JUDGE ROWE IS NAMED BOARD CHAIRMAN

TWO NEW TRUSTEES VOTED MEMBERSHIP

Judge C. Edward Rowe of Athol, a Suffolk trustee since 1962, has been elected chairman of the board of trustees to succeed the late Judge John E. Fenton.

President Fulham also announced that the board has elected two new trustees to fill the vacancies created by the deaths of Judge Fenton and George H. Spillane in August. They are John S. Howe, president of The Provident Institution for Savings, and Mrs. Dorothy A. Antonelli, a commissioner for the State Industrial Accident Board and 1959 graduate of Suffolk Law School.

Howe and Antonelli were elected to five-year terms.

Judge Rowe was justice of the District Court of Eastern Franklin (Orange, Mass.) from 1936 until last May when he retired at the mandatory retirement age of 70. He frequently sat in Superior Court during his long tenure on the bench. He received his bachelor of laws degree from Suffolk Law School in 1926. The university twice conferred honorary degrees upon him, a doctor of jurisprudence in 1956 and a doctor of juridical science in 1969. He also holds an honorary doctor of laws degree from St. Anselm's College.

Judge Rowe has three sons and a daughter, all of whom are lawyers. He is chairman of the board of The First National Bank of Athol and a director of The Athol-Clinton Cooperative Bank. As a Suffolk board member, he has served on the Law School Committee, the Nominating Committee and the Honorary Degree Committee.

Howe, who lives on Beacon Hill, served as treasurer and vice president of the Provident before becoming president in 1958. He is a director and past president of the National Association of Mutual Savings Bank, and past president of the Greater Boston Chamber of Commerce, past president and campaign chairman of the United Way of Massachusetts Bay, a corporator and director of Robert B. Brigham Hospital, and a director of the Massachusetts Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Children. He is a trustee of the Bank Officers Association and the Massachusetts Eye & Ear Infirmary. He is a graduate of Milton Academy, Harvard College (A.B. 1936) and Graduate School of Banking at Rutgers.

(Continued on Page Two)
Antonelli is a graduate of Mary Cliff Academy and Simmons College, Class of 1949. Following graduation from Suffolk Law, she was admitted to the Massachusetts Bar in February, 1960. She has a law office in Somerville and is a member of the executive board of the Massachusetts Association of Women Lawyers and is currently second vice president. She is also a member of the committee of family law for the Massachusetts Bar Association and the Committee of Trial Practice. A former hostess for United Airlines, she is also a member of Clipped Wings.

Mrs. Antonelli makes her home in Belmont.

LAW SCHOOL ENROLLMENT SET AT 2070; INCLUDES 362 WOMEN

Total enrollment in the law school is 2070 according to final figures in the office of Registrar Doris R. Pote. The figure, comprising day and evening divisions, includes 362 women, an increase of 93 over a year ago.

A total of 948 students are enrolled in the day division and 1122 evenings. There are 1708 men now studying law. The total included 50 minority students.

The 2070 enrollment represents a drop of 16 from 1973. By design, enrollment is being cut back gradually because of space and facility limitation.

Meanwhile, Admissions Director John Deliso reports that the law school has received approximately 5000 inquiries for information or applications regarding admission to the law school for 1975-76.

'74-'75 UNITED WAY CAMPAIGN UNDERWAY WITH 100% GOAL

Suffolk's 1974-75 United Way Campaign was launched last Tuesday with a meeting of team leaders at which President Fulham urged Suffolk's family to better last year's contributions.

"A year ago we had a participation of 44 per cent and we really should do much better than that," Fulham noted. "It is my sincere hope that every member of the administration, faculty and staff will participate and contribute as generously as possible so Suffolk may attain its goal of 100 per cent participation."

The theme of this year's general UW drive is "Our future is in your hands" with a goal of $16,000,000 being set.

There is no payroll deduction plan at Suffolk, but the United Way Campaign will gladly bill you in any manner you wish. Pledge cards should be submitted to Karen Grant in the Public Relations Office, Room 11, 56 Temple St.
ALUMNI HOMECOMING WILL BE HELD NOV. 23

"Come Home to Suffolk."

