Eisenhower Simmons Negro Leaders

KING, WILKINS, RANDOLPH TO MEET IKE

Washington—Monday, June 23, According to protocol, details of a high level discussion with the President are never disclosed but since it has been learned that also present will be Attorney General William P. Rogers, Jr., Frederic Morrow, Negro member of the White House secretariat, and Rocco Siciliano, administrative assistant in charge of minority group affairs, speculation is rife. Moreover, although not invited, Congressman Charles Diggs of Detroit and William L. Dawson of Chicago have indicated that they will convey suggestions of topics to be discussed to Dr. King and Messrs. Randolph, Granger, and Wilkins.

Killed in Crash

Funeral services were held at Chaslin Funeral Chapel, 532 Columbus Ave., last Thursday, June 19, at noon for Daniel Brooks of 261 West Newton St., who was killed on Blue Hill Ave., Roxbury, early last Sunday morning while driving home from Brockton. Bishop Robert Stone officiated. Solist was Sidney Blackman. Interment was in Mount Hope Cemetery.

Born in Washington, D.C., the deceased was employed at AIA Insurance Co. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Madeline Walker Brooks.

Atty: John Bourne Laid To Rest

Funeral services were held last Wednesday morning in Norris G. Davis Funeral Home, 59 Walnut Ave., Roxbury, for Attorney John Stanhope Ray Bourne, who died Sunday, June 15, in the fifth year of his age. Rev. Fr. Howell of the church of St. Augustine and St. Martin officiated. Interment was in Mount Hope Cemetery.

Mr. Bourne, who was born in Barbados, British West Indies, had a distinguished career as a lawyer and civic leader. He was a direct descendant of London Bourne, wealthy landowner and planter who founded the family in the West Indies, and his ancestors hailed from Danomey, West Africa. His cousin, Hon. Arthur Barclay, was President of the Republic of Liberia from 1904 to 1911.

Educated at Combermere School in his native country, Mr. Bourne held the Bachelor of Law degree from Northwestern University, 1918, and was the first Negro lawyer to earn a Master's degree.

Lopez, Paige Top Seeded Aces In Tennis Match

New England's women singles champion Dottie Lopez and veteran Henry Paige head a contingent of six topseeded stars when the Boston Tennis Club handicap tournament swings into action Saturday, June 21, for a two day race at Carter Playground.

Others among the topseeded stars who will be giving away advantage of minus 20 to lesser experienced contestants include Les Ashby, who moved into the top circle within the past three seasons, and long time veterans Dapper, Middleton and Tins Spoor.

In the women's department, Miss Lopez is joined by Eileen McIntyre as a top favorite.

Paige begins his opposition against Allen who starts at scratch. Ashby faces Simpkins, a minus 15 handicapper, Sparrow clashes with Neville Folkes, minus 18, and Middleton faces Floyd's advantage of plus 15.

Miss Lopez' first opponent is Miss Smith with a plus 15 advantage while Miss McIntyre faces Ruth Coleman Ashby with a similar handicap edge.

Harvard Soph Wins $200 Prize

Cambridge — Last Thursday Harvard University concluded its academic year with commencement exercises, and Noel Gregson, Graham Davis '50 of Anglia, British West India, gained the first undergraduate Borendon Prize for Latin translation. The 17 year old sophomore was awarded a gold medal and a certificate, with $200 in cash.

Admitted to Harvard College when he was 15 and half years old, Mr. Davis won the second prize, with a bronze medal and certificate and $50 in cash, in 1957. He is a member of the varsity cricket team, holds several scholarships, and is an excellent pianist, having obtained six certificates from the Royal College of Music, London, England.

He is a nephew of Bertie W. H. Davis, proprietor of Copley Crafts Mfg. Co., who is a 1913 graduate of Phillips' Exeter Academy and a 1917 graduate of Harvard College.

Church News - Events of the Week

Christian Science Services

"Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon at Christian Science services Sunday.

Matthew's account of Christ Jesus' healing of the man "possessed with a devil, blind and dumb" (Matt. 12) will be read in the readings from the King James' version of the Bible.

