Byars To Face Logart In Garden

Weidnerweight Baye Byars of Bos- ton returns to ring action Friday, August 23 when he clashes with tough, heavy-hitting Isao Nakamura of Japan scheduled ten rounder at Madison Square Garden. With both fighters reputed speed merchants, the contest promises to be an action, and Byars' determination to make this his best bout guarantees plenty of wide open, fare in store, Logart third, rank in boxing history, for the crown, has been in company with an eye on a championship, quite a spell and is regarded as extremely dangerous at all times. The scrappy Roxbury gladhander has been having his share of top-rankers during the past few months. He staged a slick role segregationist, Rec. and completely confused the Philadelphian in an early summer contest which made a few weeks back. His tussle with ex-champion Tony DeMarco was a losing one, but he proved his durability in the meantime. Against Vito Antell, one of the world's top class, Wall was given the short end of the stick and the end of the accomplishment of disorienting foes, the fans favored him.

Business League To Convene In Hub

Several hundred delegates from all sections of the United States will converge on Boston for a joint annual convention of the National Business League and the National Homeowners League of America, Inc. from Aug. 26-30, it was announced here this week. Herbert L. Jackson, president, Boston Business and Professional Men's Club and Mrs. Estella L. Croxley, president, Greater Bos- ton Homeowners League, chairman of the Convention Arrangements Committee, have pointed to the fact that the convention will be the first joint meeting of these two great organizations for sever- al years. "The added fact that it is being held in Boston where Rusker T. Washington founded the National Business League in 1899 should help to make this one of the most significant meet- ings in organizational history," they said.

The convention will hold its regular sessions at the M. E. Zion Church on Columbus Ave. and Northampton St., Delegates will be quartered at the Sheraton- Fenway, Lenox and Venetian Hotels and in private homes. They will go to govt. of Parku. Purtu. and Mayor Haynes on other occasions and will also relax at the Business and Professional Men's Club in between convention sessions.

During, as expected, from a large portion of the 156 local chapters of both organizations and the gathering will be one of the most impressive Boston has seen in more than a decade.

The National Business League was founded in 1899 by Booker T. Wash- ington to assist Negro businesses to get started as one way of developing racial economic security. The National Homeowners' League of America, Inc. was started in 1937 as an auxiliary to the National Homeowners' League and has developed its own program to promote Negro home ownership and has helped to develop Negro and the family member who controls the purse strings, the housewife.

Alleged Stabber, Of Nurse In Toils

Frederick Holmes, 37, Shawmut ave., Roxbury, was released last night from the Bridgewater State Hospital, where he had been con- fined for 23 days' observation after his arrest as the alleged slayer of Miss Celeste Bennett, 49, of course, May 21. Miss Anthony was stabbed to death seventeen days ago in her apartment. Mr. Holmes must now face a second-degree murder charge.

Wons Award Again

James M. Toller of 137 Apple- ston St., graduate of Boston Tech- nical Institute, Class of 1937, won first State and Regional Fash- ion Show Wons Award, junior division for boys aged 18 to 20.

The award was for building a model of an amphibious Small Young Toller received as an all expense trip to the Galid convention in Detroit to compete with other regional win- ners of the states. This year $110,000, awarded in prizes, State prize $100, Regional prize trip value, $70, and eight national prizes to be awarded national winners. His topic for this year will mark James' second time as a regional and the family member who controls the purse strings, the housewife.

Washington, D. C. -- Senator Republican Leader William F. Knowland of California said last Thursday that he will battle all out against any jury trial amend- ment presented to President Eisenhower's civil rights bill, since it would partake of the same provisions which permit a federal court or "court against anyone violating an individual's basic right to vote.

Republican Leader Lynd- don S. Johnson of Texas asserted that a final vote on the bill could early next week.

NEWTON, MASS.

MIRTYE BAPTIST CHURCH
Saturday, July 14, Rev. and Mrs. Charles Moore, and Miss B. H. Hopkins attended the lectures and pictures shown at Centenary Methodist Church, Auburndale. The program was given by Rev. and Mrs. Cumings, daughter and son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Johnson. This young couple have worked in the Methodist Mission in Hawaii for five years. Their stay was beautiful and inspiring. The Women’s Society of the church sponsored the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Leon spent their vacation at Ogunquit, Maine. Mrs. Leon spent a pre-vacation weekend in Baltimore, and attended Rev. William L. Clayton’s Church while there.

—The many people in our community who are employed at Bay-throw Mfg. Co. returned to work July 16 from vacation. Mr. & Mrs. Wallace Lawman and daughter Melva spent their vacation in Danville, Virginia, and felt much more at the progress and improvement being made in that city.

—Orpheus Spikes of Detroit visited his mother, Mrs. Winthrop Spikes of River St., West Newton.

—NE A.A.A.U. games. Jackson’s teammate Bobby Costil also emerged a winner in the meet in his specialty, the hurdles.

GEID PROSPECTS

Interest in local collegiate football should be on the climb with the presence of Cambridge’s Larry Plante at Boston College and Roxbury’s Freddie Becton at Northwestern. During the 1956 campaign the hard charging Plenty shared fullback duties with Bernie Tseleisivu and proved his ability to handle the chore with his power and break-away abilities. Becton, a product of English Hl who transferred back to the Hub after a season at In- diana, has impressed the Huskies’ coaching staff with his speed and ability.

CANAL FISHING

The salt water fishing enthusiasts among Boston’s swimmers and Stream Club members had another good weekend last week in their trip to the east end of Cape Cod Canal. The haul of flounder and fluerd was plentiful and they report that night and early morning fishing should bring good results yet. Among those enjoying the overnight trip were W. D. Boal, George Dick- son, Frank towns, Jerome Bonney, and Nick Eastman.
