Canon Burgess Appointed Archdeacon

Second In Rank To Episcopal Prelates

By William Harrison

Thanks to the unswerving ef- forts of Rev. Fr. Kenneth de- Hing, rector of St. Mary's Church, Cambridge, and Rev. Fr. Nathan Wright Jr., rector of St. Cynthia's Church, Roxbury, who advocated such an appointments in many con- ferences with successive bish- ops and at every general ass- embly, Bishop Norman B. Myers of the Protestant Episcopal diocese of Massachusetts has appointed Canon John M. Burgess, 47, of Washington Cathedral as the first Negro archdeacon to superintend the work of the church in the Boston area. Canon Burgess succeeds Bishop Ray- mond A. Harris who was resigned in 1954 after combing the duties of archdeacon of the diocese and superintendent of the Episcopal City Mission with those of suffragan bishop.

Canon Burgess is credited with 13 missions and assisted parishes under the jurisdiction of the archdeaconate, developing a policy for these churches and assisting in the church's work. He holds the degrees of B.B.E. and M.A. and will be theological students who work in churches without or- dained ministers, such as those from his own Alma Mater, the Episcopal Theological School in Cambridge. He was prior over

Irish Irate Over Dixie Airclots

Los Angeles -- Alice Don O'Herlihy, who recently returned from her homeland, Ireland, said that she had quite a tough time explaining the plight of Author- ities in Northern Ireland who only wanted to go to school in Alabama, and the tragic death of Emmett Till, who was brutally murdered in Missis- sippi.

It seems that his home folk asked O'Herlihy how our laws allow such discrimination. He tried to explain that it was not a sectional problem, but that they were not satisfied.

Another Night In Tropics April 20

Those who enjoyed last year's "Night in the Tropics," and will attend this year's, Bishop John O'Grady, Bishop of the Diocese of the Virgin Islands and other Bahama- Fon counties, have prepared a pro- gram of social occasions, reli- gion, for women; the Beacon's Club, and Lincoln Hill Camp for Girls. He will be administrator of the diocese, and will preside over the annual meeting of the Episcopal City Mission. He will co-operate with the work of the Protestant Guild for the Blind, the Mass. Council of Churches, and the Boston Coun- cil of Week-day Religious Educa- tion.

In making the announcement, parish declared: "(I can- on Burgess) was chosen because he is outstanding in the qualifi- cations which he brings to the work."

Cotillion Monday

Monday evening, April 16, the Beethoven Junior Club will hold its sixth annual Cotillion Ball in the Loomis XIll ballroom at the Hotel Renaissance, Commonwealth- way.
7:30 p.m. dinner will be served by the Junior Committee to the audience of relatives, friends, and past deba- tentes.
The highlight of the evening will be the naming of the Cotillion Queen at 8:30 p.m. by Mrs. Andrew E. Newton, the grand marshal of the evening. He will name the queen and her escort will lead the debutees in a waltz with their escorts in the colorful Beethoven Cotillion Waltz. The court will assemble on the dance floor.
Dancing to a selection of Schubert and Beethoven, the orchestra will be directed by Mr. Newton and his orchestra will follow. As in the past, the proceeds will be donated to the Beethoven Junior Club.

Bostonians Shocked By Attack On Cole

Birmingham, Alabama — The vicious mob attack on Nat "King" Cole, 26, by three White Citizens Council members last night has caused a stir.
Mr. Cole is not a Negro and white Bostonians, since the singer’s father was the former Marie Ellington of Rox- bury.

This is the third attack by negroes last night which necessitated a com-plaint to the National Association of "snub music and roll music," alleging that it was meant to the NAACP of a kind of "pick-pockets" for southern white ten- nants.

Police, who immediately ar- rested Mr. Cole and his mother, dis- closed that they had received a tip that there might be trouble at the municipal auditorium, where Mr. Cole was scheduled to appear on April 7. Mr. Cole was asked to appear, and he asked quickly, therefore, when the attacks moved down the road and Negro officers pointed the gun in another building.

All kinds of West Indian vice- tuals to tickle the palate will be available, including such delicacies as cassava and coconut soup, sweetmeats, drops, mufin and fish, which will be served at Frog Pond, 40 Grant’s Calypso, New York, where a dance is planned for dancing.

Rev. Canon John M. Burgess presides at the inaugural meetings, and will serve as associate Bishop Burgess and Bishop Cadwallader, St. Peter’s, Jr., in propagating the work of the church.

Mass. State Union To Hold Parley

SPRINGFIELD — The Mass. State Union of Women’s Clubs will hold its 42nd annual conven- tion, entitled “This City of God” at the First Church on April 17, and Mrs. Bernice Hazlett is in charge of arrangements.

The executive board will con- vince Mrs. Elizabeth Crick, chairman, presiding.

