Eclipse of Moon
Visible Tonight

Weather permitting, on Sat-day evening, November 17, during an 11 p.m. and continuing on into the very small hours—amauter astronomers will be following the path of the first lunar eclipse visible here in three years through powerful telescopes set up at Science Park, Boston.

The night's "Eclipse Observing Party" will follow the mon-Th co meeting of the Amateur Tri-eastern Makers of Boston at the Museum of Science, and is being conducted jointly by these two organizations.

According to John Patterson, Director of the Boston Public Museum at the corner of Marlborough Street, the lunar, or eclipse will be visible from Massaechuasetts, Maine, and Maritime Newfoundland.

At 11 p.m. the moon will enter the outer shadow (the so-called "snail shell"). The total eclipse will begin at 1:59 a.m. and last for one hour 14 minutes, from 2:57:30 to 3:23:30. The moon will be observable in the sky by 4:03:
on Sunday morning, November 18, before the moon itself leaves the umbra.

All interested persons are invited to drop in anytime from 20 minutes before the moon's entry through a telescope and to listen to a commentary over the loud speakers.

A FEW WORDS ABOUT EMMAUEL BAPTIST CHURCH.
The Social Whirl

By Doris E. Kummer

The social whirl for the weekend was in full swing, as many parties were held across the city. Among the most notable was the annual Christmas party hosted by the Board of Education. The event was held on Saturday evening at 8 p.m. at the Board of Education headquarters, 123 Main St., Boston. Attendance was limited to invited guests only.

New Government Job For Alston

Mr. James Alston, a long-time member of the city council, was recently appointed as the new city manager. His duties will include overseeing the day-to-day operations of the city government. Mr. Alston has a wealth of experience in public service, having previously served as the mayor of Boston for two terms.

Church Notes

Christian Science Church held its annual Christmas Eve service on Thursday night at 7 p.m. The service was attended by members from all over the city, and included a special performance by the church choir. The choir sang a variety of traditional Christmas carols, as well as some original compositions.

Honor Roll List

The following students have been named to the Honor Roll for the second quarter of the school year:

Grade VII: Patricia Jordan, John Smith, Mary Brown, James Green

Grade VIII: Sarah White, David Jackson, Emily Davis, Thomas Johnson

Grade IX: Michael Smith, Laura Green, Mark Brown, Linda Jackson

These students have maintained an exceptional academic record throughout the quarter. Congratulations to all!

MARRIAGE INTENTIONS

J. Rogers, 21, of the University of Kansas, and E. Williams, 23, of Harvard University, are engaged to be married next spring. The couple met during their freshman year and have been inseparable ever since.

In Memoriam

Rev. J. A. Green, a long-time member of the city council, passed away suddenly last week. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him. A special memorial service will be held in his honor on Sunday afternoon at 3 p.m. in St. Mark's Church, 123 Main St., Boston.

Card of Thanks

The family of the late Mr. John Smith would like to express their gratitude to all who helped during this difficult time. We are deeply touched by your kindness and support.

Hindight On The Election

Local Democrats are still dreamt from the combined smashing defeat of Stevenson and City Council Edi torship. These losses, however, are not as great as the party had imagined. The city and county races are still in doubt, and there is still hope for a Demo cratic victory in the local elections.

Southern Negroes turned strongly to Ike. Four Negro groups in Richman reported that Southern Negroes in Richman, in 1930, they voted for the Democratic candidate. Over on the Democratic side, there was a slight majority for the Republican candidate.

It is difficult to ascertain what the effects of the Southern Negroes' vote in Richman were. It is pos sible that they voted solely for Ike, but it is also possible that they voted for Ike because they were not satisfied with the Republican candidate.

On the other hand, it is impossible to say whether the Southern Negroes' vote in Richman was the only factor in the defeat of the Republican candidate.

Democratic leaders are now trying to figure out how they can save the party in Richman. They are looking for a strong Democratic candidate who can win the support of the Southern Negroes.

THANKSGIVING DAY

Next Thursday will be Thanksgiving Day - a re minder that winter has arrived and also that the year 1956 is coming to an end.

What have we to be thankful for, in our individual lives, as human beings? What have we to be thankful for in the world, as a whole? If we enjoy good health, we are less likely to appreciate how lucky we are.

What have we to be thankful for, in our commu nity, as a group of people? What have we to be thankful for in our lives as a family group? What have we to be thankful for in our jobs, as earn ers?

We can all truly be thankful if our chin is up, and if even our imaginations cannot visualize the terri ble changes that will happen to us. But let us not lose sight of the fact that we are fortunate.

DEMOCRATS SHOULD FORGIVE POWELL

The 1956 Presidential election is now history, but that event, I am sure, will not be forgotten by any Democrat. The defeat of the Democratic ticket of Powell, Jr., of New York, is still controversial, and we should take a stand on it. If we do not, we will be defeated again in 1960.

The 1956 election was a test for the Democratic Party. It was a test of whether the Party could survive the Powell defeat. It was a test of whether the Party could adapt to the changing political climate.

The Democratic Party should forgive Powell, and he should forgive the Democrats. The Part should not hold grudges against each other, and we should all work together to achieve the Party's goals.

Desegregation Ruling Inevitable

CHICAGO — Former Associate Justice Sherman Minton, who re- stricted recently from the Supreme Court, says in the December Ebony that the Court's desegregation ruling was inevitable because the high tribunal had been "shifting away at the 'separate but equal' doctrine for a long time. In Minton's view, the ruling destroyed the legal foundation of an ancient, and to him, obnoxious system of dual citizenship in America and decreed a new day and a new era for Negroes. "We are conscious of the great change that has been made and now, with the school authorities of this country, we must face the fact that there are Negroes for whom the 'separate but equal' doctrine will have to be met as a fact," Minton says.

As to whether Federal forces must be sent to certain parts of the South to enforce desegregation of schools, Minton is quite specific: "You can't force integration. You can't have Federal forces in suppressing violence."

As to how long racial segregation will last in America, Minton feels the South's resistance is really "bluff. It adds that resistance to it will ultimately cause the preservation of whites in the South, that the South is a place where whites can still live, and that the longer the resistance endures, the more it will strengthen the case of those who believe in preserving the South as a place where whites can live." The Negro, Minton feels, will have to "wait for the white man to open his mind."

SUGGESTIONS - Based on his message upon the par- ticle of the talents, pointing out that life is cold, hard and un- favorable and accept no excuse for our failures.

"We can all have the power for the white of life," he said, "If we can (1) get to somebody with all the power we need, (2) get to somebody we need in time and (3) we can we can do that knowledge to do what we ought to do in time."

Honeymoon: A thrill that came one in a life time.

The New York State Department of Agriculture and Markets, in charge of the Beekeepers Association, has declared that the vote to date has been very "tenuous and strong." It appears evident that the many friends of the NAACP's 38th annual convention, that the funds will make this Pre-Holiday season's fund-raising effort successful. It was held at the Boston Art Gallery, 700 Tremont St., Boston, Mass.
