TUITION GOES UP IN COLLEGE, LAW SCHOOL FOR '74-'75 YEAR

Tuition increases of $200 in the day colleges and $250 in the day law school for the 1974-75 academic years were voted at the November meeting of the board of trustees.

The increases mark the first tuition hike in three years and were voted because of "increased operating expenses," Vice President-Treasurer Francis X. Flannery said. Full-time college day tuition will be $1600 beginning in September, while the day law school will go to $1750.

Evening law school tuition will increase $200 to $1325 while the rate in the evening college will climb from $40 to $45 per semester hour.

Despite the increase, Suffolk will still offer one of the three lowest tuitions of private colleges in Massachusetts.

Vice President Flannery, in a study of 11 colleges and universities, noted that other schools tuition has skyrocketed in a 10-year period compared to Suffolk increases. Bentley, for example, increased some 181 per cent, Boston College, 112 per cent, Holy Cross, 127.5 per cent, Northeastern, 122 per cent, and Stonehill, 113 per cent. Suffolk's per cent of increase was 75 per cent. Only Emerson (74 per cent) has a smaller increase, but Emerson tuition, as of 1973-74 is $2730 compared to Suffolk's $1400.

As for law schools, he said B.C.'s went up 113 per cent, Boston University 107.5, Harvard 92 per cent, New England Law School 157.6, and Western New England 181 per cent. Suffolk Law School's increase was 66.7 per cent.

"I find it significant that in an era of considerable rising costs, the upcoming June graduating class of the law school will have gone through their law school careers without an increase in tuition," Flannery noted.

#
ATTY. PAUL T. SMITH NAMED SUFFOLK TRUSTEE

Nationally renown trial lawyer Paul T. Smith of Boston has been named a member of the board of trustees of Suffolk University, Judge John E. Fenton, chairman of the board, announces.

Smith, whose famous cases include defense of the Brinks bandits, was elected to fill the term of retiring trustee Rexford A. Bristol which expires in June, 1976. Smith was elected at the November meeting of the board of trustees.

A Suffolk alumnus, he received an LLB in 1937 and an LLM in 1938. In 1960, the university conferred on Smith the honorary degree of doctor of jurisprudence. He is a past president of the Suffolk Law School Alumni Association and trustee of the Suffolk University Law School Scholarship Fund.

Atty. Smith has lectured at Suffolk, Boston University Law School and Boston College Law School. He is a past president of the National Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers, a chairman of the board of regents of the National College of Criminal Defense Lawyers and Public Defenders, and a member of the Judicial Council of Massachusetts.

#

BOARD APPROVES TWO SUMMER SESSIONS

Two separate six-week summer sessions will be offered at Suffolk this year following approval of such a proposal at the November board of trustees meeting.

The first session will begin on May 28 and carry to July 3 while the latter session will run from July 8 to Aug. 15. According to Dean Joseph H. Strain, director of the evening division and summer sessions, class time will be increased from 70 minutes to 95 minutes to adjust the shorter programs. The four-day school week will continue.

Dean Strain said the customary eight-week evening program will be offered again, running from May 28 to July 19.

The new summer plan will prove advantageous in several ways, Dean Strain said. "It will enable students to complete four courses during the summer period; it will also allow completion of a full-year course; it will also permit those with military reserve obligations to fulfill them during the summer and still attend classes; and it will enable teachers still in school during the previous summer program to take part in the second summer session."
SUFFOLK-EMERSON WILL SPONSOR DEBATE COMPETITION

Suffolk University's Walter M. Burse Debating Society and Emerson College's Forensic Society will co-sponsor the third annual Invitational High School Debate Tournament at Suffolk on Dec. 14 and 15.

Some 42 two-man teams from 23 New England high schools will participate in this varsity tournament according to Dr. Allan J. Kennedy, assistant professor of communication studies at Emerson, and tournament director. The topic will be: Resolved: That Federal Government Should Guarantee a Minimum Annual Income for Each Family Unit.

There will be six preliminary rounds with speeches to run eight minutes, two minutes cross-examination and four minute rebuttals. A banquet will be held at the university on the final day of the tournament.

ALUMNI HONORS THREE MORE AT FELLOWS AWARDS DINNER

Suffolk's General Alumni Association now has six Fellows following its second annual Fellows Awards at the Homecoming Dinner at the university on Nov. 10.

Honored at the dinner were Congressman John J. Moakley, Suffolk Law, 1956, Donald Woodrow, B.S. in J., 1951 and M.S. in B.A. 1960 and Ms. Valerie Russell of New York, A.B., 1967, special assistant for women's affairs to the president of the United Church of Christ.

The three join previous recipients, Dr. Paul G. Buchanan, Prof. George A. Strait, and Probate Judge Edward T. Martin, who were honored as outstanding alumni a year ago.

Also honored at the dinner was Atty. Abner R. Sisson, Suffolk Law '28, who was presented the Seymour Schneider prize in criminal justice, a special law school award.

The dinner attracted approximately 300 alumni and guests who heard Congressman Gerry Studds address college graduates and Dean David J. Sargent speak to law school graduates.

IT'S CHILDREN'S DELIGHT TIME AGAIN!

Pert Patricia Haskins, S.U. '71, who turns on both the youngsters and oldsters each year with her children's productions at Suffolk, has done it again. Miss Haskins latest effort, "Do-da, Do-da" was presented Saturday, Nov. 24 and Nov. 25 at the S.U. Auditorium.

If you missed it, you can catch it this Saturday, Dec. 1 at 11 a.m. or Sunday, Dec. 2 at 3 p.m. The performances are free and the kids should love this one, an adventure of Jeremy, a turtle and his search for freedom. Music is by Chris Kennedy and Mary Ellen Mulrooney with set and light design by Steve Alexander.
Vice President-Treasurer Francis X. Flannery will issue a memorandum shortly on Suffolk's role during the energy crisis. He will spell out in detail how Suffolk's family should help conserve during this critical period... The Department of Modern Languages and Modern Languages Club has an eye-catcher coming up. They'll sponsor a week-long celebration of Haitian culture Dec. 10-13. A lobby display of paintings by young Haitian artists in America, a sampling of Haitian cuisine and a Haitian festival of song and dance, climaxied by a live presentation of voodoo ritual will be among the features... The next faculty meeting (Dec.11) will include a slide presentation by Greg Gillis of Biology on S.U.'s Cobscook Bay dedication and a discussion by Dr. Arthur West on Suffolk's goals for the Cobscook Bay Lab. The SUN extends its sympathies to Biology Department Chairman Beatrice Snow on the death of her father, Charles Snow. One of Mr. Snow's happiest days was attending a party for Dr. Snow at Suffolk when she became S.U.'s first woman alumnus to earn a Ph.D. ... Patricia I. Brown, assistant law librarian, has been included in the new edition of The World's Who's Who of Women. This is another honor for Pat, who last March won recognition in the International Dictionary of Biography and in April was appointed to the advisory board of directors on Children's Haven, Inc., devoted to helping inner children in Boston... Bursar Paul Ryan and wife, Barbara, spent a week's vacation in London and caught glimpses of Princess Ann's wedding hubbub... Evening School Dean Joe Strain is chairman of the New England Regional Program Committee of the Association of University Evening Colleges planning its Spring meeting in Boston. Strain also represented Suffolk at the annual meeting of the National Association of Summer Sessions in Boston... Had your flu shot, yet? Nurse Mary Brady says a total of 310 shots have been administered to date and vaccine is still available at $1 in Room 11 of the Archer Building...

