Washington—Passed by the House of Representatives last week the Civil Rights Bill gained momentum in the Senate Thursday, June 20, as this paper went to press, by the victory of its backers in the first skirmish. The Senate voted 43 to 4 against the point of order of Senator Richard B. Russell, Georgia Democrat, to send the bill to the Judiciary Committee, on which Senator W. O. Eastland, Mississippi Democrat, is chairman. On the other hand, the Bay State Senate, by a vote of 11 to 5, including Senator John F. Kennedy, Democrat, voting for the Russell point of order, and Senator Leverett Saltonstall, Republican, opposing it, THE BILL IS ON THE CALENDAR. Liberal Democrats like Senator Paul S. Douglas of Illinois, Joseph S. Clark of Pennsylvania, Thomas H. Hennings, Jr., and W. W. Ottis of California, Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, and Joseph O. Paitson of South Carolina, voted for cloture, thereby enabling the Senate to consider the measure without further delay.\n
Atlee Gibson Top Seeded In Wimbledon Tilt

New Yorker Atlee Gibson, who last a few seasons ago surprisingly scored the surprise upset in Wimbledon tennis but for a thunder shower, has been accorded top seeded honor in the women's singles of the Wimbledon Tennis Championships which begin June 21 and extend to July 4.

Miss Gibson has been favorably disposed of by the critics of the game, her ranking in the last two years, when she was only 17, in the women's singles, being the third in the world, is now first. She has been dating for the past year.”

Oscar Moore Awarded Ed. D.

Tallahassee—Oscar Moore, associate professor of physiology, was given an honorary doctor of education degree by Florida State University. Dr. Moore received the degree in health education during the annual commencement exercises held Sunday morning, June 2, in the auditorium of Florida State University. Taylor, and daughter, Judy, accompanied him from Tallahassee for the ceremonies. He is a native of Cambridge, Mass.

Man AcraculacKick Killing Freed

Joseph P. Kelly, 27, of Mass. Ave., Lexington, was freed last Wednesday of complexity in the brutal kidnaping murder of Edward Ross, 26, on February 16, when the jury could not positively identify him in Municipal Court. He had been sought on a John Doe warrant, but it was only referred to police just a short time before the court recessed whereupon Judge Frank W. Tomlinson released him.

Rice was kicked to death by four men while committee of Mrs. Dorothy M. Conley, 26, of Flower St., Revere, near Boston and Everett, was South End. Rice was acrobating on a mon-drashtra in James F. Carney, 37, formerly of Roxbury, and who is of Garden Terrace, Woburn.

Rhode Island fans cast their ballots with most of the northern Republicans who supported the Senate's last Eisenhower-backed Civil Rights Bill.

The showdown will come in July when debate on the bill starts.

The indefatigable Wm. "Sleepy" Jackson, former Boston socialite and former sports writer for this paper for years—this time in the fair city of Cleveland. Returning father of the Cleveland Call and Post he was last week to the President's Council on Youth Fitness.

The appointment was announced by Shane McCarthey, executive director of the council. In announcing Jackson's appointment by President Eisenhower, McCarthey stated: "The President has appointed you to represent this country on June 22.

Atlanta—Negro young people should look beyond the problem race relations in the greater problems facing them. Dr. James H. Robinson told the graduating classes of Atlanta University, and Spelman and Morehouse Colleges. The baccalaureate speaker said that the time of protest had passed and that a new era of economic reform was for people who could be constructive.

"Since you were born, half the people of the world have changed their way of living without protest to power;" the pastor of the Church of the New Jerusalem, New York said, citing India as an example.

"Who wins the minds of young Africans will rule Africa," he said, speaking of the effect of sin on Christian mission boards do not have five trained youth workers in America. He urged Negro youth to go to Africa, not as preachers, but as sociologists, public health workers, and nurses.

Baltimore—World-famous and much honored Marian Anderson sang at another honorary degree here Sunday, June 3—this time from Morgan State College. Morgan President Dr. Martin D. Jenkins conferred the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws upon the celebrated singer as more than 4,000 people packed into the E. P. Hurley Gymnasium gave a tremendous ovation of several minutes duration. Russell Peters of Maspeth, Mass., received the A. B. degree.