That's the theme for this year's Homecoming dinner-dance by the General Alumni Association which will be held at the university Saturday, Nov. 23 at 7 p.m. For those of you here at Suffolk, it won't be a return, of course, but it will enable faculty to meet some of their students of the past and swap stories and memories.

The evening will begin with a reception hosted by President Fulham. Dinner will be served at 8 p.m. followed by a speaking program at 9 o'clock and dancing until midnight.

There will be two principal speakers. Judge Paul G. Garrity of the Boston Housing Court will address law school alumni while Robert W. Mitchell, regional administrator of the Federal Energy Administration, will speak to college graduates. Highlight of the program will be the annual Fellowship Awards which honor three outstanding Suffolk graduates.

So, for an evening of fun and memories, you can get your tickets for $7.50 per person by calling the Alumni Office at Ext. 216. And that $7.50 includes dinner and an open bar. John D. McCarthy, president of the association, and Mary Ann Gilleece, vice president, are co-chairpersons for the dinner.

#

LAW REVIEW HONORS PROF. CELLA AT ANNUAL BANQUET

The Suffolk University Law Review presented its outstanding service award to Prof. Alexander J. Cella last Monday night at its sixth annual banquet held at the 57 Restaurant.

Cella was voted the award by the Board of Editors for Volume VIII of the Review in recognition of invaluable contributions made to the Law Review during the past academic year. Cella is the second recipient of the award. Judge John E. Fenton Jr., associate judge of the Massachusetts Land Court, was the first recipient a year ago.

The recipients received a wall plaque. Another larger plaque, with name engraved, is kept on display in the law library.

John G. Martin, editor-in-chief of the Law Review, Volume IX, made the presentation. Dean David J. Sargent welcomed the new staff to Law Review at the dinner. Judge Fenton Jr. was the principal speaker. Other guests included President Fulham, Suffolk trustee Vincent Fulmer, Associate Deans Malcolm Donahue and Clifford Elias, law school faculty and past Law Review editors.

#
BIOLOGY - The Robert S. Friedman Laboratory at Cobscook Bay, Me. is officially one year old and a 40-person contingent marked the occasion during a visit to the station the weekend of October 11. Faculty and staffers making the 320 mile jaunt included Juan Mendez-Herrera, Dr. Beatrice L. Snow, James Fiore, Dr. Arthur West and Dick Jones. The group also included many students. A fringe benefit to the trip was the peak foliage along the way. Dr. West and other rugged members of the group endured 20 degree temperatures during the three nights of camping. The station will re-open for student use in April... Dr. Hayes C. Lamont and his family spent the early part of the summer at the Department of Agronomy in the New York State College of Agriculture and Life Sciences at Cornell. There, he did two months of research on formation of cancer-inducing compounds in soil. Amidst ideal scenic surroundings and un-polluted air, Lamont found handling carcinogens "frightening but educational..."

ENGLISH - Dr. Fred Wilkins and members of his English honors seminar on Eugene O'Neill made a pilgrimage to the grave of the playwright and his third wife, Carlotta Monterey, at Forest Hills Cemetery Oct. 9 with a side trip to the nearby grave of poet e.e. cummings... Dr. David Stratman attended the convention of the New England College English Association at Cape Cod Community College, Oct. 4 and 5... Dr. Stuart Millner and Prof. Ruth Lottridge were the department representatives at the Robert Frost Symposium at Merrimack College Oct. 19... Prof. Rudy Kikel read his poems on FM Station WBUR... Dr. Dennis Baron's critical response to fiction writer Jean Stafford's attack on TV for "murdering" the English language was published in the Sept. 29 New York Times... Samuel Allen, black poet, discussed his poetry in the President's Conference Room on Oct. 10. Allen appeared under the auspices of the Museum of Afro-American History and Suffolk, developing a collection of Afro-American literature. The school is represented by Prof. Edward Clark, Librarian Richard Sullivan and Lenne Gapstur of Development in the enterprise... And if you're walking up Park Street mornings about 8:30 a.m. you're likely to catch Dr. Stanley Vogel going the other way for a change. He is enroute to biblical and Shakespearean sessions at Harvard where according to Dr. Fred Wilkins, the experiences of Vogel have proved "revivifying and exhilarating..."

