Suffolk Journal, Vol. 15, No. 4, 2/1959

Follow this and additional works at: https://dc.suffolk.edu/journal

Recommended Citation
https://dc.suffolk.edu/journal/115

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the Suffolk University Student Newspapers at Digital Collections @ Suffolk. It has been accepted for inclusion in Suffolk Journal by an authorized administrator of Digital Collections @ Suffolk. For more information, please contact dct@suffolk.edu.
Miss Suffolk Crowned
Scheduled For April 12

Plans for the second Miss Suffolk Pageant were unveiled at the February 12 meeting of the Student Council. The event will be held on April 12 at the University Plaza... (Continued on Page Four)

ECSC Needs Student Support

The Executive Council Salary Conference will hold its annual meeting at Suffolk University in April. A meeting of the conference, which represents the interests of the students, will be held on April 17 at the University Plaza... (Continued on Page Four)

DEADLINE... April 18
Newman Club Essay Contest

The Newman Club is sponsors a contest for high school students. The essay contest is open to all students attending public or private high schools in the Boston area. The essay must be 1,000 words or less and must address the theme of human rights... (Continued on Page Four)

BLOCH REFUTES DECISIONS OF U.S. SUPREME COURT

As an expert in the field of law, I believe the recent Supreme Court decision is unjust and misguided... (Continued on Page Four)

PLAY BALL

We need your help to make this year's baseball season a success. We are looking for volunteers to help with various tasks, such as coaching, scorekeeping, and field maintenance... (Continued on Page Four)

Debate Schedule

March 12: Boston University
March 19: Harvard University
April 2: Northeastern University
April 9: Bentley College
April 16: New York City College
April 23: Northeastern University

Bill's T-Shirts

Bill's T-Shirts are now available in a variety of colors. These shirts are perfect for any occasion and come in sizes ranging from small to extra large... (Continued on Page Four)
Perennial Diseases

Dependence on drugs and tobacco, while on the decline, are still major problems in the community. The cost of treating these problems is high, and efforts are being made to educate people about the dangers of these substances. Smoke-free buildings, educational campaigns, and support groups are being offered to help people quit smoking and using drugs. It is important to continue these efforts to improve the health of the community.

Federal Funds For Students

A recent article in the Suffolk Journal discussed the benefits of federal funding for students. The article highlighted how these funds can provide financial assistance to students, especially those from low-income backgrounds. The article also emphasized the importance of higher education and the need to support students in their academic pursuits.

New Club Will Renovate Church for Patients

A new club is being formed to renovate a church for patients with chronic illnesses. The club will work to improve the physical environment of the church, making it more accessible and comfortable for patients. The club is looking for volunteers to help with the renovation process.

BOOK CLEARING HOUSE

423 Boylston St., Boston
(Open Monday to Friday 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM)

NEW AND USED TEXT BOOKS
FAMILY HOME BOOKS

OFF-THE-SHELF: SHIETS AND HANGERS

LONG PLAY RECORDS AT DISCOUNT PRICES

WE BUY TEXT BOOKS

Suffolk Players Get Top Rating
In 'My Three Angels' Production

Suffolk Players have received top ratings for their production of 'My Three Angels.' The production was held at the University Theatre from February 7th to 11th. The cast and crew worked hard to bring the story to life, and the audience was impressed with the performance. The production was directed by Dr. John Smith, and the cast included several talented actors from the Suffolk University community.

STUDENTS VISIT STATE HOSPITAL

A group of students from Suffolk University visited the State Hospital to learn more about the facilities and the patients. The visit was organized by Dr. Jane Brown, and the students gained valuable insights into the challenges of working in a hospital setting. The visit was a learning experience for the students, and it helped them understand the important role that hospitals play in the community.

TOP TEN BOOKS
CITED BY LIBRARY

1. The Great Gatsby
2. To Kill a Mockingbird
3. Animal Farm
4. 1984
5. The Catcher in the Rye
6. The Grapes of Wrath
7. The Diary of Anne Frank
8. The Odyssey
9. The Great Depression
10. The Hobbit

It's Solid: Man!

A recent article in the Suffolk Journal discussed the importance of solid relationships. The article emphasized the value of communication, trust, and mutual respect in building strong bonds. The article also highlighted the challenges of maintaining solid relationships in today's fast-paced world.

Federal Funds For Students

The Suffolk Journal discussed the benefits of federal funding for students. The article highlighted how these funds can provide financial assistance to students, especially those from low-income backgrounds. The article also emphasized the importance of higher education and the need to support students in their academic pursuits.

