Hub Firm Sets Up Trust For Campanella

By SAMUEL P. PERRY, JR.

One of the happiest moments during the telecast of Roy Campanella’s life story on Ralph Edwards' "This Is My Life" show was the presentation to Roy of a $50,000 trust fund for his young est children: Roy, Jr., Tony, and Buttie.

The fund was set up by the Boston Investment firm, Vance, Sanders & Co., specializing in mutu al funds, on Devonshire st.,

Henry T. Vance, senior partner in the firm, presented the fund to Roy at the conclusion of the show.

"We knew," stated Mr. Vance, "that one of his greatest con cerns since his accident has been the education of his three young est children and hope this trust will help him.

"In his fight to regain his health, his spirit has been remark able and an inspiration to other disabled people.

"Among the baseball stars who appeared on television show de picting Roy’s brilliant baseball career were Gil Hodges, Doby, Reagon, Willi Mays, Giants: Don Newcomb, Pee Wee Reese, Dodger.

Roy’s mother and father were seated in the audience, but did not speak on the show.

The show was televised from the Institute of Physical Medi cine and Rehabilitation of New York University Bellevue Medici ne Center (Gompertz Hospital) where the lucky former Dodgers catcher is undergoing treatment and has amazed his physicians with his remarkable courage and progress in his battle against par tial paralysis.

On the local scene it is hoped that the Negroes who were not registered voters have become registered voters to vote in the November election. The Negro candidates are Rep. Lincoln Jr. and Superior Court Judge H. H. Banks, Democrat and Republican respectively. In Ward 12 the N. N. Chilvers, James D. Oxford, Oswald Jordan, Alfred Brothers, and Mrs. Lillian Robinson, Judges of the Superior Court, will be by the voters in some circles, the battle has already begun for political rewards. If only we were as united in asking for due patronage as we are divided in harrying our 'buddies' with political offers.' On the more pleasant side, the Virginia State College dance is scheduled for October 18 at the Hotel Continental in Conn. Holidays following, there will be special programs designed for the enjoyment of Negroes. Among the programs will be a Negro dance band and a Negro choir. The program will include songs, dances and other entertainment. The dance will be open to all, and all are welcome.

HALL, WEAR

Miss June C. Miles

Miss June C. Miles, a resident of the Friendly Furniture Store at 2260 Washington Street, Roxbury, Mass., was recently named to the Halls & Wear anger's list of "Outstanding Women In Bowling." The list, compiled by the Women's Bowling League of New England, includes the names of the top five women bowlers in the Boston area. Miss Miles, a member of the Halls & Wear bowling team, has been consistently one of the top performers in the league. Her skill and dedication to the sport have earned her this prestigious recognition.

In other news, the Friendly Furniture Store has announced its annual sale of "Antique Alley." This sale, which takes place in the store's showroom, features a wide variety of antique furniture, including sofas, chairs, tables, and more. The sale runs from October 15th to 17th, and is open to the public.

In related news, the store has also introduced a new line of "Green Furniture," which is made from recycled materials and is environmentally friendly. This new line is expected to be very popular with customers who are looking for eco-friendly options.

In conclusion, the Friendly Furniture Store continues to be a leader in the furniture industry, offering a wide range of products and services to meet the needs of customers. Whether you're looking for a new sofa, a dining table, or a console, the Friendly Furniture Store has something for everyone.
