Shaw House Marks Founders’ Day

A capacity dinner audience enjoyed the triple-starred Founders’ Day program of the Robert Gould Shaw House in its Mark Baldwin Hall recently.

Distinguished religious leaders present were The Rev. Howard P. Kellett, council president, who gave the welcome address and officiated as master of ceremonies; Rev. George Lyman Fisher, founder; Rev. William V. Gray of the Harvard Divinity School; the Rev. Michael K. Harris, acting head of Northfield Home Center and assistant to Rev. Wm. William Hester of the 125th Regiment and a member of the Unitarian Church, Providence, R.I., who presided.

Other head table guests included the following: Mary Mathews, who has her husband's journeyman from Assaria and who has been a member of a neighborhood, who said: “There is a real better feeling.

Yvonne Cunneen, Mayrose J. Dunblane, whose daughter, Mildred H. Dunblane, accompanied her. James W. Hendricks, Francis G. Stone, council vice president and descendant of the famous Civil War hero, C.F. Robert Gould Shaw; Mrs. Mary Hulmes, executive secretary of the Coop- er Committee Center; Mrs. Allen Griffin, headwork of the Rox- bury Neighborhood House, Lt. Col. and Mrs. Thomas Wright, the latter a council member; Mr. and Mrs. Morris B. Taylor, Mrs. W. Lenny Ferguson, mother of Mr. Taylor; 2nd Rev. Lincoln C. Pope, Jr. (Dr.); Albert T. Carpen-tier, assistant treasurer of Shaw House, and George Ruly Blake, board member of Shaw Neighborhood House. An additional table of ten came from that center also.

The Shaw House Chorus under the direction of Dudley Colton with Inez Johnson, soloist, launched the music.

Dr. Pope informed the group that the measure he had filed zoning restrictions laws was made into a law. Short Negroes had been behind the last laws that they sought to buy in setting communities. The new measure passed into law by Gov. Foster Forbes makes a illegal for any person engaged in the business of granting mortgage loans to discriminate against any person in the granting of any mortgage loan, because of the race, color, religious creed, national origin or ancestry.

Merris R. Taylor, the head of the economic council of the Unitarian Church, took part in the program.

Merriam S. Hendrickson, drama and industrial officer, spoke for the 21st year at the Shaw House. Mr. Hendrickson proclaimed that “the Shaw House has been better to the nation.”
