President Fenton to Retire
After Five Years of Service

Friendship Is His Philosophy

by June Dugger

Students and faculty were both surprised and disappointed to hear about President John M. Fenton's resignation from Suffolk University. He had been expected to remain in office at least seven more years. His departure is seeing that he has reached a point in his career that provided an idea time to step away from the administrative duties of running an institution he loves. As a member of the Board of Trustees, he has been able to observe the growth of Suffolk University from the inside, and he wants to spend his remaining years enjoying the university and its friends. President Fenton's resignation is a promise and a step towards the future of Suffolk University.
