How spiritual understanding of God, divine Mind, gives man dominion over fear, sorrow, and bondage of every kind is brought out in the Christian Science services Sunday.

"Recent and Modern Neoclassicism, alias Messerini and Hyyppä, Derniers" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon.

Selections to be read from the Bible include the following from 1 Corinthians 11: Thine, O Lord, is the greatness, the power, and the glory, and the majesty; for all that is in heaven and in the earth; thine is the kingdom, O Lord, and thou art exalted as head above all.

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be read the following (10:03): "The truths of immortal Mind sustain man, and they annihilate the forces both of nature and of man, whose flimsy and giddy pretensions, like efflorescences on their own roots, and fall into dust."

THE OTHER DAY

... Son. John O. Palmer, a member of the Joint Congressional African Energy Com- mittee, addressed a meeting of one of Rhode Island's oldest minority organizations, the United Christians, in the East Greenwich Assembly. In answer to a question from the floor, he said that mob ulcations were school integration in Little Rock, Ark, has caused the United States, in iows more prestige in the eyes of the free world than the bombing by the Russians of Berlin. The President, speaking before a Jewish students' club in New York, said the same thing, when he declared that teaching and growing lea and education were going vast problem... We can take care of Spain... if we will do this other job, he said.

The OTHER DAY, we read in "Africa Special Reports" several items of the political changes that have taken place in various sections of Africa. In Uganda a new party has been formed, the United Congress Party. This group, under young and intelligent leaders, recently sent a letter to the American Consul in Kampala, Uganda, in which the government was taken of the conditions in the United States. In part the letter says:

"The question of eradicating discrimi nation based upon race, religion or national origin is one in which the people of Africa and democratically minded peoples all over the world are keenly interested. The United Congress Party notes with appreciation, (although by no means complete satisfaction) the progress that has been made in securing equality of treatment and opportunity in your country's armed forces, and in other spheres under Federal authority..."

"We hope and pray that discrimination based on race and color will be wiped out from schools, hospitals, public places of any kind, public vehicles, etc., and from the hearts of all men, and we call upon the United States to give us our rights of a day in exterminating this evil from the world..."

"On the other hand the U.S.P. has the responsibility of a positive and constructive which the President is now taking as Head of the Republic of the Supreme Court in certain states. Our concept of the United States, air, is one of a country founded on freedom and on the principle of equality before the law, and should enjoy the same opportunities, economic advancement and for de- mocracy as all other nations, and we are not & These words have been printed at Little Rock High School, Arkansas, and in other schools..."

THE OTHER DAY, the United Electrical, Radio and Mach- inery Workers of America (N. D.) wrote to the Westinghouse Electric Corporation urging that the national conferences be held between the Union and that company be suspended pending the recommendation of a committee to include a contract clause obligating both the union and the employer to refrain from discrimination in com- pany plants, with the accounting of cream, color, creed, marital status or na- tional origin. The U.S.P. (U.S. Dependent union, has for many years represented Westinghouse employees in a number of company's important plants. According to a press release, in national negotiations recently the Union has been pressing Westinghouse for "the inclusion of a no-discrimination clause upon which the company has refused to do...

THE CHRONICLE

Saturday, November 30, 1957

THE PRESIDENT’S ILLNESS

The most alarming feature of the President’s recent illness has been the nationwide concern with his health. Mr. Eisenhower, after being hospitalized for a month, has now rejoined the entire nation that Mr. Eisenhower recovered so speedily that he could go to church on Thanksgiving Day, and we thank God that the President is able to resume his work.

What this third relatively serious illness indicated was the need of lessening at least, some of the ceremonial duties of the President. Mr. Eisenhower caught a chill when he went to meet the King of Morocco at the airport. To cast no aspersions on that North African monarch, we nevertheless cannot see any valid reason why the President’s presence was imperative or even necessary and why the chief of protocol in the Department of State, with two or three robust and rugged military aides, would not have sufficed. To be sure, it is indeed true that conventional diplomatic behavior requires the President to greet in person other chiefs of state when they come to our country, but the wellbeing of the President ought to take precedence over adherence to diplomatic etiquette.

While President Richard M. Nixon ought to share some of the President’s ceremonial burdens wherever it is constitutionally permissible and feasible for him to do so.