The convention will open at 1:45 p.m. with Mrs. Melvin Cash, president, speaking. The theme will be “United Through Prayer, Pauline, Pathway to Freedom.”

Boston, who leaves Louis St. and Humboldt Ave., Roxbury, at 7 a.m., and 563 Mass Ave., Boston, at the same hour. The fare is $2.50 round trip.

Smart-A Little

"Johnnie-O! Come here, kid." The old man was talking to the newsboy a few blocks from the River Street Hotel.

The newsboy looked up, his eyes half closed, a newspaper pressed to his face, a sky-blue tie flapping against his chest.

"My heavens, it's Johnnie-O!" exclaimed the man, who was well known in Savannah as a "smart-aleck." He was wearing a long-sleeved shirt and a long beard.

"What do you want?" asked the newsboy, his voice muffled by the paper.

"I want to buy a newspaper," replied the man. "And I want you to remember that I'm William E. Dingwall, M.B.A., accountant, 64 Mau Ave., Boston."

"Sure, Mr. Dingwall," said the newsboy, reaching for a newspaper.

"No, kid," said the man, "I want you to remember that I'm William E. Dingwall, M.B.A., accountant, 64 Mau Ave., Boston."

"Sure, Mr. Dingwall," said the newsboy, handing him a newspaper.

"Thanks, kid," said the man, and walked away.

Bermuda Calling

By George Sullivan Bullard

Bathing suits were well welcomed by the residents of Bermuda. Every morning at the same time, the sun had been rising from the northeast, and the swimmers would gather at the beach to see the first rays of sunlight. The waves were crashing against the rocks, and the sea was alive with activity.

The Bermuda Athletic Association, which organizes the swimming meets, had been established by the local authorities. The meets were held every year, and the winners were awarded medals.

Although Stuart O'Mahoney, the president of the association, was not present, his son, John O'Mahoney, was in charge of the event.

THE FACTS...

BY MICHAEL ALLEN

At last the Administration has decided that Mr. Johnson has a point about the Democratic Congress. The President today announced that he will sign the new housing bill passed by Congress last week. However, the Administration will not sign the bill, as it contains the so-called "gag rule" which would prevent the President from vetoing the legislation. The bill was passed over the President's veto, but the Administration will sign it in order to keep the momentum of the housing program going. The President's action was prompted by the growing public pressure for action on the housing bill.

The new housing bill provides for the establishment of a Federal Housing Administration to provide mortgage insurance for low-income families. The bill also provides for the establishment of a Federal Housing Authority to provide public housing for low-income families. The bill also includes provisions for the rehabilitation of existing housing and for the construction of new housing.

THE FACTS...

By MICHAEL ALLEN

At last the Administration is showing signs of breaking through the constricting mold of the Democratic era. It is pleasant to see, and the BO~TON CHRONICLE is glad to see, that President Johnson is starting to move ahead in solving the problems that face this country. It is time the Democratic era ended, and we are glad to see that the Administration is now beginning to move in that direction.

COUNTY REPRESENTATION

Probably no segment of the Boston electorate receives more attention than the Neighborhood Council movement. The efforts of Charles L. Azure and other leaders in organizing these councils have been outstanding. When a man has been in public office for 27 years like Mrs. White, one can understand the man's popularity. She is a popular leader in the Democratic party and has been a member of the City Council for many years. She is a woman of great character and ability, and she is well known for her work in the Democratic party.

We are happy to report to our public, a very successful Mass Meeting sponsored by the local Branch and held at Union Methodist Church, Thursday, April 5. Some twelve-hundred people heard Dr. T. R. M. Howard of Mount Bayou, Mississippi, deliver a piercing address. Dr. Howard praised the work of the NAACP and urged everyone to join the ranks of NAACP in its fight for freedom.

Join the NAACP

More than $1000 was raised in the collection. Two-hundred and sixty-eight dollars was collected in memberships, and thirty-two pledges were signed by individuals who agreed to join.

Mrs. Melors Case, chairman of the Howard Meeting Committee wishes to express her thanks and appreciation to everyone who worked toward the success of the meeting.

Our Membership Drive official- ly closes as of this week. We are not too happy to report 1400 memberships for 1956. Our goal for this year is five thousand new members. We are going to reach that goal and we need your help. Some of the businesses in Rox- bury and the South End have been a little too hesitant to join NAACP. We do not want to get a reputation for being exclusive.

On the other hand, contains the noted sociologist, integration is the "evaporation and the process which exists when men in society are forced to weld down such differences in a way that will be acceptable to all people without reference to their racial, religious, or other differences... the process of achieving full equality of status and condition.”

Dr. Reid's statement is made in the foreword of the special issue of The American devoted to a study by noted Negro scholars on the most important topic: "Desegregation and Integration."
