Cambridge Lad Among Fish

Derby Winners

Fourteen year old Paul Smith of Washington D.C. Elmwood, Cambridge, unseated a 9 1/2 inch horned pool to win the Independent Colored Bowling League championship in the annual Boston Park Department — Boston Traveler Fishing Rodeo at Jamaica Pond last Monday. First place winner was Mose Cook of Jamaica Plain with a catch of 11 1/2 pound and 9 1/4 pound. Twelve year old Tommy Frasher of West Roxbury was second with an 11 1/4 inch yellow perch.

The Cambridge lad's good fortune was timed with a combined gain of a spinning reel, cast and tackle rod.

Washington, D.C.

As agreed with the Administration, the capital city of Nigeria is to be the site of the United Nations Headquarters. The United Nations will take over the old Department of Commerce building and make it its headquarters.

In the United States, there has been much speculation about whether or not the United States should continue to support the United Nations. However, many Americans believe that the United States should continue to support the United Nations because it is an important international organization.

Recent Death
THOMAS H. JONES
Funeral services for Thomas H. Jones, 84, who resided at 147 Worcester Street, Boston, were held July 11 at the J.B. Johnson Funeral Chapel, 608 Shawmut Avenue.

Born in Berryville, Virginia, he came to Massachusetts as a young man living first in Cambridge then in Winchester for 26 years where he will be well remembered.

Shortly after the death of his wife, Sarah Shelton Jones, in 1922, he moved to Boston, where he had resided until the time of his passing, with the exception of two years spent in Louisiana with his daughter.

He suffered a stroke on June 13 and was taken to Boston City Hospital, where he lingered until he died, Saturday, July 7.

He was a member of the Sixty-Six Plus Club of the Robert Gould Shaw House. Rev. Richard M. Owens, pastor of Peoples Baptist Church, presided at the services. Burial was at Wildwood Cemetery, Winchester, Mass.

He leaves one daughter, Mrs. Clyde M. Jones of Winchester, and two grandsons.
