"The injection of the TV into the entire McDonald's chain will ultimately involve a lot of things at far more than just the restaurant. It might soon become a national issue." - Above, Mr. Ball, vice president of McDonald's

The injection of the TV into the entire McDonald's chain will ultimately involve a lot of things at far more than just the restaurant. It might soon become a national issue.

Mr. Ball, vice president of McDonald's, said that the television injection in all the restaurants in the chain would eventually be a national issue.

"It is a national issue because it is a matter of principle," he said. "We are not just injecting television into the restaurants, but we are also injecting television into the customers' homes. This is a matter of principle, and it is a matter that we cannot ignore."

Women In Bowling

Barnett Barkins

The OWLS of the C.W.R.L. seem to be breaking into the news regularly these days. Breaking League records is becoming "did-it" to them. Last week they did it again. This time it was their own single. It is 321 as of now.

The star of the match was Alice Warner. She rolled 110-109 for a healthy 323. Myrtle King was a good second with 110-108 for 218. Let us not be said the other members of the OWLS didn't give them a chance. The OWLS didn't give this match a gift. They had to fight every step of the way. It was a battle of the bowlers and the lefthanders.

The MEETORS bowed right back into the first place. They took four from the ARROWS, who were fighting hard to stay on top.

Bob Paton of the FLASHES looked like the Balde of old. She is on a roll and seems to have a better week. Two weeks ago, she had 10-93 for 215. It seems that she is now closer to reaching 300. She is one of the most consistent bowlers in the league. She seems to be in a rhythm and will be a strong competition for the OWLS.

The board shows that the OWLS have 323 for 322. Her score last week was 10-101 for 210. She made a great effort to stay in the lead. The match was very close and the score was 10-100 for 204. She was given the MVP award for her efforts.

Flowers on the altar were given in memory of Mrs. Rosa Brown by the members of her family. The flowers on the altar were given by Mrs. Brenda Magee in memory of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fields. Visitors were from Detroit, Michigan, and Dedham, Mass.

COMING EVENTS

There will be a free movie in the church auditorium on the evening of the 10th, with the film "The Other" and "Married Marriage".
