FROM THE WEST END TO THE WEST COAST

BY ALBIE MARION

Now nows your August Edition! If anyone can whine about the West Coast, it's me. I've been here for a long time, but it's still so beautiful and unique. The people are friendly, the food is amazing, and the scenery is breathtaking. It's truly a paradise.

In fact, I was so impressed by the beauty of the San Francisco area that I decided to write a piece about it. I hope you enjoy reading it as much as I enjoyed experiencing it.

Let me know if you have any questions or comments. I'm always happy to hear from my readers.

Yours sincerely,

Albie Marion

LONDON NAMED JOURNAL EDITOR

Director of Student Activities, John V. Colbert, announced recently the selection of John L. London '49 as Student Editor-in-Chief of the Suffolk Journal.

London, a Junior majoring in English, in a Drak's Time interview with the Suffolk Daily, said that he was pleased to be named editor.

"I'm honored to have been selected for this position," London said. "I look forward to working with the editorial staff and guiding the Journal to new heights."

MEET THE FACULTY:

Spotlighting:
Mr. John V. Colburn

Mr. John V. Colburn, Associate Professor of English and Director of student activities, began teaching at Suffolk University in 1956. He received his B.S. in Education and M.A. in English from Boston University, and an Ed.D from Suffolk University in 1958. He has also been the Director of Student Activities since 1957.

Mr. Colburn is a realistic teacher, always in the classroom and among the students, although he has little time for his hobbies. His hobby is the sea. Mr. Colburn is a keen sailor and has been sailing in the Boston harbor for several years. He is also an avid football fan and has been associated with the Boston University football team since he was a student there.

He is a member of the College Faculty, and has been involved in the World Peace Through Understanding Movement. He is also a member of the Suffolk University Alumni Association.

All-College Picnic
Planned for June

Saturday, June 2, is the date for the All-College picnic, sponsored jointly by the Student Council and Junior Alumni. The picnic will be held at the UMass Amherst campus.

The event will include a cookout, games, and entertainment. The Student Council will provide entertainment and the Junior Alumni will provide food and drinks.
