BOARD APPROVES PURCHASE OF WRIGHT & POTTER BUILDING BUT OCCUPANCY IS TWO YEARS AWAY

The Board of Trustees formally approved purchase of the Wright & Potter Building, adjacent to the Archer Building, at its April 12 meeting. The university has been negotiating to buy the five-story structure for many months.

President Fulham expressed confidence that final papers might be passed by the end of July but noted that the university must also obtain a variance so that the building can be used for educational purposes. He also pointed out that it will be two years before Suffolk can occupy the property because of present tenancy arrangements.

The building, located at 32 Derne Street and owned by the Wyman Trust, has approximately 38,000 square feet footage and has been used as a printing plant for more than 40 years.

In other action at the April 12 meeting, the board:

- Voted to appoint two search committees for the selection of new deans in the college of arts and sciences and the law school. It marks the first time faculty and students will have a voice in such decisions. Named to the college committee which will consider the successor to Dr. Donald Grunewald were Dr. Stanley M. Vogel of English, Dr. Margaret W. Raben of Psychology, and Dr. Robert S. Friedman of Biology, and students Joseph B. Shanahan, president of the Student Government Association, Claudia Gilchreast, vice president of SGA, Richard A. Lalime, president of the Sophomore Class, and Neal Duane, president of the Evening Division SGA. From the Law School, Student Bar Association representatives John Deliso, William Batty, and Leonard Lewin will join with soon to be named faculty representatives to consider the successor to Law School Dean Donald R. Simpson, who is scheduled to step down in June after reaching the mandatory retirement age of 65.

- Created the position of associate dean in the Law School.

- Voted to end the physical education requirement with an eye toward expanding the intramural athletic program.

- Created two new administrative positions - a transfer counselor to advise students regarding transfer credits, requirements and other matters applicable to transfers, and a personnel and equal opportunity officer to develop and coordinate Suffolk's affirmative action plan.

JUDGE HUDSON'S RITES THRONGED IN WEST HARWICH

More than 600 persons, including many from Suffolk, attended the funeral Mass of Superior Court Judge Eugene A. Hudson, vice chairman of the Suffolk Board of Trustees, last Saturday at Holy Trinity Church, West Harwich. Judge Hudson died April 20 at the age of 70.

President Fulham headed a delegation of Suffolk trustees. Other trustees present were Judge John E. Fenton, chairman of the board, Francis X. Flannery, treasurer, Judge Frank J. Donahue, Herbert C. Hambelton Jr., Nelson G. Burke, Joseph A. Caulfield, Joseph P. Graham, Joseph Schneider, and Judge C. Edward Rowe. Others from Suffolk in attendance were Dr. Donald Grunewald, vice president and dean of the College of Arts and Sciences, Law Professors Malcolm M. Donahue, John E. Fenton Jr., Clifford E. Elias, and Herbert Lemelman, Law Librarian John W. Lynch and Public Relations Director Louis B. Connelly.

Judges of the Superior Court appeared in a body for the Mass as did members of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of which Judge Hudson was a past commander.

A 1924 graduate of Suffolk Law School and twice recipient of honorary degrees from the University, Judge Hudson had served on the Board of Trustees since 1957 and had been a life trustee since 1969. He was appointed to the Superior Court by Governor Maurice J. Tobin in 1946 and was recognized as one of the Commonwealth's outstanding trial judges, presiding over many well-known cases, both on the criminal and civil side of the court. He was the first veteran of World War II to be named to the bench.

The Reverend Edward Connors, pastor of the Immaculate Conception Church, Worcester, celebrated the funeral Mass.

Judge Hudson is survived by his wife, Catherine M. (Coyne) Hudson, a former staff writer for the Boston Herald, and two brothers, George H. of Arlington and Frank E. of West Harwich.

In a move to honor the memory of Judge Hudson, the Student Bar Association of Suffolk University voted at its April 20 meeting to establish the Judge Eugene A. Hudson Visiting Professor Chair. The SBA donated $5000 from its treasury to establish the fund. Under its proposed terms, a professor from another law school would come to teach for one year at Suffolk with a different professor presented each year. William Batty of the Evening Division is chairman. He is being assisted by John Deliso, president of the Student Bar Association.
DR. WEST TO TAKE LEAVE FOR NSF WORK

Dr. Arthur J. West, chairman of the Biology Department, has taken a 14-month leave of absence from his Suffolk duties to become associate program director for the Division of Pre-College Education in Science at the National Science Foundation in Washington. He will be winding up his current duties at Suffolk in June. Dr. West is happy to report that a new major in Life Study has been added to the S.U. curriculum. "This is a broadening of the curriculum and will include social science with the natural sciences," Dr. West stated. "The 30 hours of biology will also allow for other courses such as sociology and psychology."