Charlotte, N. C. — Johnson C. Smith University awarded degrees to 123 seniors during its eighteenth-ninth commencement exercises here last week.

Dr. James P. Adams, of Little Compton, R. I., chairman of the nominating committee for the Superintendence of Documents, was elected to the executive committee of the National Council of Higher Education at its annual meeting recently. Other Rhode Island representatives are Thomas H. Quinn, of West Warwick, and Senator Harold S. Moss, of Providence.
MEDFORD EVENTS

Pastor Phillips put in his usual busy day. After preaching morning service at New Hope Baptist Church, Winchester, he spoke at the Harvest Home Everett, American Baptist Mission fields representative, who addressed the congregation at Shiloh. Then Pastor Phillips delivered the sermon at the 1977 graduation. Notre Dame of Newton School of Beauty Culture is a program held in United Methodist Church, Boston. The 1977 Mass. Women's Baptist Mission annual house party held at Camp Wonderland in Sharon was well represented by those whose present were Medesman Edwin Tyner, Rebecca Howry, Helen Lightfoot, Portia Bofield, Miriam Phillips and Elizabeth Miller.

The late Columbus Etheridge of Jerome Street was the first man of color to run for Medford public office, in 1947. Unopposed here on the Democratic ticket. Mr. Etheridge, a founder of the Community Center, was then 72 years old, and he, nor anybody else, was given the slightest chance against the huge Republican Party favorite, Mrs. Anna Roberts. The guessing here was that he could not get 100 votes. He polled even 500 votes. But Etheridge surprised City Hall by polling 1,919 votes to be the winner. 2,002. The amazing part of the result was that Etheridge was a patently unknown political figure in Medford, but his campaign was without fuss or fanfare. Never once did he see a picture and few had heard him speak; yet he drew votes from all nationalities. It is obvious the 1,192 votes were not all colored.

ADAM POWELL’S LEADERSHIP
Congressman Adam Clayton Powell of New York is fortunately making a rapid recovery from his recent heart attack sustained indubitably because of the heavy and unrelenting efforts in the battle to bring about full enfranchisement of African Americans on the basis of the complete equality with all other Americans. He is one of our foremost national leaders. That is an incontrovertible fact, which will be fully detected by future historians even though adhering wholly, as every freedom-loving American must, to his strategic aim, which is the strengthening and extension of democratic freedom to all, regardless of race.

Congressman Brooks Hays of Ohio is usefully working in declaring: “There is no person, in my opinion, in the United States who is doing more to divide Negro citi-zans from the rest of the citizenry than the Governor of New York (Adam Powell).” Such a statement is “of spoofing all compact,” to use a phrase of the late H. L. Mencken.
What about Congressional colleagues of both Messrs.
Hays and Powell? Have they fulfilled their responsibility with the historic May 17, 1954 decision of the U.S. Supreme Court outlawing school segregation?

The unkind idea is delivered unchivalrously at the convalescent Harlem Congressmen emancipated from James C.
Petrito, president of the American Federation of Musicians, on the nation’s convention Thursday, June 13, in the most untrite. Rep. Powell’s noncompliance with the history the 1954 decision of the Supreme Court outlawing school segregation.

The unfortunate wound, which is quite real in Haiti, secnond nature in this hemisphere to achieve independence, is painful to every liberty-loving American, because of the wanton blookdown. Since the revolt against the Magloire regime, there has been no stable government in the eastern portion of the island of Santo Domingo, and the methods employed by successive factions to obtain control have smacked of those endemic to the western portion, the Doimican Republic ruled by Toussaint Louverture. In the past, when a military government took over, the result
was a return to the conditions of the earlier regime.

