EMMANUEL BAPTIST CHURCH Sunday, December 27, the pas-ter preached on "The Money Chest of the Ancient Temple". A good congregation was present.
Flowers on the pulpit were purchased by Mrs. F. Mary Scobey.
The Nursery was open as usual.
Please close this issue and conducted by Mrs. Irene Collins.
This week a trained committee called in the homes of the 12 persons asked to participate in the Wednesday budget service. Over $18.00.

The Rev. Jack Henderson, minister of historic Arlington St.
District Church, Boston, said in his sermon Sunday, December 27, that the old-year "Baptist, Harland Uphaus to New Hampshire "should at least be a "rehearsal."" By spending Christmas in jail as a man of conscience, Dr.
Uphaus proved himself to be one of the front men in our presumptively free society," said the minister.

"What we have here is a kindly old man, a gentle visionary with what may well be added notions of peace, who has been chipped behind bars, not because he refuses to expose people who trusted him to the grilling of an ambitious Attorney General of New Hampshire," Mr. Mendel-son continued.

"This is a tragedy for New Hampshire which once prided itself as a secure place for the right of conscience to dissent, but it is also a wound in our national morality which can be healed only by an act of charity to restore our own and the world's youth in the heritgages and practices of a free society."