FACULTY WRITINGS ON DISPLAY

The writings of Suffolk University faculty currently occupy a showcase in the lobby of the Donahue Building and will be on display for two weeks. Director of Libraries Richard J. Sullivan says the display is designed to call attention to the works of Suffolk's faculty.

Faculty books on display are Dr. Neilson C. Hannay, late chairman and professor of English, "A Fitzgerald Friendship;" Dr. Gleason L. Archer, founder and first president, "History of Radio (to 1926);" Dr. Edward G. Hartmann, "Americans from Wales;" Dr. Donald Grunewald, vice president and dean of the Colleges of Liberal Arts and Sciences, "Cases in Business Policy;" Marilyn Jurich, assistant professor of English, "A Department Store Has Everything," and "Seeds from the Store;" Dr. Gerald J. Pine and Dr. Angelo V. Boy, former lecturers in Education, "The Counselor in the Schools: a Reconceptualization;" Joseph P. Vaccaro, instructor in Business Administration, "Decision Making with Cases in Marketing;" Dr. Stanley M. Vogel, professor and chairman of English, "German Literary Influences on the American Transcendentalists;" and Dr. William S. Sahakian, professor and chairman of Philosophy, "Outline - History of Philosophy."

Sullivan adds that in September a collection of publications by Suffolk alumni will be on display.

The College Library also presented an exhibition of paintings by Robert C. Morgan, an instructor in art history and drawing at the New England School of Art, on April 3. On April 13, Morgan spoke in the lounge of the College Library. A native Bostonian, Morgan has had his paintings shown several times at the Institute of Contemporary Art, Boston.
DR. WEST TO TAKE LEAVE FOR NTS WORK

Dr. Arthur L. West, chairman of the Biology Department, has taken a month's leave of absence from the summer quarter to become associate professor assistant for the division of research in botany at the University.

The faculty is looking forward to his return in the fall.

This is a progress report on the faculty research with the natural sciences.

PHI BETA KAPPA CLASS FORMED AT SUFFOLK

A new chapter of Phi Beta Kappa has been formed at Suffolk University following the implementation of new membership rules. The chapter will hold initiation and ceremonies for new members and will be open to all full-time faculty members who meet the requirements as stated in the national fraternity.

The Suffolk chapter of Phi Beta Kappa was chartered on May 1, 1964. As of the 14th of May, 1964, there are 10 members in the chapter, including Dr. John E. Smith, chairman of the Biology Department.
SUNDAY, APRIL 30 - The Gold Key Society will tap two of Suffolk's fair ladies for membership, Judith Dushku, assistant professor of government, and Evelyn Reilly, administrative assistant to the president. The ceremony is scheduled for 2 p.m. in the auditorium.

TUESDAY, MAY 9 - Recognition Day. Outstanding Suffolk students will be honored at 1 p.m. program. A reception for all faculty and recipients will be held in the faculty dining room following the ceremony.

FRIDAY, MAY 12 - Spring Festival. Set for the auditorium at 8 p.m., the program will feature the Primitive Dance Company of the National Center of Afro-American Artists; the Apollo Club Singers; S.U. grad Steve Alexander. A good take. Admission is free and there will be refreshments. Organizing the evening are staffers Dick Jones, Mary Hefron, Doris Pote, and Ruth Winn, Professors William Buckingham, Al Cella, Judith Dushku, and Stanley Dennis. Advisers are Professors Bernadette MacPherson, and Dr. Florence Petherick and Activities Director Jim Peterson while Dr. Ilse Fang is chairwoman. Four students are on the committee, Donna McDavitt, Daniela Roubicek, Thomas Merlino and Peter Teague. Suffolk groups working on the program are TKE, APO, the Afro-American Club, the Political Science Club and the Evening Division Student Association and the Suffolk Spouses, directed by Mrs. Malcolm Barach and Mrs. Thomas Fulham.

SATURDAY, MAY 20 - Suffolk's Alumni Association will hold its annual Alumni Day dinner-dance at the university, Miss Dorothy M. McNamara, secretary for general alumni affairs, announces.

