Buried Treasure...

"Buried Treasure..." is a popular holiday song that has become a staple in many Christmas celebrations. It tells the story of a treasure hunt that leads to a heartwarming tale of friendship and joy.

The film "Buried Treasure..." was released in 1947 and directed by William Dieterle.

- The song was written by Johnny Mercer and卜ake Harris, and was originally recorded by Bing Crosby.
- It features performances by Dick Haymes, Lynn Fontanne, Alan Young, and Jo Stafford.
- The song's melody is based on the "Christmas Carol" tune "The First Nowell."

Meet Mr. Liver

It seems that we have never before spoken of health and health awareness in our columns. This is because we have assumed that it is a common knowledge among the students of this school. However, the recent events have brought to light the importance of health and the need for health education.

Mr. Liver, the school nurse, is a valuable resource for students seeking information on health-related issues. He is available during the school day to answer questions and provide guidance. Students are encouraged to visit Mr. Liver if they have any concerns or questions about their health.

"India's Crisis"

by John S. Nicholson

"India's Crisis" - an article discussing the political and social issues facing India, particularly in the context of British colonial rule and the struggle for independence. The text focuses on the perspectives of Indian leaders and the implications for the future of the nation. The article highlights the complexity of the situation and the challenges faced by India as it navigates towards a new path.

COMMITTEE:

AN AGONIZING RE-APPRAISAL

To some, the issue of India's Crisis is one of great political importance, while to others it is just an issue of theoretical interest. The Committee, which has been formed to study the problem, is composed of prominent Indian scholars and politicians. Its purpose is to offer a fresh perspective on the crisis and to suggest solutions for the future.

Indira Gandhi, the first woman Prime Minister of India, is a member of the Committee. She has been a key figure in Indian politics, serving as a member of the Lok Sabha (the lower house of the Indian Parliament) for 18 years. Her leadership has been characterized by a strong commitment to social justice and economic development.

The Committee's report is expected to be released soon, and it will provide a comprehensive analysis of the issues facing India and recommendations for action.