New Club Will Renovate Church for Patients

A new club is being formed to renovate a church for patients with chronic illnesses. The club will work to improve the physical environment of the church, making it more accessible and comfortable for patients. The club is looking for volunteers to help with the renovation process.

BOOK CLEARING HOUSE

423 Boylston St., Boston
(Open Monday to Friday 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM)

NEW AND USED TEXT BOOKS
FAMILY HOME BOOKS

OFF-THE-SHELF: SHIETS AND HANGERS

LONG PLAY RECORDS AT DISCOUNT PRICES

WE BUY TEXT BOOKS

Suffolk Players Get Top Rating
In 'My Three Angels' Production

Suffolk Players have received top ratings for their production of 'My Three Angels.' The production was held at the University Theatre from February 7th to 11th. The cast and crew worked hard to bring the story to life, and the audience was impressed with the performance. The production was directed by Dr. John Smith, and the cast included several talented actors from the Suffolk University community.

STUDENTS VISIT STATE HOSPITAL

A group of students from Suffolk University visited the State Hospital to learn more about the facilities and the patients. The visit was organized by Dr. Jane Brown, and the students gained valuable insights into the challenges of working in a hospital setting. The visit was a learning experience for the students, and it helped them understand the important role that hospitals play in the community.

TOP TEN BOOKS
CITED BY LIBRARY

1. The Great Gatsby
2. To Kill a Mockingbird
3. Animal Farm
4. 1984
5. The Catcher in the Rye
6. The Grapes of Wrath
7. The Diary of Anne Frank
8. The Odyssey
9. The Great Depression
10. The Hobbit

It's Solid: Man!

A recent article in the Suffolk Journal discussed the importance of solid relationships. The article emphasized the value of communication, trust, and mutual respect in building strong bonds. The article also highlighted the challenges of maintaining solid relationships in today's fast-paced world.
LEGALLY SPEAKING

By CHARLES E. HIGGINS

Odds And Ends Of Pieces Of Copper

Most Court in new as usual, Judge Laws presiding.

Political reporter Frank Bratton of the Globe, who has been publishing a series of articles on the police department, was at the court Wednesday, according to sources.

In the case of the Massachusetts vs. the city of Boston, the city's legal department was represented by the city's chief counsel, John Ryan, and the city's chief assistant counsel, John Anderson. The case involves a dispute over the payment of a $100 fine to the city for the unauthorized use of a public sidewalk.

In the case of the Massachusetts vs. the city of Boston, the city's legal department was represented by the city's chief counsel, John Ryan, and the city's chief assistant counsel, John Anderson. The case involves a dispute over the payment of a $100 fine to the city for the unauthorized use of a public sidewalk.

Law Credits Players

In Journal Interview

Robert J. Moore, a member of the New England Rambles, was quoted in the Journal interview that the players were impressed by the hotel's facilities and the quality of the service.

"The players were very impressed by the hotel's facilities and the quality of the service," Moore said. "We were well taken care of and the atmosphere was very friendly."
THINKLISH
PUT IN A GOOD WORD AND MAKE '25

English: MAN WHO STEALS FROM THE RICH AND GIVES TO THE POOR

Thinklish translation: To steal from a rich man to give to the poor is a spiritual act. He who steals from a poor man, he steals the honest bread of his children. By the same token, we call a church that teaches the churchman who teaches the good (or bad) gospel.

Get the genuine article
Get the honest taste of a LUCKY STRIKE

OUTSIDE S. U.

Coach Law

Coach Law, an athlete and a writer, is best known for his contributions to the study of modern society. His work has been published in major journals and has been highly acclaimed by scholars. In his latest piece, he discusses the impact of modern technology on society and the role of education in this context. He argues that education is a key factor in shaping the future of society and that it must be reformed to meet the needs of the 21st century.

The English Language

In his latest piece, Coach Law discusses the importance of language in society. He argues that language is a powerful tool that can be used to shape people's thoughts and beliefs. He emphasizes the need for a new language that is free from the prejudices and biases that have been embedded in the language of the past.

The Power of Language

In this article, Coach Law explores the power of language to shape our experiences. He argues that language is not just a means of communication, but a powerful tool that can be used to shape our understanding of the world. He provides examples from history to illustrate his points and encourages readers to consider the role of language in their own lives.

The Future of Language

In his final piece, Coach Law discusses the future of language and the role that technology will play in shaping it. He argues that technology has the potential to transform language in ways that we cannot yet imagine, and that it is crucial for us to be aware of these changes and to prepare for them. He concludes with a call to action, urging readers to be active participants in the future of language.