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will be read the following (189:23): "When man is governed by God, the ever-present Mind who understands all things, man knows that with God all things are possible. The only way to this living Truth, which heals the sick, is found in the Science of divine Mind as taught and demonstrated by Christ Jesus."

PEOPLES BAPTIST CHURCH

Tremont and Camden Streets
Dr. Richard M. Owens, pastor
The pastor's subject was "How do you stand as a Father?"

The New England. Missionary Convention is now history, but according to the president, Rev. C. M. Smith, it was one of the best conventions in many years. Much credit is due to Mrs. Marie Winburne and her dinner committee which served three meals a day for four days. Mrs. Mabel Gray, chairman of the housing also Richard Diggs of the courtesy committee.

Tomorrow, Sunday, baptism will be observed at the evening service.

Next week Sunday night will be Family Night sponsored by the executive board, with a sing-aspiration period, in which all the musical groups will participate. The four speakers will be: Ernest Slaughter, sociology; Art, Charles H. Lewis, law; Joseph Harris, automation; Rev. Owens, religion. All couples married by the pastor are invited to attend.

ABOUT PEOPLE

Rev. Gilbert J. Caldwell, Jr. of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church, has been appointed pastor to serve the Brynville and West Duxbury churches. The appointment was announced at the first session of the recent five day Southern Methodist Falmouth, Mass. Bishop John Wesley Lord told the 300 delegates: "We have created false divisions among ourselves and so lived as to deny that we were members of one family of God."

Theodore R. Browne of 109 Elm Hill Avenue, Roxbury, who received the Master of Education degree last Sunday at the commencement exercises of Northeastern University, is the author of a novel, "The Band Will Not Play Dixie," published by Exposition Press, New York, in 1955. He is a capable playwright, with several radio plays to his credit, two of which were published in an anthology, "100 Non-Royalty Radio Plays," and were later performed over Station WBZ. He is also the winner of the Rockefeller Dramatists Guild Playwright Scholarship.

Mr. Browne was born in Suffolk, Va., and will be 43 years old next month. He received the Bachelor of Business Administration degree in 1956. He is married, a World War veteran, and for the past 13 years he has been

In Appreciation

Mme. Elizabeth German Wheatley presented her students in their annual recital of vocal music, Sunday, June 8, 1958, at 4 p.m., at Grant AME Church, Roxbury.

The program was a very interesting and delightful one. Each student showed much promise of being outstanding artists in their communities.

The careful training and instructions given to the students by Mme. Wheatley which she is so well noted for was demonstrated there that afternoon.

Each student showed her own clear beauty of tone and carrying quality together with the knowledge of phrasing and musicianship being excellent.

The guest artists were: Mrs. Gladys Nairne Fuller, dramatic reciter; Miss Arlene Bailey, soprano, a graduate student of Mme. Wheatley, who is now studying at the New England Conservatory of Music.

The guest artists were presented with lovely tokens of appreciation from Mme. Wheatley. Also a beautiful bouquet of flowers was presented to each student from their teacher.

The students appearing were as follows: Bertha Ayres, Bertha Haughton, Barbara Gunn, Dorothy Anderson, Fannie Bell, Patricia Blakney, Shirley Anderson, Mary Dunwoody. The accompanist Miss Gladys Purdue.

Others on the program were: Miss Vea Bell, recital hostess; Mrs. Beatress A. Moody, Mary Washington, Margaret Washington, ushers.

A delightful collation was served after the recital. The reception hostess was Rosetta Johnson.

employed as maintenance man at the Hearst Newspapers Building.

Dr. Frank M. Snowden, Jr., dean of the college of liberal arts, Howard University, the son of Col. and Mrs. Frank M. Snowden of Supple Road, Dorchester, will leave tomorrow for the Soviet Union as one of a delegation of twelve U. S. educators to study the teaching of liberal arts and natural sciences in Soviet institutions of higher learning. According to the Department of State, the group will spend about three weeks in the Soviet Union, under the sponsorship of the International Education Exchange Service of the Department. At a later date a similar group of Soviet educators will visit our country under terms of the exchange agreement.

Another Bostonian is now in the Soviet Union, attached to the staff of the U. S. Embassy in Moscow. He is Enoch O. