Shaw House To Honor Founders

Crossing the threshold of its 45th year of service to the Boston community, the Robert Gould Shaw House, a hot Feathers Service, will celebrate its Founders Day with a dinner in Maria Basin Hall, 11 Windsor St., Roxbury on Tuesday evening, March 19, at 7 o'clock.

Guest speakers for the occasion will be the Rev. Dana McLean Greeley, minister of the historic Arlington Street Church, and Kenneth I. Guscott, nuclear engineer with the Bethlehem Steel Co. Music for the occasion will be sung by the Shaw House Choir, with Darnley L. Cortin directing.

Chorus members are the owners of the Shaw House. The City Council of which the Rev. Howard P. Kellett, vicar of the Old North Church, is president, is of the Founders Day committee.

Harold Peabody, one of the founders and present treasurer, the Robert Gould Shaw House has ever had, is expected to be present.

POPE ADDRESSES FATHERS CLUB

Rep. Lincoln G. Pope, Jr., of Ward 8, was the speaker at the opening of the Cooper Center Fathers Club, Thursday evening, March 7, at the Center, Hawesville Avenue and Williams St., Roxbury. The Fathers Club has its members the fathers of the children who attend the Cooper Center.

Rep. Pope, first Negro to be elected as a Democratic state representative from Ward 8, was hailed as "Father of the Year 1956."

The officers of the club are Bill Simms, president; Sidney Burton, vice president; Charles H. Lewis, secretary. Robert Hill, treasurer; Percy Gray, financial secretary; Lafayette Hayes, chaplain.

Christian Science Services

Permanence health and happiness can be found through a spiritual understanding of man’s true relationship to God — will be dealt with at Christian Science services Sunday.

Following the Lesson-Sermon on "Man" is the Golden Text from Romans (8:35): "The spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God." Selections to be read from Science and Health with Key to the Scriptires, by Mary Baker Eddy, are included in the Lesson-Sermon (235:3-25).

"Inasmuch as God is good and the fount of all being, He does not produce moral or physical deformity; therefore such deformity is not real, but is illusion, the mirage or error."

Matthew’s account of Christ Jesus’ healing of the man "sick of the palsy, lying on a bed" (Matthew 9:2) will be included in the readings from the King James Version of the Bible.

Community Church

"Three Months" will be the subject of the address to be given by F. Alexander Maguire, human relations consultant in industry, at the monthly meeting of the Community Church of Boston, Conservatory Auditorium, 31 Hemenway St., Boston, at 10:30 a.m.

Rev. James A. Nye, formerly professor of Humanities at M.I.T., is the author of "The Man," a study of love and marriage. Since leaving M.I.T., he has been engaged in private consultation work.

The services will be conducted by the minister, Rev. Donald G. Loveth.

N. Y. L. and the Last Supper with his Poet's Note

"For Every Child a Faith" was shown.

ST. MARK'S CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, 8th Street at Hancock, Rev. R. L. Lovavince, minister Rev. Lovavince officiated at the St. Mark's Lenten Services Communion Sunday at 11 a.m. The scripture was Ephesians 5:1-14, with Rev. R. L. Lovavince Smith from St. Luke. Chapter 15: vs. 11-24.

"The Cup" was the subject of the sermon preached by Rev. Lovavince (Matthew 14:23). He spoke of Jesus on the occasion of His Last Supper with His disciples the morning service. The singing of anthems, duets, and solos will be rendered by the young women. The pastor will preach.

The altar flowers were given in loving memory of Mrs. Laura Davis by her children George Davis, Vincent, Marion and Ruthlock.

Mr. and Mrs. John Genter, Jr., and John Genter, Sr., gave the right hand of fellowship.

Talents were present from Mal den, Everett and local churches.

The service was held at St. Mark's Church in Boston.

-The Mid-Week Lenten services on Wednesday, March 13, will be in charge of the Trustees and the Men's Club.

DISHONESTY

By Nathan Wright, Jr.

N那就是 a cloaked behind the pride,
Our pretense and foolish
The truth which makes us doubt and fear
The aims all who would come near
The state of mind which makes us choose
Each thief or, makes us us
Our friends as though each we
Each foe as though he were a fool
"The mask of iniquity"
Which makes us always want to
Some other person than we are
Our own wagons to a star
When our own will should be enough
To be not howsever tough,
Or leave us at the place where we

THE SOCIAL WHIRL

By MRS. DORIS E. ROOSA

Hello, Beaumont fans. This is the Society Page of the Py'ramid, Dolores's latest afternoon publication. Dolores, Kathryn, and Dorothy, along with the rest of the staff, have been working hard to make this issue a success. As you may know, the Py'ramid has been going strong for several years now and has become a staple of social life in the Beaumont area. The staff meets weekly to discuss the latest events and plan future issues.

Some of the upcoming features include interviews with local luminaries, reviews of recent books and movies, and coverage of the latest fashion trends. We also plan to include more coverage of community events and local news.

Thank you for reading the Society Page. We hope you enjoy this edition.

SOME OF THE MEMBERS OF CHAPTER 56, South End, Boston, of the Associated Master Bartenders and Bartiessians of America at their weekly meeting, held on Monday at the Mortar House, Duford, Back row, (L-R): Carroll Harper, John Battle, Shepard Hart, and Leo Gainey.

THE Council of Women of St. Richard's Church gave a Pockey Party Friday evening, March 1, at St. Richard's Church Hall on Fenno St., Roxbury. Mrs. Gladys Conway was chairman of the committee.

Until next week send your news to Lauren E. Roome, 104 Chil- ton St., Cambridge (KI 7-3906).

