Emancipation Day Orator Airs Desegregation

Dr. Frederick D. Patterson, recently elected president of Virginia Union University, Richmond, Virginia, will be the featured speaker at the Emancipation Proclamation Day celebration. The event will be announced daily by Rev. W. C. Davis, president of the African American Civic Leadership National Alliance.

The rally will be held on Sunday, January 11 at 2:00 p.m. at the Central Baptist Church, corner West Broad and Waynesville Street. The rally will be broadcast on the Central Baptist Church of the Church Street A. M. E. Church, Henry C. Elliman, well known Boston minister, will be special speaker.

In view of the recent disturbance in the South, Dr. Davis has requested the Alliance to make a statement. The Alliance is very fortunate in having a speaker who is not only a resident of Boston and is the president of the National Union League. Dr. Patterson is well known throughout New England as a forceful and dynamic speaker.

Before his election to the presidency of Virginia Union, he served as Dean of the College. Prior to taking his post in Virginia, he was pastor of the Pond Street Baptist Church in Providence.

Bermuda Calling

By Maynard H. Meyers

Island living isn’t restricted to a waste of money. Many city dwellers are playing up their part in making the 200 islands of the British possessions attractive places to visit and to live in. Among them is New York’s Bermuda Club, which is now celebrating its 20th anniversary.

The club was formed in 1935 by a group of New Yorkers who were interested in the development of Bermuda as a vacation spot. Today, the club has over 1000 members and is one of the largest and most active clubs in Bermuda.

The club has played a significant role in the development of Bermuda as a tourist destination. It has helped to promote the island and to attract visitors from around the world. In addition, the club has been involved in a number of civic and charitable projects.

The club’s members are known for their generosity and their commitment to improving the quality of life in Bermuda. They have donated millions of dollars to projects such as the construction of schools, hospitals, and roads.

Today, the club is still one of the most important organizations on the island. It continues to play a major role in the development of Bermuda as a tourist destination and in improving the quality of life for its citizens.

THE FACTS...

BY MICHAEL ALLEN

A recent news release put out by the Internal Revenue Service states that the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) has been renamed the Bureau of the Internal Revenue (BIR). This change was made to reflect the new name of the federal agency responsible for collecting taxes and administering tax laws.

The IRS is responsible for ensuring that taxpayers file accurate tax returns and pay their taxes on time. It also investigates tax fraud and collects fines and penalties when necessary.

The Bureau of the Internal Revenue (BIR) is a federal agency that is part of the Treasury Department. It is responsible for collecting federal taxes, including income taxes, payroll taxes, and excise taxes.

The BIR is also responsible for enforcing tax laws and ensuring that taxpayers comply with their tax obligations.

Twelve-Year-Old Named One of 'Ten Young Women of the Year'

JANE PRANTZ GILMAN of Middletown, N.Y., lawyer, she worked her way through night classes at law school, getting her degree in 1950. Outstanding work with the N.Y. Bar Association led to her appointment to the Temporary Committee in the Court set up to study the judicial system. Her single-handed research and report on it made in 1955 will, according to her superiors, lay the groundwork for court reform and uniformity in N.Y. State.

LEONTYNE PRICE of Laurel, Miss., singer, she started out playing the piano at parties and furlough, after college went a school aboard and the Muses, making opera history in the television program of Traces. Now, after eight years of concert concerts, she will again star this month on TV in The Magic Flute.

DORIS ZELLER of Madison, Wis., geologist, probably the only woman committed to a major oil company, she has been hailed by the American Petroleum Institute for her "genius in geology," the science of paleontology. Her special study is small animals that lived millions of years ago; they are used to determine where to drill for oil. She has just left with her husband for the Amazon Basin oil fields to do special research for the Brazilian government.

pat Macmory of Long Beach, Calif., dancer. Early in 1955 she won the Pan American championship for both women's and men's events, and the 1955 door Men's one- and three-meter competition. Winner of both diving events at the 1955 Olympics, she now holds virtually all major diving titles and is probably the greatest diver of all time.

JANE BRAU RUSSELL of Oak Ridge, Tenn., geologist, whose last name was chosen to suggest a present to the American Congress on "Peaceful Uses of Atomic Energy," the only American woman scientist so honored. Her special field, experimenting with mice at the Oak Ridge National Laboratory, is pioneer research in the effects of radiation on embryonic development.

