KEYNOTE SPEAKER & HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT: DOROTHY SAVARESE

Dorothy Savarese, MBA '04, is chair and chief executive officer of Cape Cod 5, a financial institution she joined in 1993 as a commercial lending officer.

Founded in 1855, the bank has more than $3.4 billion in assets and employs more than 500 people throughout Cape Cod, the islands, and Southeastern Massachusetts. Cape Cod 5 has been named one of America's Top Banks to Work For by American Banker magazine and a Top Place to Work by The Boston Globe.

In 2020, Savarese was named one of the 25 Most Powerful Women in Banking by American Banker magazine, for the ninth consecutive year.

Savarese serves as president of the Federal Reserve Board's Community Depository Institutions Advisory Council, and represents the First District. The council advises the Federal Reserve Board of Governors on the economy, lending conditions, and other issues related to community depository institutions. Savarese also chairs the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston's First District Community Depository Institutions Advisory Council.

Governor Charlie Baker appointed her to the Massachusetts Economic Development Planning Council, formed in 2019 and made up of key business leaders, academics, and health care representatives from across the state. Savarese is past chair of the American Bankers Association and the Massachusetts Bankers Association, and has served on the FDIC Advisory Committee on Community Banking. She also is known for her mentoring efforts, and has established a nationally recognized college internship program at Cape Cod 5.

Savarese has served on the boards of a number of local organizations, including the Cape Cod Regional Chamber of Commerce, the Cape Cod Symphony Orchestra, the Regional Employment Board of the Cape and Islands, and the Housing Assistance Corporation.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER: THE HON. SERGE GEORGES, JR.

Justice Serge Georges, Jr., JD '96, HLLD '21, has earned a reputation not only for legal brilliance, but also for the humanity he brings to his work as both a jurist and as an adjunct law professor at Suffolk University Law School, his alma mater.

When Governor Charlie Baker nominated Georges to the Massachusetts Supreme Judicial Court last fall, he noted that many lawyers considered him “their favorite judge—not because he gives them the answer they want, but because he knows the law, does his homework, and treats everyone in his courtroom with dignity and respect.”

In addition to being only the fourth Black person ever to serve on the 328-year-old SJC, Georges is one of the few justices ever nominated to the high court from the district court level. The governor said that Georges’ “real-world experience on the District Court will improve the quality of the discussion and debate, and ultimately, the quality of the decisions that will be rendered.”

The son of Haitian immigrants, Georges grew up in Dorchester, blocks from the Boston Municipal Courthouse where he would one day preside. After graduating from Boston College and Suffolk Law, he spent more than 17 years in private practice, before then-Governor Deval Patrick appointed him to the city’s municipal court in 2013. From 2014 to 2018, he presided over the Dorchester Drug Court.

He is the third Suffolk Law graduate currently serving on the seven-member court, joining Justices Frank Gaziano and Elspeth Cypher.

HISTORY OF SUFFOLK UNIVERSITY 1906–2021

From its roots in an evening law class with a handful of students, Suffolk University has evolved into a global institution blending traditional and experiential learning with strong ties to partner organizations and mentors in Boston and beyond.

CREATING OPPORTUNITY

From its earliest incarnation, Suffolk University has opened doors to students determined to better their lives through education.

Founder Gleason Archer hailed from rural Maine and worked hard to support his law school aspirations. He was fortunate in meeting a benefactor, George Frost, who paid for Archer's education and asked only that Archer pass his generosity along to others. Archer took this advice to heart and in 1906 began teaching law in his home in the evenings.

COMMITMENT TO DIVERSITY

Suffolk was a school at the forefront of embracing a diverse student population, with Black, Asian, Native American, and women students finding a home here since its earliest days. Celebrating diversity has always been at Suffolk's core, making it the rich institution it is today.

The school now known as the College of Arts & Sciences was founded in 1934. Two years later the predecessor to the Sawyer Business School welcomed its first students. That same year all three schools were incorporated as Suffolk University. In time the University expanded from a night-school format to comprise a range of full- and part-time programs.

A tradition of public service was firmly established in Suffolk University's earliest days. Many alumni have been elected to public office at the state, local, and national levels; some began their terms in office while studying at Suffolk. And Suffolk alumni work diligently on behalf of their fellow citizens in nonprofits, the judiciary, and policy-making positions at every level.

