$50,000 Bequeathed Hub NAACP

When 69-year-old Louis E. Parsons, Sr., of the Boston Branch NAACP, left his fortune to the organization, he said, "I want to do something for the colored people." Parsons, a graduate of Harvard University, was a member of the Equal Rights League. His bequest was made known to the public, and he explained what he wanted to do. When he was asked about it, he said, "I want to do something for the colored people." He was a graduate of Harvard University, was a member of the Equal Rights League, and his bequest was made known to the public.

KENNEDY BUSTS CLINTON BOMBINGS
Senator John F. Kennedy issued the following statement upon the bombings which destroyed Clinton, Iowa, on Monday. Clinton High School on Sunday: "I am shocked, as I know all law-abiding citizens must be, regardless of their views on Civil Rights, by the wanton destruction and lawlessness of these irresponsible for the bombings at Clinton, High School. These senseless blasts tragically underline the urgent need for Senator Kennedy's And Dynamiting Bill, which would enable the President to take effective action to apprehend and convict these guilty of the acts."

POPE PIUS AND THE CHURCH MILITANT

To lament the passing of His Holiness Pope Pius XII last Thursday, in the 82nd year of his age; is not only the mournful duty of the devoted millions whose Holy Father he was throughout the earth since 1939 when this Roman aristocrat became Supreme Pontiff of the Roman Catholic Church. It is also the solemn obligation of millions outside the Communion of His Faith who recognized in him one of the greatest and spiritual leaders of this century. In unbroken succession Popes have ruled from the days of St. Peter onward, not by hereditary right; though exclusive for various reasons some contributed pontiffs, but by election in the Sacred College of Cardinals. The Papacy is the most ancient institution in Christendom. A Gregorian or infallible and inflexible and Pius XII will certainly take his place among the greatest and most saintly like St. Leo the Great, Julius II and St. Pius X.

Like his predecessor the late Pope was clothed in the whole armor of the Church Militant, battling literally at Armageddon against racism and for world peace. Of most immediate concern to Negro Americans of all denominations, among his many valuable teaching; was this reminder, from his address September 10 to an International Congress on Religious Transfusion: "One knows too well, alas, to what extent racial pride and racial hate can lead. The Church is forever opposed to energy (by whatever means) whether they consist of attempts at genocide, or practices inspired by what is called the 'color line'."

BUILD BEFORE KNOCKING

If one were to stop the average man or woman strolling in the South End Avenue, Tremont Street, Shawmut Avenue, Humboldt Avenue or Blue Hill Avenue, and as a result, "Building before knocking," perhaps general assent would be forthcoming once it was shown that the advice was well founded in logic or common sense. The principle refers chiefly to restructurive rather than constructive criticism of organizations and institutions — the kind of leveling-off that is possible, and is always, well established in the Boston Branch NAACP. After all, that is their major defense organization, with numerous successes and achievements to its local and national credit during its almost half century of existence.

What are the latest sandbags? They do not deserve the dignified word of war being mentioned. However, one is a palpable falsehood of the sort which could be dispensed with. There are characteristic examples which have been on sale to the Democratic Party, because they happen to be Democrats in their private lives, as distinct from their public lives. Those who utter this calumny must expect the constant increasing of the unenlightened, albeit the admission, rationalization, of a real, albeit the conceptions human beings who know of all that they would be active ill-will against the best interests of both the present body and the branch if they took part in partisan politics as officials of the Boston Branch NAACP.

Justice William H. Hastie, that wise jurist, once declared that: on the subject of race relations, all freedom-loving Negro Americans are radicals. By that distinction he meant that we are and have been since partition in our approach to the vital question of civil rights. Neither major party has a monopoly of all the good (or bad) examples of such behavior. The Boston Branch NAACP cannot and does not give a blank check to candidates of either.

IN APPRECIATION

The editor of the Boston Chronicle wishes to thank Mrs. James W. Carter of English, Massachusetts, for sending us her article entitled "How to Methodically Plan Your Sabbath Weekly Programs in the Local Negro Church," from the "Negro Evangelist" of September 12, 1958. Mrs. Carter's article is reprinted in the Boston Chronicle in the interest of encouraging good church work and development.

Fourteenth Amendment and The Negroes

By Lawrence James

The world of science is moving toward the concept of space and nuclear power. The Negroes are slowly in the presence of their objective which have been having their efforts until now. The children intellectually. There have been many who were not educated because of the many reasons. The many who were not educated were not the few. To this day, that is the reason.

The Fourteenth Amendment which was ratified in 1868, states that "The Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances." This Amendment was framed and adopted.

This law not only gave citizenship and the privileges of citizenship to Negroes; but it declared to any state the power to enjoin them the equal protection of its laws and authorized Congress to enforce its provisions by appropriate legislation.

Fourteen years after the adoption of this amendment Negroes are still being victims of prejudice, discrimination and second-class citizenship. We have the children intellectually. There have been many who were not educated. The many who were not educated were not the few.

The Fourteenth Amendment further declares that the laws of a state shall be the same for the white and Negro man as is it for the white man. It is for the benefit of the black race that the Negro, this amendment was primarily designed. It was designed to appeal from the account of his color. The words of the Fourteenth Amendment are "Prohibitory in construction, and of a nature to prevent, the exercise of a natural inclination, and in the black race. It also means that the Negro man and woman now have the right to vote and have it taken away."

For the Negroes we agree with the statement: "The Negro man and woman now have the right to vote and have it taken away."

Mr. Tremont states at the bottom of his column: "There are many Negroes who are still not able to vote."
