THE NAACP CONVENTION

The 49th annual convention of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People will open Tuesday, July 8, in Cleveland, Ohio. By a curious coincidence, this 49th assembly of our country's major civil rights organization occurs just after the 49th state has been admitted to the Union. Even more significant, since spring, our Congress has failed to deal with civil rights legislation, a fact which has led to the formation of a new political party to fight for civil rights.

The theme for the convention is "Over the Rainbow to 1968," and several programs are planned to deal with the problems faced by the Negro in America.

The world of the eyes will be focused on this year's NAACP convention, and its results will thunder all round the globe a clarion affirmation of freedom such as the signature of the year's NAACP declaration, and its results will thunder all round the globe a clarion affirmation of freedom such as the signature of the year's NAACP declaration.