SUFFOLK UNIVERSITY MISSION STATEMENT

At Suffolk University we are driven by the power of education, inclusion, and engagement to change lives and positively impact communities. Committed to excellence, we provide students with experiential and transformational learning opportunities that begin in the center of Boston, reach across the globe, and lead to extraordinary outcomes for our graduates.

THE UNIVERSITY TODAY

Building on the promise of its founding, Suffolk University continues to anticipate and respond to the needs of a diverse student body. Through carefully designed curricula, mentoring, networking, and service learning, the University creates opportunities that help students meet their goals.

Students combine classroom studies with experiential learning opportunities and career-shaping internships at influential institutions, and they forge strong, essential connections with professional mentors. Suffolk students benefit from their close proximity to Boston's top employers, including the key business, health care, biotechnology, and start-up industries that define the city. Partnerships with the Museum of African American History, Boston Public Schools, the judiciary, Habitat for Humanity, and many other entities engage faculty members and students in groundbreaking scholarship and community participation. Upon graduation, Suffolk students are well prepared for success.

INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION

The University's reputation for excellence draws students from across the nation and around the world to its urban campus. Students come from a variety of economic and cultural backgrounds to contribute to and engage in a vibrant campus environment, with programming that enriches not only the academic, but also the social and personal experiences of all students.

In addition, they gain international experience as they study at the University's Madrid campus and take advantage of additional study abroad programs, global travel seminars, and faculty-led study tours.

STRONG ALUMNI NETWORK

When they graduate, Suffolk students join a proud alumni community of more than 85,000 members who span the globe and are innovators and leaders in their fields. These Suffolk alumni are deeply invested in the success of today's graduates.

For 115 years, Suffolk University has been transforming lives through its rich learning environment that positions students for professional and personal success. Those who best know the University realize that its success is driven by its dedicated community—the administrators, faculty and staff members, alumni, and students who create an exceptional academic environment.

ACADEMIC ATTIRE AND SYMBOLS

The academic attire worn during commencement originated at medieval universities. The long black gown, the basic garment of academic attire, was worn for warmth and to conceal food (and sometimes wine) to be consumed between lectures. The hood—the most colorful raiment—was used as a cowl, an alms sack, or to protect the wearer’s wig from the elements.

The color of the hood trimming signifies the wearer’s academic degree, and the hood lining reflects the official color or colors of the college or university conferring the degree. Here are the colors you’ll see at today’s ceremonies:

White—Bachelor of Arts

Yellow—Bachelor or Master of Science

Magenta—Bachelor of Science in Journalism

Kelly Green—Healthcare Administration

Drab Olive—Business Administration, Business Analytics, Accounting, Taxation, or Finance

Peacock Blue—Public Administration

Blue—Master of Education or Certificate of Advanced Graduate Study in Education

Purple—Juris Doctor

Business students inducted into the Beta Gamma Sigma International Honor Society wear a royal blue satin honor stole outlined in gold with the Beta Gamma Sigma key logo. Public administration students inducted into the Pi Alpha Alpha National Honor Society for Public Affairs and Administration wear blue-and-gold cords.

Other colors and patterns of stoles represent Suffolk University’s veteran population and student leadership and cultural groups.

For each school ceremony, an alumni marshal leads the academic procession carrying a mace. The mace originally was a weapon; its ceremonial descendant confers an air of authority on those leading formal pageants. Student marshals also participate in the academic procession and carry smaller versions of the mace.

The Suffolk University seal features the University motto, Honestas et Diligentia, or Honesty and Diligence, and the founding year, 1906. The image comprises a standard and torch flanked by single stars, and Beacon Hill is pictured in the background.

A SUFFOLK UNIVERSITY ALMA MATER

Over the cobblestones of Boston,
And down the city's lamp-lit streets,
Over the rivers, bays, and oceans,
We journey here, to learn and teach.

Gladly would we learn,
And gladly would we teach.

Guided by the beacon on our Hill,
And the Archer's starry reach,
From every continent and every shore,
We journey here, to learn and teach.

Gladly do we learn,
And gladly do we teach.

As the road unfolds before us,
And in the hopeful words we speak,
We honor and remember when
We journeyed here, to learn and teach.

Gladly did we learn,
And gladly did we teach.
