Fisk President’s Passing Mourned

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — Among the hundreds of mourners from all over the country who paid their last tribute to Dr. Charles S. Johnson, president of Fisk University, who died suddenly October 27, were Roy Wilkins, secretary, and Thurgood Marshall, special counsel of the NAACP. Funeral services were held October 31 in the Fisk chapel.

Nine speakers, who had worked closely with Dr. Johnson, spoke eloquently of his national and international stature as a scholar and administrator, of his humanitarianism and devotion to his fellow-men, of his service to his nation and his race, and of his friendship.

The Pays Tribute

President Dwight D. Eisenhower wrote Dr. Johnson’s widow, “I know you must take pride, as do we all, in the great contribution Dr. Johnson made to our country.”

Atia E. Stevenson, Democratic candidate for the presidency, wrote, “As a scholar and administrator he contributed immeasurably to our society and the great advances in tolerance and mutual understanding which have occurred in recent decades.”

Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the NAACP, wired, “His sudden passing is an irreparable loss to the entire nation.”

Ralph J. Bunche, UN under-secretary, said, “His nation and his race have suffered a sore loss at the very time when his qualities of wisdom, reason and unselfish courage are most needed.”

Henry W. Luce, president of Time-Life, Inc., wrote, “I pay tribute to him as a great man.”

John Hay Whitney, president of life Whitney Foundation, wired, “His contribution to the world has been truly great.”

Among the messages from presidents and heads of nations is a signed simply “Gillie,” his secretary. It reads, “I am sincerely grieved by the passing of my friend.” It indicates “time will heal the great loss of Charles Spurgeon Johnson was held by all who knew him, both great and small.”

The political battle for Boston’s Ward 9 is obviously rejuvenated, refurbished, renovated, and galvanized by the 2 to 1 victory of Lincoln G. Pope, Jr., Democratic nominee for state representative over Attorney Laurence H. Banks, Republican. In his first bid for office Mr. Pope accomplished the unprecedented feat which have worshiping a redoubtable opponent who had served from 1940 to 1948 as the first Negro member of the state legislature from Ward 9. He gained 3,077 votes for Banks, and thus obtained the de facto leadership of all Negro Democrats in the Commonwealth.

Among the five Negro nominees in Boston, Mr. Pope was the only one to win. In Ward 9, the strongest Republican stand in the Hub, Mrs. Alberta B. Turner, Democratic nominee, with 569 votes, lost to the Republicans. However, she secured one-fourth of the total vote. Mrs. Turner, wife of D. Henry C. Turner, prominent Back Bay physician, establishes herself as one of the most important Democratic leaders in the city and state.

In Ward 12, although they launched the Republican vote of 1954, Alfred S. Brothers, Jr., with 4505 votes, and Attorney Harry J. Elam, with 4580 votes, still failed to attain the high total achieved by Attorney Edward W. Brooks in the 1932 campaign (5500), and so were swamped by their successful Democratic opposition.

Lincoln G. Pope, Jr.

George Greene (6701) and Leo Sontig (6698), incumbent state representatives, Mr. Pope’s brother-in-law, expelled Herbert L. Jackson, was defeated in his comeback attempt in Malden.

Baptists Urged "Fair Treatment"

By Mary H. Johnson

The Baptists Urged Fair Treatment. The Baptists, who have been a part of American religious life for over 200 years, have been urged to treat others with fairness and respect. The urgency of this message is emphasized in the following passage from the Baptist Declaration of 1943:

"We believe that all people should be treated fairly and with respect, regardless of their race, religion, or social status. We believe that the Baptists should be leaders in promoting this principle in our society."

NEW YORK — Columbia University officials said Wednesday that they would continue to encourage the participation of women in athletic activities and would not discriminate on the basis of sex in any of their programs.

The university's policy on bias in sports was announced in response to a letter from the NCAA's Committee on Women in Athletics, which had expressed concern about the lack of opportunities for women in intercollegiate athletics.

The committee recommended that the NCAA take steps to ensure that women have equal opportunities in athletics, including the establishment of women's athletic programs and the appointment of women to positions of leadership in athletics.