THE KENNEDYS AND EDUCATION

Ambassador Joseph P. Kennedy’s $50,000 gift to the scholarship fund of Boston Latin School Alumni Association will double the contributions of the Kennedys to American education. The family has given without stint, in theory and in practice. It is to be hoped that the famous Ambassador’s wise counsel against gearing our whole educational system to the production of scientists will be heeded, and that teaching of the classical languages of Greece and Rome will not be abandoned. Mr. Kennedy says: “If the country depends entirely on scientists, it will be a very dull future for everybody else.”

Last May the Ambassador’s son, U. S. Senator John F. Kennedy, addressing a United Negro College Fund meeting at the Mass. Institute of Technology, disclosed the fact which the launching of the Soviet satellite put to the test: that the black and white American Union was producing more persons trained in science than our country was. Senator Kennedy advocated that more Negro college students seek training in higher mathematics, physics, chemistry, and technology, and he donated the money received for the Pulitzer Prize to the United Negro College Fund. However, although Senator Kennedy is an Overseer of Harvard College, he is not a professional educator, and so teachers and parents will have to cooperate in helping to realize the objective which he outlined. His emphasis may seem to be at variance with the Ambassador’s but it is not, for they are both aiming essentially at the same point, that our country must develop and expand higher education for its citizens to the utmost.

Lectures Slated

(Dangers of Every Day Living) was the topic of a lecture and discussion by Dr. Louis C. Billotte of Massachusetts Institute of Technology at the meeting of the Boston Natural History Society.

The monthly meeting was held on Sunday, November 24, at 3:30 p.m., in the Science Hall, 70 Charles Street, Boston.

Billotte’s talk centered on harmful foods, chlorinated and fluoridated water and atomic radiation poisoning.

Other outstanding speakers for the winter season include: Mrs. Charles Allen of Winter Brook Gardens, Medfield, who will speak on December 22nd. Mrs. Allen, an active Herbalist, will speak on “Growing Herbs for Year Round Use.”

Dr. D. C. Chen, Professor of Chemistry at Allegheny College, will speak on January 18th in the Science Hall, 500 Massachusetts Avenue, Lancaster, Mass. will speak on January 25th. His subject will be “The Social Significance of the Science’s Search for the Good Life.”

These meetings and lectures are open to all. Inquirers are requested to register by telephone. For further details contact the Secretary, Mr. Pauline Griffin, P. O. Box 1438, Cambridge 71, Massachusetts (telephone 1 K 7-8804).

Equal Opportunity Day Observed in R.I.

The second annual statewide observance of Equal Opportunity Day took place on Tuesday, November 19, the 90th Anniversary of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address.

The day, sponsored by the Urban League of Rhode Island, an inter-neighborhood service agency, was instigated by the late Harvey S. Brown, former Urban League leaders believed "it would be fitting, one day each year, to focus attention on positive efforts to assure fair and equal treatment to all citizens, regardless of race, color, religion, or national origin."

This special day was observed on the first time last year by President Eisenhower, who issued a message on the observance that day. In addition, the governors of 66 states and the territories were asked to issue proclamations.

In Rhode Island, Governor Dennis J. Roberts, in the presence of the Urban League, issued the following proclamation on Equal Opportunity Day:

"The Founding Fathers of this nation held that "all men are created equal," that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness."

"Abraham Lincoln in his First Annual Message to the Congress of the United States, defined the high purposes of our mission, and declared: 'the struggle for maintaining in the world that form and substance of government which underlies our Institution, seems to be altogether too great an undertaking for an individual to undertake; to clear the path of all obstacles, and to lead the way to all an unreserved and fair chance in the exercise of his rights.'"

"On November 19, 1957, on the 90th Anniversary of Abraham Lincoln's memorable Gettysburg Address, the National Urban League will focus attention throughout these United States, on positive efforts to assure equal treatment to all citizens, regardless of race, color, religion, or national origin."

"It is the fitting to set aside a day each year to commemorate the greatness of our country rests upon the principle of equal opportunity for all. And NOW, THEREFORE, I, DENNIS J. ROBERTS, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF RHODE ISLAND AND PROVIDENCE PLANTATIONS, DO HEREBY PROCLAIM:

FURThER, NOVEMBER 19, 1957, AS EQUAL OPPORTUNITY DAY, "uring every citizen of the State to work toward the goal of economic opportunity through the efforts of the Urban League, the organizations of business and labor, the churches, and every unit of our society, at home and abroad."

"IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF," I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the State to be affixed this 24th day of October, in the year of our Lord 1957.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the State to be affixed.

SUBLIGENDA:

DENNIS J. ROBERTS,
Governor
Urban League"
