BOSTON PREPARES FOR MAY 17 PILGRIMAGE

Bynoe Back From West Indies Trip

Bubbling with enthusiasm and unbridled exuberance, Commissioner Victor C. Bynowe arrived by plane Wednesday morning from a three weeks vacation in Barba-

Dios, British West Indies. This was his first trip to his homeland since his parents brought him here as a child, nearly 30 years ago.

The Commissioner, who is an engineer, and also a lawyer, was enthusiastic about the general condition of the island in Barba-dios. He made a short trip to this latter island. Educational, health, highways, economic status and general improvement all came under his observation.

Arriving in Barbados by plane, Mr. Bynowe was welcomed at the airport by Dr. Comer and Dr. Davis, who are prominent Bahamian members in the island's Legisture, as well as several personal friends of that body. From then on, his itinerary was a round of visits, speeches, and entertainment.

ON TO WASHINGTON MAY 17!

Every good Muslim, from Bokhara to Istanbul, from Zanzibar to Karachi, hopes to make the pilgrimage to Mecca before he dies, and since uncomplicated sincerity is the hallmark of Islam among the major religions processes, the Muslims of the world are beginning to get pilgrimages to Canterbury in April to venerate the relics of the saints and to worship God. There is, consequently, a host of adventurers for the wildly allowable call issued by the foremost American Muhammedan leaders, Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, A. Phillip Randolph, and Roy Wilkins, for us to journey to Washington on Friday, May 17, and take part in a second pilgrimage of the Life Memory, beginning at noon. Everybody should plan to go or should contribute toward the expenses of sending others on the pilgrimage if personal attendance is physically impossible.

The leaders of the May 17 pilgrimage, timed to commemorate the third anniversary of the historic U.S. Supreme Court decision outlawing school segregation, are aware that all of us cannot go to Washington and so they are organizing a pilgrimage of prayer andsolidarity from all over the country. Massachusetts is expected to send at least a thousand. Already the executive director, Bayard Rustin, fearsless and unifying and uncompromising opponent, has organized a large gathering in the Greater Boston area, helped, by leading the organizing of a committee headed by Rev. Walter C. Davis, president of the Interdenominational Ministerial Alliance, with Mrs. Ruth B. Foster of the Girls Club, Mrs. Olga Spencer of the Charles Street Church, Elm Hill Ave., and Warren St., Roxbury, of which Rev. Davis is pastor. Let us all rally behind this notably effective and devoted leadership, to the end that the state surpasses its tentative quotas of one thousand.

On to Washington to praise the Lord with cymbals for what He hath wrought for the freedom of full citizenship for Negro Americans on the basis of complete equality with all other Americans! Walk together, brothers and sisters, and don't get weary — the Promised Land is in sight. Go sound the Jubilee! This can indeed be the acceptable year of the Lord.

THE NAACP MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

Although it is true that circumstances often prevent many of us from aiding the NAACP as much as we would desire, there is no earthly reason (and, of course, no earthly excuse) that we Boston Branch NAACP should be feasible so far short of its goal. Dedicated volunteers, under the leadership of John R. Flannery, have been working and to be renumeration to start the headquarters office at 782 Tremont St. Daily Mr. Wilks and his chief secretary, Miss Janice Edwards, have been on hand, in fair weather and foul, to accept membership forms and contributions. The Boston Branch NAACP is of top priority for all freedom-loving Americans, the membership drive, Freedom Ball on May 17 will verify by an occasion for rejoicing over achievement, not just another social event which would in fact be ridiculous if it connote that any of us can be at ease in Zion.

Current Trends

The New York State Commission Against Discrimination (SCAD) indicated last week that a ruling had been handed down by the New York Court of Appeals through an opinion written by Chief Judge Albert Conboy which illegally uses a wildfire device of creating social control — the "bill of attainder" — to further its purpose of maintaining discriminating laws in the state.

Chairman Charles Abrams of SCAD stated, "The Clubs are not within the commission's jurisdiction. Clubs and operators of commercial establishments in New York are the only other states with anti-discrimination laws have used the club device as a cover for unfair labor and trade union practices."

"This is a clear death sentence specially with a swimming pool (Castle Hill) that uses the rights of others in their pool will be effective to bring to the attention of the world a club that will be effective in their case.

The Attorney General urged the need for injunctive relief in these cases, but that in some parts of the Act to register of clubs colorfully irked to register colored voters or removed from the voting rolls through various illegal devices, that the names of 506 out of 506 of colored voters were struck from the voting rolls in 1893, 2005 out of 2,122 in another.

There was evidence that the club was being criminally prosecuted in these cases, but that the local branch of the club would take an indictment, and upon record in accordance of some in these cases, "Recollecting of the conclusion," aid an Assistant Attorney General, "that with the legal tools now available to us, we can take effective action on any broad scale of policy, and be injunctive relief may well be a threat in a case of this kind."

It is evident that the club's policy of discrimination that the anti-aihirm committee has thus far been.

Attorney General Lefkowitz indicated that too early creation of the Bureau of Civil Rights on the basis of the Civil Rights Act of 1957. The Bureau of Civil Rights will not be opened to the public until Monday, May 13, to open a wider day, not to give redress to the enforcement machinery. It is not to make sure that we will protect, redress and remission the resources of the Attorney General's Office.

In the first place, the civil rights Bureau will be the chief enforcer of the law, the civil rights Bureau will be the chief enforcer of the law, the civil rights Bureau will be the chief enforcer of the law.

"Unless its aid is requested by the Commission, the Commission will not proceed in the manner in question, as we have.

Attorney General Lefkowitz also stressed the point that SCAD must uncover the process of discrimination and is unable to use its enforcement machinery. This is because of the absence of formal complaints, the lack of redress for the Bureau of Civil Rights which will file the required complaints that redress the facts, just as factually justified.

The Bureau will also be responsible for enacting a final complaint or the Bureau of Civil Rights which will file the complaint.

Under Mr. Lefkowitz's interpretation of the law the Civil Rights Act of 1957 makes it unlawful for employers to adopt and enforce policies of discrimination in their employment forces.

Ford Hall Forum

Aaron Copland, celebrated composer and leading member of the music community, will present a program of his music at Ford Hall on Thursday, April 28, at 8 p.m., in the Ford Hall on the campus of the University of Massachusetts.

In addition to Mr. Copland's composition, the program will also include works by Maurice Ravel and Paul Hindemith, to illustrate the diversity of his style.

The program will be under the direction of Mr. Copland's alma mater, the University of Massachusetts, and will feature a variety of soloists, including a children's choir, orchestra, and soloists. The program will also feature a performance of Copland's Piano Concerto, which was written for the Boston Symphony Orchestra in 1925.

The 90th Anniversary of the Ford Hall Forum will open on May 17, 1957.
