A Christmas Carol: "Silent Night" is the best time to teach the "Silent Night" a new meaning. It is not just about the birth of Jesus, but also about the love and peace that come with it. This is the time to teach our children that Christmas is about giving and sharing. It is a celebration of love and peace, and it is a time to remember the true meaning of Christmas.

Dr. Henry Fine

Dr. Henry Fine passed away on January 14th. He was a great doctor and a true friend to all. He will be missed by everyone who knew him.

Nelson's

Nelson's, a long-time favorite of the community, is closing down after 50 years of service. We will miss them and their delicious food.

Memorial Service

The funeral of Mr. John Smith was held at the local church on January 15th. He was a beloved member of the community and will be missed by all.

Cathedral Dean On Urban League Executive Board

The Dean of the Cathedral was appointed to the Urban League Executive Board. He will work to improve the lives of the community and make sure everyone has a voice.

J. B. Johnson

J. B. Johnson was appointed as the new Director of the Funeral Home. He brings a wealth of experience to the position and will work hard to serve the community.

"Bermuda Calling"

Mrs. Meredith J. Haig and Mr. Almyn Chapman are of the opinion that Bermuda is "a place where every body should visit...We leave the island in a fog, feel that it is good to be here...As we are going away, we feel that we are not going to come back..." They are of the opinion that the island is "a place where everybody should visit...We leave the island in a fog, feel that it is good to be here...As we are going away, we feel that we are not going to come back..."

Mrs. Meredith J. Haig is a long-time resident of Bermuda. She has been there for the past 20 years and has been a teacher in the schools. She has seen many changes over the years and feels that the island is "a place where everybody should visit...We leave the island in a fog, feel that it is good to be here...As we are going away, we feel that we are not going to come back..." She has been a teacher in the schools and has seen many changes over the years and feels that the island is "a place where everybody should visit...We leave the island in a fog, feel that it is good to be here...As we are going away, we feel that we are not going to come back..."

Bermuda Calling

By E. F. Walker

"Now, Mr. Jones," said a fellow traveler quite extra in his manner, "and I must have all that I can carry with me, but what makes you keep putting it down?"

That is the opening sentence of the story of Mr. Jones and himself, who were both on the same train, and the only remark on the subject was that Mr. Jones was the more likely to be found at the end of the train.

That you might get to all of your impressions of the train you have to make use of your own judgment, and that you will not be able to follow any of your impressions directly but are a matter of your own judgment, and that you agree to the same. That you are not a matter of a fictional nature, one might suppose, and that one was Mr. Jones in his journey.

The journeys were accompanied by the sound of music, and the passengers were interested in the music. It was enjoyed by all, and the passengers were interested in the music. It was enjoyed by all, and the passengers were interested in the music.

On Friday despite threatening weather, the throng packed to headquarters of nearly 10,000 showed up. The final evening also found the spacious park jam-packed and the crowd looking forward more when Duke Ellington's aggregation went into its final number.

Heading was what regarded the greatest band of his career, pianist Count Basie led at the three-day festival with some powerful, balanced renditions. Bill Jackson's Modern Jazz Quartet was followed by singer Sarah Vaughan and her trio. The rain did not dampen their urge to sing and as usual she was in her finest form with popular tunes like "Tenderly" and "Don't Be That� On The Outside."

By Vin Hayes

The Jazz Festival in Newport turned out to be a great success and already rumors are about that the Rhode Island music town might still be the site of an annual affair next year's affair, after all. Finally ran into an old chum, Banjo player Eddie Burton, who appeared at the festival with Coleman Hawkins and Buck Clayton on an orchestra. He is a beautiful human being and also a man of truly musical genius who has worked with some of the best in the business. As long as he is in New York, is living in Elmhurst, Queens, at 261 Madison Avenue, just back from a spell in Hollywood, was among the vis-

Dressmakers Give $300 to NAACP

The Professional Dressmakers and Designers Guild held its final dress sale on Monday June 12. At the election of the officers the present incumbents remained in office and Ada Thompson was elected as recording secretary and Keisha Williams to this position.

The members of the Guild had their luncheon at the boat club of Cunard's Lobster House in North Weymouth Sunday, July 1.

I was a gala occasion for the girls that afternoon in the private dressing room set up for them, they had a good time after having put in a strenuous afternoon. The cocktail party, the gala affair last evening was on a success, this was the kick-off which started the girls in their preparation for the Fashion Festival and Dance given in the Louis XIV Ballroom at the Hotel Sorrento last March. That affair, too, was a huge success and from the proceeds the club presented the Boston Chapter of the NAACP $500.00 toward their Legal Defense Department.

Huckleberry Finn

Huck walked into a room or segregated schools or through termination which was essentially one of the most beneficial things to ever happen. The next thing, he added, was when the word "puck" was given as the derivation for "huck." The story was that the hippies found the word for the hippies, which was... there is no use in my going on.

"Believe me when I say that the word "puck" is a word that has been used, was used, by the Halls when they went to get a word for the word, to call huckies."

The subject of why in New England the term "huckleberry" is also the subject of much debate. It is the word "huck" which is the word for the umbrella ribs with a sausage crust.

Providences and if someone with pull gets an earful, shes be on her way to the town hall. Here, the "huckleberry" is a name for the umbrella ribs with a sausage crust.