MACHIKO KOY of Tokyo, the first Japanese actress to become world-famous. At the star of three international prize-winning films, Rashomon, Early and Late of Hei, she played vastly different roles at each time with a delicate technique unlike anything we've seen here before. She emphasized that 1955 was a year of marking Oriental influence in the West—"in what we wear, what we read, what we see.

Jeanne Carr of New York, designer. Working with new colored wools and fabrics not usually seen in America, she has established a new line of price, pole-dress suits, raincoats, and coats that bring straight fashion to junior figures and junior pocketbooks in 1955. Designing for a large designer for all Jonathan Logan and named co-designer to Johnnie Bond, his assistant to Jeanne Campbell (Merid Award winner 1951).

enraging RACAN of Paris, writer. New last twenty years, she has to her credit not only a best seller in the U.S. but a best seller that has had almost unseasonable sales on both sides of the Atlantic. PHOTOGRAPHED for the first time in America, she signed a one-year deal with Doubleday, publisher. The book was published at Bonnier Tris, she took time out from her whirlwind, proved-higlighted tour of the U.S. to sit down and write the first novel for the Jewish Matilda.
The Other Day

The Other Day... We received another poem from the pen of Elizabeth H. F. Williams, written especially for the Christmas season. It is titled "God's Christmas Tree." Dear girl, grant us, that all may see,
These gifts upon Your Christmas Tree. Hope, Faith, and Joy may we see,
And Freedom... precious more.
And grant us Christian charity, That peace may reign through all.
Put up a Christmas tree each hour, And make us neighbors, here and near.
On no same tree, ill shining bright,
May true Hope grow, on Christmas night.
Let it be always here.
To banish every doubt and fear.
May joy and nation find these gifts.
On God's tree, with our soul,
May all gain Peace and Joy.
Through the Christmas Christ of Love.

The OTHER DAY... for many days we have heard the appeal of Mrs. Robert T. Short, the Knights of Columbus, and the Junior Chambers of Commerce.

Provence NAACP Elects Officers; Hears Miss L. Black

The annual meeting of the Provence National Association for the Advancement of Colored People was held in the eveninng of December 9, 1955, at the Benefit Street Congregational Church.

Miss Luella Black, of New York, national secretary of NAACP, was the guest speaker. She commented on the situation in Mississippi, and Texas. These things are hard to take. These are a little discouraging, but she likened them to God's way of protecting us from the "darkest dark before the brightest dawn." She said that God is not finished fighting because of the courage and fearlessness that we have shown in Berkeley, Mass., and the 26 signatories to the antibellum League in Clarendon County, South Carolina who are willing to show how the battle is being fought.

Also, Mrs. Eula McCleary, the Rev. Samuel B. McKinney, John Miller, James R. Belknap, Donald H. Stearns, the Rev. Paris V. Sterrett, James W. Collins, and Mrs. Margaret Williams.

The Other Day... We received another poem from the pen of Elizabeth H. F. Williams, written especially for the Christmas season. It is titled "God's Christmas Tree." Dear girl, grant us, that all may see,
These gifts upon Your Christmas Tree. Hope, Faith, and Joy may we see,
And Freedom... precious more.
And grant us Christian charity, That peace may reign through all.
Put up a Christmas tree each hour, And make us neighbors, here and near.
On no same tree, ill shining bright,
May true Hope grow, on Christmas night.
Let it be always here.
To banish every doubt and fear.
May joy and nation find these gifts.
On God's tree, with our soul,
May all gain Peace and Joy.
Through the Christmas Christ of Love.

Church Notes
St. Marks Congregational Church
Townsend St., Roxbury
Rev. S. L. Lavice, pastor
Last Sunday, December 18
Another of the old books of the Bible were discussed at the Sunday school service. This old book of Maccabeus deals with the Jew-or's belief in a high degree of eight days known as the feast of their faiths, and also with Christmas. Some of the facts brought out in the sermon were that a faith is real only to those willing to die for it, and with all a very Merry Christmas and God has no special people at his chosen people, the Jews choose God.

A visitor at this service was Patrick天文之{Avis-India Atta, who comes from the West Coast of Africa and is a student at Mc-Gill University in Canada. His father is a Chief. He spoke about the economic, political and cultural situation. A very interesting speaker, Mr. Atta is working on his Ph. D. degree.

Also worshiping in the church were Mrs. Lillie Johnson, a new member, Mrs. Williams of Boston.

The annual church meeting will be held on Thursday, January 19, 1956. Watch the bulletin board on Saturday, Dec. 1 at 11:15 a.m.
