Play "J. B." in rehearsal

Rehearsals for "J. B.," this season's Seniors dramatic production at Suffolk, are well under way. Thursday morning and Saturday evenings are being utilized to rehearse scenes, run through blocking, and evolve character and thematic interpretations.

Director Max Lass feels that a universal concept will be conveyed in his representative production.

The performances will be given Friday and Saturday, May 8th and 9th.

Law Graduate, U.S. Official Dies in Ethiopia

Word has been received here of the death of Khalil Alhaj, Ethiopia's former Minister of Finance and former high ranking official, in the capital of Addis Ababa. Mr. Alhaj died in the early hours of Saturday morning after a long illness. He was a former member of the Ethiopian Parliament and served as a prominent figure in the country's political affairs.

As a tribute to his contribution to the nation, the Ethiopian Embassy in New York has announced plans for a memorial service to be held on May 10th.

Judge McGovern Warns: Accidents May Go to Special Board

Judge McGovern, in his recent opinion in the case of Jones v. McGovern, in the New York Supreme Court, has taken a strong position against the administration of the Suffolk Law School. It is in this matter that the judge has been most active.

Because of this, he said, judges are required to make more accurate judgments. The presence of such litigation has forced the court to step up to the plate in an attempt to ensure that the administration of the court is in the public interest.

Cigarette Rep Offers Gift to 'Sprite' Contestants

Law student Paul Coe, top cigarette rep at the Suffolk Law School, has offered a gift to the winners of the 'Sprite' Contest. The contest deadline is April 15th, and all entries are due by April 15th. The contest is open to all students at the Suffolk Law School.

LELYVELD CITED IN ROCKLAND

President Lelyveld of the Suffolk Law School recently has been cited for his efforts in the Rockland County Courthouse. The citation was presented at a special ceremony at the courthouse, where President Lelyveld was recognized for his contributions to the legal community.

"Hitch your wagon to a 'growth' industry—and grow with it!"

Bruce M. Whitehead

"A growth industry is a new industry that is on the way of being or has been growing quickly, expanding fast. When you hitch your wagon to a growth industry, you get a differential edge. The industry is growing, and you are growing with it. You are growing a lot faster than is your competition. Such industries can offer a choice career path for those who want to grow with the industry.
