GOVERNOR SARGENT TO SPEAK AT JUNE COMMENCEMENT

Gov. Francis W. Sargent will be the speaker at Suffolk University's commencement exercises Sunday, June 13 at 2:30 p.m. at the John B. Hynes Civic Auditorium, Prudential Center.

The Commonwealth's chief executive will also be awarded the honorary degree of Doctor of Public Administration.

President Fulham will preside and confer degrees on more than 750 graduates of Suffolk's Colleges of Liberal Arts, Business Administration, Journalism and Law School. The call to commencement will be made by Judge Fenton, chairman of the Board of Trustees.

A NEW FACE - THE S.U. NEWSLETTER

With this issue of the Suffolk University Newsletter (THE SUN), a new face rises on the Suffolk scene. The SUN will be Suffolk's monthly internal publication. It will be published for all of the University's faculty and administrative staff serving the colleges and law school.

The Newsletter's aim is to keep Suffolk's growing family informed of the many varied activities within the school, record notable accomplishments, appointments and events and to report other newsy activities.

In short, we will do our best to cover the Suffolk story.

This is just the start of what we hope will become a popular monthly feature in the fall. At that time, we plan to publish a more finished production, using photos where appropriate, and publish a calendar of events.

We welcome and ask your help. If you have any items you consider noteworthy or have any suggestions or comments to offer, please bring them to the attention of the Public Relations office - Extensions 280 - 283.

We wish you a pleasant summer and look forward to serving you in print again come September.
S.U. - A.G.'s OFFICE SPONSOR DRUG INSTITUTE

Suffolk's sociology department and the office of Atty. General Robert H. Quinn are jointly sponsoring a two-week evening drug institute for students, social workers, teachers, and the general public.

The program was planned through the cooperation of Prof. D. Donald Fiorillo, director of the institute, Assistant Attorneys General Robert Y. Murray and Robert P. Hanlon of the drug abuse section of the Attorney General's office, and Dr. Joseph H. Strain, dean of Suffolk's evening and summer sessions.

The institute, conducted evenings at the University from 6:00 p.m. to 9:15 p.m., features experts in the field as lecturers and workshop panels. The Massachusetts Department of Education is also cooperating in the project, which offers two semester hours credit toward a major in sociology and can be taken for graduate or undergraduate credit or non-credit. It will run from May 24 through June 4.

ALUMNI LUNCHEONS ARE UNDERWAY - ALUMNI DAY JUNE 5

Suffolk alumni have been renewing acquaintances with the school and faculty lately through a series of luncheons in which they have been guests of President Fulham.

The luncheons, held weekly in the President's Conference Room, have brought more than 30 alumni to the University in recent weeks to be greeted by President Fulham and Alumni Secretary Dorothy McNamara. Several of the alumni hadn't been back to Suffolk in a number of years and expressed praise at the progress the university has made.

"We have a very large and prestigious alumni," President Fulham noted, "and we are anxious to see and meet more of them and keep them active with the University. The University has made great progress in the past decade, and those graduates who have come to these luncheons have been quite impressed with the strides we have made."

Alumni who have attended the luncheons to date include: Rae D. Anderson, BSBA '49, MBA '58; John J. Beades, AB '44, JD '48; Peter R. Beatrice, AB '56, LL.B '58; Mrs. Margaret M. Blizard, LL.B. Fink, AB '64; Thacher H. Fisk, LL.B. '41; Neal D. Hannon, AB '68; Jeanne M. Hession, LL.B. '56; Albert L. Hutton, Jr., LL.B. '55; Sylvia Katsenes, AB '63, LL.B. '66; Henry E. Keenan, LL.B. '31; Robert J. LeBlanc, BSBA '66; Paul F. Mahoney, AB '63, JD '69; John D. McCarthy, BSBA '62, MBA '69; John J. McCarthy, BSBA '49; Thomas J. Moccia, BSBA '54; Keesler H. Montgomery, LL.B. '60, LL.M. '61; Paul J. Moriarty, BSBA '54, LL.B. '58, MSBA '61; James S. Munro, Jr., JD '67; James J. Nixon, Jr., LL.B. '54; John J. Norton, BS '55; Roy C. Papalia, LL.B. '34; Leonard Poretsky, LL.B. '27; Donald J. Schmidt, BSBA '68; George A. Strait, LL.B. '49; Paul R. Tierney, LL.B. '64; Dr. Harry Zohn, AB '46.
The General Alumni Association is busy preparing for its Saturday, June 5 Alumni Day, which will be held within the school. This will provide Alumni an opportunity to see the school's new and refurbished facilities and also add an intimate and nostalgic touch to the festivities.

Activities will begin at 5:30 p.m. with a tour of the school followed by a champagne cocktail party to be hosted by President Fulham at 6:30. A buffet dinner will be served and there will be dancing and refreshments from 8 to midnight in the school cafeteria featuring the music of Jerry Davis.

'71 APPLICATIONS UP IN COLLEGES, LAW SCHOOL

While many four-year colleges across the nation have reported a drop in the number of applications for next Fall, it is a different story at Suffolk.