HISTORY - Professors John C. Cavanagh and Edward G. Hartmann attended the Fall convention of the New England Historical Association at Clark University. Interesting sessions included those on the origins of the American Revolution and the influence of ideas about race on historical change and development...

LAW SCHOOL - Prof. Lisle Baker delivered an address on "Environmental Law: New Concepts in Land Use and Management" Oct. 4 for the National Association of Concerned Business Students at the University of Chicago Center for Continuing Education... Prof. Charles Kindregan has been named to a joint committee on continuing legal education of the Mass. Bar Association and the Boston Bar Association... Prof. Richard G. Pizzano has been elected local chairman of the 1974-75 Heart Fund Drive and also elected to the Board of Trustees of the Robert F. Kennedy Action Corps...
-POTPOURRI-

Suffolk colleagues of Prof. John J. Mahoney of Business tendered him a retirement party at the 99 Portland Restaurant on Oct. 18. Prof. Mahoney was a member of the faculty for 27 years. He was presented a three dimensional glass on glass silver plaque. President Fulham, Vice President Flannery and Deans McDowell and Ronayne were among those attending. The gathering included friends from the Law School, College of Liberal Arts, and administrative staff... Gail Brickley, who lost her firefighter husband, Bob, in a tragic Somerville fire, expresses her deep appreciation to the many members of faculty and staff for the outpouring of sympathy and comfort shown to her during her sorrowing ordeal... Ed Saunders of Admissions is at Carney Hospital for back surgery and we're sure the get well cards are starting to pile up... Roger Volk of Business and wife, June, welcomed a son, Jeffrey Andrew on Oct. 6. Little Jeff weighed in at 7 pounds 11 ounces and Dad was quick to note the number. "With 7 and 11 he's gotta be lucky," Roger enthused... Susan Fischer of Admissions has been named editor of the Suffolk Evening Shadow, published for the night students... Mrs. Ronnie Lacroute of Modern Languages and her husband, Bernard, spent three weeks in France. The highlight was having their daughter, Natalie, baptized at the same church where the baby's father was christened. Ronnie reports that a week in Versailles and shopping and cooking-in proved that life in the good old U.S.A. is still much easier than in France with its 18 per cent inflation... Modern Languages is sponsoring Austria Week Nov. 11-15. Two films commemorating the death of Franz Kafka 50 years ago will be shown during Student Activities hour: Nov. 12- Murder of a Brother and Nov. 14- In Search of K...

HAROLD STONE, chairman of Accounting, informs us that two Suffolk students, Everett G. Carr of West Peabody, and John L. Champion of Swampscott received honorable mentions at the Oct. 30 dinner of the Massachusetts Society of CPA's for entries in the Fourth Awards Program entitled "Auditing the Computer." It was open to accounting students from throughout the state... Stone also reports that Charles P. Reed, an evening Accounting student at S.U., passed all four parts of the CPA exam, something only 2 per cent of those taking the exam accomplish. And Reed still has 9 hours to go to receive his B.S.B.A... Education's Dr. Joe McCarthy will read a paper, "The Education of Women in the High Middle Ages: The Thought of Vincent de Beauvais" at the Eighth Annual Duquesne History Forum in Pittsburg Nov. 1... Nurse Mary Brady broke a wrist in a fall but it hasn't sidelined her. She reports that flu shots are running about the same as a year ago - 363 administered to date... Members of Suffolk's Government faculty were the invited guests of the Politics Department of UMass Boston for a reception at their new campus at Columbia Point... Dr. Leo Lieberman of Psych Services is serving as moderator for a Fall course in "Inspiration of the Arts" offered by the Interfaith Education Committee of the Winchester Ecumenical Council... Dr. Malcolm E. Wetherbee, chairman of Psychology, co-directed two, one-week workshops in learning disabilities at Stonehill College the past summer. The workshops attracted school administrators, special education coordinators and teachers from all of New England, New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania... Registrar Mary A. Hefron back tanned and refreshed from a Caribbean cruise and singing the praises of beautiful St. John's in the Virgin Islands... Dave Rissmiller of Finance and Banking memos us about the Value Line Investment Survey's intercollegiate contest in stock market judgement. The 100 top contestants nationally will receive cash prizes of $100 each and the two top universities unrestricted prizes of $2500 each. It's open to all Suffolk students. For further information contact Rissmiller of graduate assistant Pat Kelley at Extension 430...

