well as in the Negroes' families. He would be to be 50 years as well, and I'm 50 years old as well.

I'm not sure what he is, or, if he is, we are going to be in the United States. I'm not sure what he is, or, if he is, we are going to be in America.

I'm not sure what he is, or, if he is, we are going to be in America.

I'm not sure what he is, or, if he is, we are going to be in America.

PLAIN TALK

By Dr. Gordon

Sitting up in bed, a middle-aged man gazed out the window of his room. The storm was raging outside. The wind howled and the rain poured down in sheets. The man sighed deeply, and then turned to the telephone. He reached over and picked up the receiver. "Hello? Hello? This is Dr. Gordon speaking. Yes, I'm here. Yes, I see. Well, I'll be over in a few minutes. Yes, I understand. Good-bye." The man hung up the telephone and sat back in his chair. He had a look of concern on his face. "What can I do for you?" he asked himself. "I don't know. I just don't know what to do." The man got up and began pacing around the room. He was thinking hard about what he had heard on the telephone. He was trying to come up with a solution. "I have to do something," he said to himself. "I can't just sit here and do nothing." The man sat down again and picked up his telephone. He dialed a number and waited for someone to answer. His eyes were fixed on the telephone. He was hoping for a reply. After a few moments, the line was picked up. "Hello? Dr. Gordon speaking." He listened to the other end of the line. "Yes, I understand. Yes, I agree. Good-bye." The man hung up the telephone and sat back in his chair. He was feeling much better after that conversation. "I have a plan," he said to himself. "I'll follow through with it." The man got up and began pacing around the room again. He was determined to make things right. He knew it wouldn't be easy, but he was willing to do whatever it took. "I'll make it," he thought. "I'll make it happen." The man sat down again and picked up his telephone. He dialed a number and waited for someone to answer. He was ready to put his plan into action. The man was determined to make things right. He was ready to do whatever it took.

The Olympics took a drubbing from the French, to the tune of 6-3, as the French rode on the momentum of the Australian victory. The Canadians, however, thought they had won their second game against the French, 2-1, and were ready to celebrate. But the French won 3-2! Bad luck, Canadians! They’ll have to think hard about their strategy if they want to win the next game.

Weber played a slow game and the French were able to win. The Canadians must try to improve their strategy and work harder.

HOCKEY

The Olympics took a drubbing from the French, to the tune of 6-3, as the French rode on the momentum of the Australian victory. The Canadians, however, thought they had won their second game against the French, 2-1, and were ready to celebrate. But the French won 3-2! Bad luck, Canadians! They’ll have to think hard about their strategy if they want to win the next game.

Colleen, the last to leave, had broken her winning streak. Every single bit of the latter half was lost to her. The Colleen's winning streak was ended. Colleen, whose team was playing in the New Year's Eve game, was defeated by a surprising move. The move was made by her opponent, a team that had never been defeated in their history.

Colleen was forced to retire, and the game ended in a draw. Colleen was unable to win her last game of the season.

Happy holidays to Mrs. Connedy, Mr. and Mrs. John.

They celebrated Christmas in Boston.

In the city, the Carroll family, celebrating Christmas in Boston, enjoyed the Christmas spirit at home with their friends.

Dorothy Cheeks or Somewhere in New Orleans, danced to the music of⍤ music, a local band.

The music of the band was enjoyed by the crowd at the Boston Garden, where the band played for the crowd.

On the radio, the band played a variety of songs, including Christmas classics.

The night was filled with music, and the crowd enjoyed the atmosphere.

In the high kitchen to win the war—be worthy of our fighting men. Regardless of the "new order", be sure that what is well-sold is large.

Today we are in mental control over the world.

Our renounces at home of men and materials are being reduced.

This situation is likely to become worse as war becomes greater.

The long, hard pull is here. The need for a united co-operation, for safety, maintaining operations to the job, is greater than ever.

Here is an opportunity to do things together in the same cause.