William F. Coughlin, director of admissions, reports that the number of applications received to date exceeds the comparative number of a year ago. As of now, the Admissions Office has received 2288. A year ago the figure was 2071.

Moreover, the number of paid deposits is also up. As of May 11, a total of 768 prospective new students paid deposits compared to 746 a year ago. Significant is the fact that the deposit fee has been increased from $50 to $100 for the coming academic year.

"These figures are encouraging and are a healthy sign," said Coughlin. "We are aiming for a day school enrollment of 2000. Last year we had a total of 1960. We also envision a freshman day class of approximately 700."

Meanwhile, in the law school the number of applications has been slightly staggering. Miss Doris M. Pote, registrar, says that the day division of the law school has had nearly 2000 applications alone and that there have been some 650 applications in the evening division. There are seats for approximately 500 (250 in each division).

"There is already a waiting list containing 100 names," Miss Pote noted.

NEW HOME FOR FOUR S.U. DEPARTMENTS

As many of you know by now, the offices of Public Relations, University Development, Alumni and Athletics have moved into attractive new quarters at the University property at 56 Temple St., directly opposite the University auditorium.

Three floors of the 56 Temple building were completely renovated. The first floor houses the Public Relations office of Lou Connelly, the Alumni office of Miss Dorothy M. McNamara and the Athletic office of Charlie Law.

The second floor is occupied by Development Director Jim Matthew and also contains a conference room. The third floor is occupied by Mrs. Ellie Kohler, assistant development director, and also has offices for eventual use by the Law placement office.

In addition, the building's basement floor has also been refurbished and houses the office of Building Superintendent Ivan Banks.

SENATOR TUNNEY SPEAKS AT LAW DAY FETE

Sen. John V. Tunney (D-California) addressed an overflow crowd of 700 at the annual Law Day banquet of the Suffolk University Student Bar Association at the Chateau DeVille, Framingham, April 30.

Sen. Tunney called for a Congressional investigation of the F.B.I., saying that such an inquiry is "vital for the F.B.I. and the nation as a whole."

He also urged a limitation through "court directive and meticulously drawn legislation" on government surveillance and snooping and criticized the activities of Atty. General John Mitchell and the Justice Department.

The 36-year old Tunney proved to be a warmly affable guest, and spent much of the evening chatting with law school students, faculty and administration and guests.

Honored during the evening were Boston Atty. Abner R. Sisson, Suffolk Law Class of 1928, and Law Professors John Nolan and Dave Sargent. Sisson was presented the Dean Frederick A. McDermott Award in memory of the late law school dean for "distinguished achievement in his field." Nolan was presented an award as a token of appreciation from the law students for his service to the law school. Sargent was also cited for his efforts on behalf of students and law school.

Among the guests were Mrs. Helen McDermott, widow of Dean McDermott and her son, Brian McDermott.

Chairman of the successful dinner was Charles E. Kuenlen. Others on the committee were John Deliso, chairman of the speakers bureau, William Batty, treasurer and chairman elect of the evening division and Frank LaFayette, outgoing president of the Student Bar Association.
QUADRIVIUM CONCERT A BIG HIT

The recent appearance of the Quadrivium Consort at the S.U. Music Festival and its overwhelming success was due to the efforts of every facet of the Suffolk community.

Sponsoring the activity were: the Committee on Lecture Series; the General Alumni Association; Evening Division Student's Association; the Humanities Club; and the Modern Language Club.

The organizing committee consisted of: Students Nancy Bek, Ingrid Bonatti, Robert Kasabian, Jill Sullivan and Claire Maher; Faculty members Dr. Ilse Fang, Prof. William Buckingham, Prof. Bernadette MacPherson and Dr. Florence Petherick; Administration staffers P. Richard Jones, Marilyn Itri, Donna McDavitt, and Ruth Winn.

Other contributors were Tom Finneran, Joanne Jurewich, the Language Laboratory staff, and the Department of Student Affairs.

Vice-President and Dean Don Grunewald gave the words of greeting.

It was a unique example of the entire Suffolk family pitching in on a single project.

S.U. AFFILIATES WITH B.U. CREDIT UNION

The Boston University Credit Union is now available to Suffolk employees through an affiliation approved between the schools. Among the features offered are low interest loans, discount purchasing and high dividend savings. To join, employees must file an application in the office of Suffolk Bursar Paul Ryan. There is a 50 cent entrance fee and applicants must purchase one $5.00 share.

For further information see Mr. Ryan in his office in the accounting department.

SUFFOLK GRANTED SIGMA XI CHARTER

A charter has been granted to Suffolk for the establishment of a Society of the Sigma Xi club at the school. Formal installation was held April 23 with Dr. Raymond J. Seeger, director of the National Lectureship Program of the Society presenting the charter to President Fulham. A reception and dinner followed. Hats off to Biology chairman Dr. Art West and Dr. Maria Bonaventura of Chemistry, named president and secretary respectively of the club, for their efforts.

We now join such schools as Holy Cross, Emmanuel, Williams and Lowell Tech with club charters.