(Continued on Page Six)
A large number of Suffolk's family was on hand for the swearing-in ceremonies of trustee Larry Cameron as presiding justice of South Boston District Court. Gardner Auditorium was jammed to overflow as was Doric Hall where the reception was held. Capitol Police Chief Paul Doherty estimated the crowd at more than 1200. President Fulham was among the guests seated on the rostrum. Cameron, former Boston policeman and first assistant to Suffolk District Attorney Garrett Byrne, is a 1951 graduate of Suffolk Law School and paid tribute to the university when he spoke at the conclusion of the ceremonies... Here's a switch. Prof. Cleo Boudreau of Modern Languages tells us that one of his former students, Beverly Siwiec, a Spanish major at Suffolk, is now wrapped up in zoology. A recent article in the Seattle Post-Intelligencer told of Beverly's work as a docent at the Woodland Park Zoo. Her primary assignment is bringing small friendly animals to schools to acquaint pupils with their habits and habitats. "Beverly always loved animals and is now thinking about taking up zoology," Boudreau explained... President Fulham's reminder that Suffolk contributed only 44 per cent to last year's United Way is a sad statistic, hardly a worthy representation from the university. A big boost is needed to get us in step with some of our neighboring colleges... When Frank Bellotti spoke at Suffolk a week ago in his campaign for attorney general, he knew he had one student's vote all locked up. Seated right up front was daughter, Kathy Bellotti, a Suffolk senior... Law School Dean Dave Sargent faces surgery for the removal of bone in his knee. He's been hobbling for several weeks following a fall on his knee while fishing... It's only October, but Charlie Law's basketball squad has been practicing for two weeks. The Rams could produce their first winning season in seven years thanks to a veteran team headed by Capt. John Howard, All New England center Chris Tsiotos, Kevin Clark, Bob Ferrara and Mark Muldoon...

THE SOCIAL COMMITTEE is hoping for another fine turnout for this year's Deans' Receptions Sunday afternoon Nov. 10 from 2 to 5. Mary Mahoney of Psych. Services is chairperson. This is one of the few opportunities for faculty and staffers to get together socially enmasse... Gloria Deren of Accounting and hubby Donald popped the champagne cork right after the good word came that Donald had passed the Massachusetts Bar exam... A reminder from Bursar Paul Ryan: The annual meeting of the Boston University Credit Union will be held Nov. 15 at 4 p.m. in the Castle, Bay State Road, Back Bay. All credit union members are invited. Again, the quarterly dividend rate is 5 5/8 % (6 1/8 % for 90-day notice accounts). Ryan is Suffolk's representative in the credit union and any queries should be directed to him... Admissions Director Bill Coughlin attended the two-day conference of the College Entrance Examination Board in Washington. Among the landmarks Bill visited were the Lincoln Memorial, the Jefferson Memorial, and the famed Tidal Basin... Jerry terHorst, who quit President Ford as press secretary after the Nixon pardon, will speak at Suffolk on Jan. 30. His fee is $1500, surely a healthier amount than he would have commanded months ago - before fame... The Jonathan Edwards concert last Saturday at the Auditorium went over big. The song stylist-guitarist gave two encores after standing ovations... The five new murals brightening up the cafeteria are the work of artist Robert Guillemin, better known as "Sidewalk Sam" for his outdoor paintings... Don't forget the appearance of the Tanglewood Festival Chorus in the Auditorium Nov. 12 at 8 p.m. They are being sponsored by the L.I.F.E. Committee and tickets can be obtained through the Humanities Department. Extension 462... That takes us to the bottom of the page for this month. Be back in November...