Students Offered Jobs Abroad

To Paul Medeiros

Who spends most summers at home doing one form of tedium—summer work when there's nothing else to do (and employment is not in short supply)—the American Student Information Service is a possible source of information and jobs far beyond one's own county. The Second Annual Information conference, held in July 1968, was enthusiastically attended by over 600 people. This year's conference will be held in July 1969, and those interested should contact the American Student Information Service in Boston, Massachusetts. The conference is open to all who are interested in employment abroad.

The conference will feature speakers from various countries, including Canada, France, Germany, Italy, Japan, and the United Arab Emirates. There will be discussions on the benefits of working abroad, the challenges of living in a foreign country, and the impact of the conference on one's career. The conference will also provide networking opportunities for students and professionals.

Financial Assistance

To help students with financial aid, the conference will feature a financial aid workshop. Students will have the opportunity to learn about different funding options, including scholarships, grants, and loans. The workshop will be led by experienced professionals who will provide valuable insights and advice.

Importance of the Conference

The American Student Information Service Conference is an excellent opportunity for students to learn about employment abroad, gain valuable experience, and network with professionals. This year's conference promises to be even more exciting and informative than last year's.

Join Delta Psi Chapter

The Delta Psi Chapter is an active and dynamic fraternity that offers a unique and rewarding social experience for its members. The chapter is located in the heart of the city, and its members are involved in a variety of community service projects, including volunteering at local hospitals and schools.

Fraternity Gives TV Presents to Children

Delta Psi Chapter has a tradition of giving back to the community, and this year they have decided to give back to their local children. They have purchased a TV for the local children's hospital, and the chapter will be hosting a viewing party for the children.

The chapter is excited to make this donation and hopes that it will bring joy to the children's lives. They are looking forward to hosting the viewing party and seeing the children's reactions.

Perspective

"DeGaulle"

by Jim Liberty

In the course of French elections, something special happened. The shadowy figure of a man named DeGaulle stepped into the political arena to grab the limelight. The overwhelming candidate to rule France in the coming years, he turned the French into one of the most powerful and respected politicians of the modern world.

The French people, disillusioned with their current leaders, turned to DeGaulle's campaigns. The charismatic leader promised a new France, one that would be strong, independent, and respected on the international stage.

DeGaulle's campaign was a success, and he was elected to lead France into a new era. His leadership was marked by a strong emphasis on national pride and a desire for France to once again be a great power.

Image Theatre

DeGaulle's mansion was transformed into a theatre for the French people. The mansion, once a symbol of French wealth and power, was now a symbol of French resistance.

DeGaulle's speeches were broadcast across the land, reaching every corner of France. His words were a call to arms, a call for the French people to stand together against their enemies.

The French people responded to DeGaulle's call, and the country was transformed into a theatre of resistance. The French people were united, and DeGaulle was their leader.

DECK THE HALLS

When you think of Christmas, you may instantly think of Mistletoe, eggnog, and kicking off your shoes to put on warm socks. However, the French people have their own unique way of celebrating the holiday.

In France, Christmas is a time for family and friends to come together. The traditional French meal is a feast of roasted turkey, cranberry sauce, and all the trimmings. The French people also enjoy the tradition of giving gifts to loved ones.

Christmas in France is also marked by the tradition of "Deck the Halls." This involves decorating the home with lights, garlands, and ornaments. The French people take great pride in their Christmas decorations, and it is a time of great joy and happiness.

The French people also enjoy the tradition of caroling. They sing Christmas songs and carols to celebrate the season, and it is a time of great happiness and joy.

The French people celebrate Christmas in their own unique way, and it is a time of great joy and happiness.