Certainly the liberal Mr. Rabid, is the hope of the politicians and the prestige of having been a leader in the fight against the military regime. The President would be a major plus factor among Republicans. There would be a sense on the horizon who could defeat the military regime. But, having been a leader in the fight against the military regime, as of the moment,
would have an excellent chance of defeating the present government, whose policies he dislike.
The people of this hemisphere could make this possible.

smacked of those endemic to the western portion, the Doimican Republic ruled by Toussaint Louverture. In the past, when a military government took over, the result
was a return to the conditions of the earlier regime.

Certainly the liberal Mr. Rabid, is the hope of the politicians and the prestige of having been a leader in the fight against the military regime. The President would be a major plus factor among Republicans. There would be a sense
on the horizon who could defeat the military regime. But, having been a leader in the fight against the military regime, as of the moment,
would have an excellent chance of defeating the present government, whose policies he dislike.
The people of this hemisphere could make this possible.

Floyd Patterson, Champion

and title sound very familiar to me, and I am sure that it is also familiar to millions of others who can recall the sport of boxing. I incline to the view, however, that outstanding name shall now it is very seldom mentioned. Very unpopular, after winning the world boxing championship on the shelf for seven months. After that period, according to the report, he went quietly on an exhibition tour of the Midwest—it turned out to be a financial flop. Nowadays, little or no news about him in the papers.

Ring Magazine carries a story and a picture of the present champion and the former all-time great heavyweight champion, Joe Louis. Joe is a famous figure in the boxing world. I have never seen him in the ring. Joe is a great champion who has won many titles in his career. He is known for hisKO power and his ability to take a lot of punishment.

The Boston Red Sox have slipped a bit since making their surge into the top of the division two weeks ago. They have been written off by some as a team that just isn't good enough to make the playoffs. However, the fans are still hopeful for their team and are pouring in to get a glimpse of the Boston Red Sox game on the big screen.

SIDE GLANCES

The Boston Red Sox have been struggling to keep up with the other teams in the league. One recent game was against the New York Yankees, where they lost by a score of 6-2. The Sox are currently in fourth place in the American League East, behind the Yankees, the Toronto Blue Jays, and the Tampa Bay Rays.

Mifeires Overtake Hub Mail 11/8 in Softball Battle

A big six-win rally in the fourth inning provided pitcher Gene Lee the support needed to defeat the Hub Mail 11-8 in their "Y" softball league under lights at the YMCA field. Trailing 4-1 in the fifth inning, Mifeires staged a terrific rally to score six runs in the inning for four performances at the plate.

Eddie Adams opened the clowning by making a diving steal into right field by the Hub Mail. Adams was enabled him to scampor home. Hub Mail's Johnny Haney and Inn Ashley highlighted the inning with a double each, which allowed Adams to score to the fence just two feet short of a circuit count.

Good fielding by the two infielders, with no hits by Eddie Smith held the Hub Mail's hitting to a minimum until the closing of the game. For the Hub Mail, there were no home runs over the left field fence.

In THE DUGOUT

This has been a very hectic week for the softball club, with the charges of baseball monopolies by the league and the import of cubs in both leagues. It was about the same time color baseball players fought the campaign against those "bean ball" clubs. They were saying "Outside Old Boy has a very good left hand."

My only regret is that he didn't throw a curve ball. He missed the "wind-bag" Billie Martin. For years Ooby has been the man to watch in the league. Each time he went to the plate in a game, he hit a home run, and if the fair game, not only because he was the best hitter in the league, but also because his jersey was colored. A few years ago, I remember him hitting a "right by pitched balls" record for the league.

At this particular time, the Red Sox should use any opportunity to get their hands on, and this is in time for picking and the league's "TRADING" period. According to the rules, the player, "Harry -Quinn" of the Chicago White Sox, will be traded to Cleveland and Kansas City. This is a big blow for the Yankees and a pleasant one after the blowout of the Red Sox. However, the biggest blowout of the Yankees is still one of the best under-performers in the league.

Hub Mail and Yankee are batting over 200 but is seldom noticed or written about in the daily papers. Simpson is looking good with his first week in the league. We hope he will be surprised if the Yankees tie the league championship in their last week of the season. The Red Sox, on the other hand, must be very careful that they don't get caught up in a three-way tie for the championship.
