When 68-year-old Lewis E. Pass, Sr., 30 Boulder St., Roxbury; was secretary of the Boston Branch NAACP, from 1948 to 1958, he introduced the late Miss Katherine Jones in the week of the organization after she remarked, "I want to do something for the colored people." A man of vision and diplomatic skill, as well as a born orator, Mr. Pass spoke with Miss Jones several times, but never was there any talk of the former president of the Equal Rights League. Miss Jones was impressed with the facts that they were made known to her, and she knew what she wanted to do. When her will was noted at Dorchester (Mass.) Court House, there was a bequest of $50,000 to it for the NAACP.

Last month Roy Williams, national executive secretary of the NAACP wrote to Mr. Pass, "It is both a pleasure and an honor to take this means of informing you of an action by our National Board of Directors at its meeting November 8 last.

On a motion by Mr. Kirkie Bacon, the Board unanimously voted your name to the Life Membership in the NAACP in token of esteem and gratitude for your part in the Katherine Jones bequest."

Father of five children, Mr. Pass was married to the late Bertha Mason Pass for 58 years. His daughter Katherine is the wife of Deputy Superintendent of Police, Thomas White. He is a 1914 graduate of Buffalo Law School, where he was valedictorian of his class, and obtained the LL.D. degree. He is honorary vice president of the Boston Branch NAACP.

\[PRE-DEBUT RECITAL\]

His program will include songs by Porceli, Brahms, Duruflé, Messager, Mau- nierd, Vaughan Williams, MacFerrin, and also a group of Spirituals. Also Alia will be at the piano. Mr. Williams is well known throughout New England for his (Continued on page 8).

\[AFRICAN M. P. TO SPEAK\]

Manoba Chirwa, for five years a Member of the Central African Federation Parliament from Nyasaland, has been named by "Color Bar or Multiracial Society in Central Africa," at the Community Center, 365 Boylston St., Tuesday, October 24, at 7:30 p.m. Educated in the Mission schools of Africa and at Oxford University, Mr. Chirwa has been called by British Labor M. P. James Johnson, the "most mature of all Africans in Nyasaland." The meeting, to which the public is invited, is the first Prenni supper under the auspices of the Community Church for the coming year. A supper will be held at 6:30 p.m. A question and dis- cussion period will follow the deliberations and the giving of the Prenni Supper to Sponsors Dance Friday, October 17, from 8 p.m. at the Commercial Club, Hartford. The sponsors will accept the Democratic contribution to the Norwich Republican Democratic Club.

\[KENNEDY BLOSTS CLINTON BOMBINGS\]

Senor John F. Kennedy issued the following comment upon the explosions which destroyed the Clinton, Texas, High school on Sunday:

"If I am shocked, as I know all law abiding citizens must be, regardless of their views on Civil Rights, by the wanton destruction and lawlessness of these criminals, I am also appalled by the explosions at Clinton High School.

"These senseless blasts tragically undercut the urgent need that the Kennedy Administration, and will bring the effective action to apprehend and convict those guilty of the act.

BOSTON, MASS.
POPE PIUS AND THE CHURCH MILITANT

To lament the passing of His Holiness Pope Pius XII last Thursday, in the 82nd year of his age; is not only the mournful duty of the devoted millions whose Holy Father he was throughout the earth since 1929 when this Roman aristocrat became Supreme Pontiff of the Roman Catholic Church. It is also the solemn obligation of millions outside of the Communion of his Faith, who recognized him in one of the most spiritual and religious leaders of the century. In unbroken succession Popes have ruled from the days of St. Peter onward, not by hereditary right; though of course they were given prominence by their own crimes, or at least by the selection of a College. Pope Pius's fourteen years were marked by his political and religious activities. The Church Militant, and the Catholic world, travelled by St. Pius, with the aid of men of letters, who had not been the princes of his time. The Church Militant, which is the union of all the faithful in Christ, of whom our Holy Father was the head until he died, for the good of his Church, he has made a great contribution to the life and growth of the Church.

BUILD BEFORE KNOCKING

If one were to stop the average man or woman walking in Boston Avenue, Tremont Street, Shawmut Avenue, Humboldt Avenue or Blue Hill Avenue, and advise: "Building before knocking," perhaps general assent would be forthcoming once it was explained what the advice was intended to mean. The principle refers chiefly to restrictive rather than constructive criticism of organizations and institutions — the kind of literature, for example, which is always levied at leadership in the Boston Branch NAACP. After all, this is our major defense organization, with numerous struggles and achievements to its local and national credit during its almost half century of existence.

What are the latest sandbags? They do not deserve the dignified writer of censure by being mentioned. However, one is a palpable falsehood of the sort which could be dispelled if the NAACP here were to vote for a resolution of encouragement. Yet no such resolution has been sold out to the Democratic Party, because they happen to be Democrats in their private lives, as distinct from their public lives. Those who utter this column must expect the lingering memory of the NAACP's defeat in the 1958 election, the loss of its leadership of the National Student Association, and the unification of the United States and of the state in which this issue stands. No one can expect the NAACP to save the soul of the United States and the United States to save the soul of the NAACP. The NAACP's political leadership is not such, and the party's leadership of the Student Association is not such. The NAACP must save itself. It has no friends among the people. Two weeks after the [redacted] week is November 7, 1958. Before that time, the NAACP has been told to save the soul of the United States. The NAACP is given this week to save the soul of the United States. The NAACP, which the NAACP, which the NAACP, which the NAACP, which the NAACP, which the NAACP, which the NAACP, which the NAACP, which the NAACP, which the NAACP, which the NAACP, which the NAACP, which the NAACP, which the NAACP, which the NAACP, which the NAACP, which the NAACP, which the NAACP, which the NAACP, which the NAACP, which the NAACP, which the NAACP, which the NAACP, which the NAACP, which the NAACP, which the NAACP, which the NAACP, which the NAACP.

The Rambler

Well, here we go again... In New York's Congress, Adam C. Powell, Jr., has urged the voters of Harlem to get out and exercise their right to vote in November—not only for the candidates of their choice, but also for their brother's in the South—plagued by election fraud and other political ills. While the New York Times reports true voters in both Ward 9 and 10... On the local scene, Clifton A. Wharton, Jr., has established a division in his office for the protection of civil rights and civil liberties. Chanakam's Ambassadors' weekend at the U.S. on the UN Daniel A. Chapman, has just returned from a tour of Latin American countries seeking to gain support in the UN General Assembly for a thorough discussion of the Algerian question.

The New African nation of Ghana has applied for UN membership after the country's constitution was adopted in 1957. The constitution's provisions for a Westminster-style parliamentary system include the protection of human rights, the right to freedom of speech, and the right to freedom of the press. The current issue of the newspaper, 'The Ghanaian Standard,' carries an article on the country's progress in the field of education and health.

MITCHELL JACKSON LEAD

SPEECHES AT THE CHURCH
Speakers June Mitchell and Benny Jackson scored a pair of touchdowns each to pace Riverside Tech last Saturday to its first football triumph of the season, 5-4 over New Bedford. The Techmen had hunkered back in a 26-6 kicking handed them the win in the opening tilt.

The Whalers and Territorians were deadlocked 6-6 at half time. The ends found their big punch in the final two periods with Mitchell delivering a terrific move in the third of a touchdown.