Tickets are $6 per person and that includes dinner and open bar. Remembering what a smash success last year's Alumni Day was at the school, alumni are expected to flock back to this function, which starts with a 6 p.m. registration to be followed by President Fulham's reception and tour at 6:30 p.m. and an 8 p.m. buffet. There will be dancing to the music of George Graham and orchestra until midnight.

Faculty and staffers interested in attending should make reservations with Miss McNamara, Room 12, 56 Temple Street, extensions 216 or 217.

AND A NUMBER TO REMEMBER - 723-4700

Treasurer Francis X. Flannery announces that the university telephone number will be changed from 227-1040 to 723-4700 as of July 1. The change was necessitated by an overload on Suffolk's present trunk capacity. The new number gives Suffolk lines from 723-4700 to 723-4714. Flannery cautions all departments to weigh carefully the amount of stationery, etc., ordered if they contain the old phone number since Suffolk's letterhead, in many cases, must now be altered.
We'll miss Barbara (Blood) Latture, long-time recorder in the College Registrar's Office, who has terminated to await her first child. She was a hard worker, who gave much to Suffolk. A welcome to her successor, Joan Monahan (AB from S.U. '70) and to two other pretty additions to that office, Gayle Salvucci and Chris Perry...Still on the maternity page: Mrs. Cheryl May, instructor in Government, has taken a leave of absence to welcome her baby; Beverly Mitchell (Placement) has completed her duties at Suffolk to also become a mother; and Eileen Doohrer, recorder in the Law School, is also infanticipating...Two romances that bloomed under Suffolk's roof make the engagement page. Donna Vaccari, secretary in the Law School, plans a wedding with S.U. senior Tom Cady, while Donna's roommate, Julie Laughlin (Public Relations), has a diamond from Frank Sablone (S.U. BSBA '70, M.Ed. '71)....Recent vacationers include Anna Meriano, University Library, and Eileen Fairchild, Library assistant, who went to Spain and Mariann Mulcahy, secretary to Dean Simpson, who spent a week in Florida...Congratulations to the following on academic promotions: Law Librarian John Lynch to professor; Doris Pote, Law Registrar, assistant to associate professor, Law Professor Charles Kindregan from associate professor to professor and Law Professors Richard Pizzano and Richard Vacco from assistant professors to associate professors...Alumni Secretary Dottie McNamara, a breakfast addict of the Herald Traveler's Cross Clue puzzle, discovered to her delight that Suffolk University is now a household word. The clue for 1 Across was - University in Boston, and the answer? You guessed it - Suffolk...

CONVENTIONEERS - Glen Eskedal, assistant professor, psychological services, spoke at the annual convention of the American Personnel and Guidance Association in Chicago on "Systematic Interpersonal Training in Groups with Co-Counselors."...Dr. Dion Archon of Government and Economics went to the convention of the American Society for Public Administration in New York City...Mary Hefron, college registrar, and Bill Coughlin, admissions director, attended a convention on admissions and registration in Cleveland...Ellie Kohler of Development spent a week at Silver Springs, Maryland and Lenne Gapstur of Development attended a two-day session in Washington...John White (Education), attended the confab of the American Association of Colleges for Teachers Education in Chicago while John Moran (also Education) was a panelist at the meeting of the American Personnel and Guidance Association in Chicago. Dick Santeusanio (Education) took part in a program of the College Reading Association at Silver Springs, MD...There will be a new faculty member in the Education Department come September. He's Thomas Stefaney of Stoneham, who will be assistant professor of education and new educational placement officer. He comes to us from Mass. Bay Community College...Dr. Edward Clark (English), who started the Afro-American literature course at Suffolk three years ago, lectured recently at the University of South Carolina on his experiences with Afro-American literature. He also attended a meeting of the College Language Association in Atlanta, Ga., which featured Black literature discussion and was hosted by Morris Brown College...

UPCOMING - Mrs. Betty Williams, adviser to women, will address the May 31 meeting of the Boston Chapter of the American Association of University Women at 5 p.m. at Northeastern University. She'll speak on "Psychology of Women." She was a guest at the B.U. Chapter of the Society of Advancement of Management's banquet, which honored graduating seniors, April 20... The May issue will be the final edition of the academic year for the SUN. We hope you've enjoyed this first full year of the newsletter and we welcome any items concerning plans for the summer, etc. for the final issue...