The Teen Age groups of Jack and Jill held a luncheon meeting at the home of Joan Harris, 44 Brook- lidge St., Jamaica. Members present were Marlene and Sharh on Carton, Norman Carter, Ozzie Jordan, and the usual legion of Jack and Jill admirers.

At the George Washington Whirl, Waltz Party held at the Belter's Feet in the Municipal Building, Washington, a group of five dollars was won.

Lydia's Hat Show and Cocktail Party were presented to one of the loveliest social events of the spring season. Guests were entertained at the Coleman Room of the Hotel Buckingham, Kennedy St., for a delightful evening. The door prize will be a custom-made hat to fit the wearer. You will be musically entertained by the popular Paul Layne Trio and the beautiful soprano voice of Delores Jostum, also solos by Paul Layne. Fashion-wise you will see the latest spring millinery including the new high-top cloche, blouses, clutches, side wise profile hats, wide brim sailors, coming, rollers, mushroom, tambourines, turban bonnets, flowered hats and many others. WHY NOT FOREVER?

The times in which we live are evidently too grim for satire. The New Yorker, which does not enjoy a mass circulation comparable to that of The American Weekly, magazine supplement to the Hearst Sunday newspapers. People in the different sections of the city have confessed that the luxury of too many satirical articles; nearly everything has to be deadpan literal for the average intelligence to which publication is geared. It may be presumed, therefore, that in the near future Ms. McGlinchey’s articles will be "Let’s Give Up Hate For Lent" was offered with pitifully laudable good intentions in The American Weekly for March 3. We accept the spirit of the offering, with confidence that it will be needed in a way we’ve never needed before.

We should be intellectually dishonest if we did not point out the implications of Miss McGlinchey’s title as well as the total impact of her article. First of all, from the title, one might be led to think that hate is a moral evil, and that even our present moral system is needed.

Moreover, if we were not for expressing an opinion; our dismay is caused by the horrible circumstance that it might not have been feasible for her to call for the removal of hate within all of us forthwith and immediately, lest nobody might read her article on the ground that it was advancing an impractical course of action for the masses of readers whose attention it would have attracted. Our country must surely be in a desperate state of heart if a writer is impractical who cannot hope to convince a large readership that hate ought to be banished from every heart — totally, absolutely, and at once.

The observance of Brotherhood Week once a year, the effort to emulate seriously the ethical example of Jesus Christ, is an annual appeal for a probable substitution of Sundays, if you profess to be a Christian of any denomination, must strike thoughtful persons of all creeds, colors, races, and national origins as farcical. To your tests, O Israel!

Ford Hall Forum

President Henry M. Jackson (Dem.) of Washington, will open the spring series of the Ford Hall Forum on March 31, 1967, as he gives an eye-witness report on "The Russian Dilemma," at Jordan Hall.

The Senator recently completed a 10,000 mile trip to Russia and other Soviet Union in which he inspected labor camps, concentration camps, Stalag, Stalinal, Rostov, Tiflis, and other key Russian centers.

This is a story of life, liberty, and love in the "Eyes-Witness" series. Louis Fischer, publisher of the internationally published Russia Revue, will speak on March 27, with Mr. Fischer in revolt. Mr. Fischer was in Yugoslavia when the Russian revolt broke out and he gained a new insight into the satellite reactions to the Soviet revolution. Mr. Fischer will have a hand in the curtain.

Senator Jackson had served in the U. S. House of Representatives for six terms and was appointed to the U. S. Senate in 1953. During his entire tenure in both houses of Congress, Senator Jackson has pressed for the devaluation of the dollar, reduction in federal spending, and, in the accompanying series, has faced the people with the facts of the situation. The spring series of the Forum’s lectures will be concluded with programs by Drs. Paul J. Tillich, Dr. Walter G. Muelder, Dr. William M. S. Ewing, Dr. John Paul Mather, and Dr. John Maxfield, Saturday, March 31, 1967, at 3:00 p.m. in the Jordan Hall.

President Eisenhowcr, reluctantly upon the advice of doctors, has been President of the United States before the end of 1967, this reporter learned from reliable sources early this week.

The increasing strain of the hardest job in the world is daily taking its toll of the President’s strength. White House sources say that Mr. Nixon, who has a sickly eye, is young, vigorous, and in excellent health, can take over the reins now, thus increasing the chances of victory of the GOP in the 1966 elections.

Nixon in Ascendancy

The announcement by the President of the capable Vice President that he will run for the incumbent’s seat in 1968 has permitted the GOP to present him as a man of experience with a record of accomplishment in 1966. The Gallup braintrust is confident that Mr. Nixon will win the nomination, and that the Democratic Party can’t field a really strong candidate.

Curtis in Ascendancy

Considerable pressure is being brought to bear on Congressmen Curtis Laurie to get him to attend the NAACP Rights Conference on Sunday, March 18.

It is reported that the Congressman, who represents the largest group in New England, is not too enthusiastic about the NAACP’s conference in New York.

This reporter hopes that he will attend in order to see if the Congress from the floor of the NAACP Civil Rights Conference. Too many politicians have talked themselves out of

The visual arts are being shown in the form of a traveling exhibition called "Art for All." The exhibition will be on view at the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, until June 10. It will then go to the National Gallery of Art in Washington, D.C., where it will remain for three months. It will then travel to the Museum of Modern Art in New York City, where it will be on view from July 1 to August 31.

The exhibition includes works by well-known artists such as Pablo Picasso, Henri Matisse, and Vincent van Gogh. The exhibition also includes works by less well-known artists, such as Jackson Pollock and Mark Rothko. The exhibition is organized by the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, with the support of the National Endowment for the Arts.