TOURING SUFFOLK - Twenty-two students from Christopher Columbus High School visited Suffolk's science facilities on Nov. 7. They were greeted by President Fulham, Dr. Maria Bonaventura, chairman of Chemistry, Dr. Walter Johnson of Physics, and Dr. Snow of Biology. The Chemistry Department donated an analytical balance to the high school. Dr. Bonaventura and Murray Golub, adjunct prof. of Chemistry at S.U. and clinical chemist at Beth Israel Hospital, will address a meeting of the N.E. Association of Chemistry Teachers at Simmons College Dec. 8. The subject will be "Career-oriented Programs in Clinical Chemistry." President Thomas A. Fulham has been named to the advisory board of the Crotched Mountain Rehabilitation Center... Dr. Leo Lieberman, whose career booklet for college students, What Can I Be? has proved a smash with counselors and students, will host an all day meeting of students in an Interpersonal Steak-Out on Dec. 2 along with Mrs. Lieberman... Mimic David Frye showed he was a brilliant performer on stage here on Nov. 15, but nearly shut off an overflow crowd of closed circuit televiewers until Judge John E. Fenton, board chairman, stepped in and helped change Frye's mind... Judge Fenton, by the way, was recently cited by the Lawrence Bar Association for service to the legal fraternity. He's been a member of the association for 47 years... The university has two new employees, Margaret Austin of Boston, a faculty secretary in the Law School, and Anthony Buffum of Rockland, a custodian in the service department...

(continued on page five)
AN ATHLETIC FAMILY - Dr. Phil Mulvey of Biology and his wife, Mary Lou, won the tennis doubles in their division at the Needham Pool and Racquet Club this fall... Meanwhile, the Mulveys' three sons are following in Dad's soccer tradition. Philip III, a 10th grader, played on Needham High's soccer team which reached the Eastern Mass quarterfinals. Brian, a fifth grader, and Kevin, a fourth grader, were members of a team coached by their father in the Needham Junior Soccer program... Another S.U. faculty member, Prof. John Burton, has a son, John, who played for the Barnstable High soccer team. Prof. Burton recently gave his daughter, Susan Burton, in marriage to James Brown of Falmouth. The marriage took place in Our Lady of Assumption Church in Osterville... Associate Law Dean John E. Fenton Jr. has been named to the President's advisory committee at Laboure Junior College, a director of Arltru Bank Corp. in Essex County and a special consultant to the National College of Criminal Defense Lawyers and Public Defenders at Bates College of Law, Houston, Tex... Ruth Winn of the College Library Staff is currently exhibiting three of her oil paintings at the Brookline Savings Bank, Beacon street, Brookline... The second in a six-part series on correctional reform, sponsored by the Sociology Department, will introduce the State's new young Corrections Commissioner Frank Hall to Suffolk students. Program coordinator Gary P. Castanino is hoping there will be a big crowd on hand for Hall's Dec. 6 appearance at 7 p.m. Dr. Arthur West of Biology made the Big Screw contest $100 richer with an unsuccessful last gasp effort to win top honors. His splurge raised the charity jackpot to more than $600... The closed circuit television security system is in full operation in the lobby of the Donahue Building. There are eight monitoring locations, and Building Supt. Ivan Banks stressed that these units are for the protection of personnel and property and will be manned at all times by security men...

UNITED WAY REMINDER - This year's United Way at Suffolk is heading towards the goal line. If you haven't contributed, please submit your pledges to Karen Grant in the Public Relations Office, first floor, 56 Temple St... Dr. William Sahakian of Philosophy is writing a 1000-word article on "Personalistic Psychology" for the International Encyclopedia of Psychiatry, Psychoanalysis, and Psychology, definitive multivolume encyclopedia in the field. He has also authored a 10,000-word article on the "History of Psychology," for the Encyclopedia Britannica to appear this year... A get-back-on-your feet quickly note to Mary Fraser, secretary to the Dean of Students. Mary underwent foot surgery recently... Peripatetic Ed Saunders of Admissions is back on the recruitment trail after a week's stay at Carney Hospital... Dr. Donald Unger, chairman of the Education Department, represented Suffolk at the inauguration of Dr. Francis J. Roberts as new president of the Bank Street College of Education in New York City... Prof. Robert Jennings of Education was Suffolk's representative at the annual meeting of the New England Philosophy of Education Society at the University of Bridgeport. Jennings is presently serving as secretary-treasurer of the society... Prof. Judy Dushku of Government spoke on "American Foreign Policy Issues" to the Medford Republican City Committee on Nov. 15... Suffolk's intramural flag football program evoked much interest again this year with the big showdown pitting the Patriots vs. Temple Street on Boston Common and the Temple Streeters coming out on top 20-6... Amidst a heightening energy crisis, we still have pollution problems as this card from Sullivan Bros. printers reminds us: I shot an arrow into the air, and it stuck... See you next month...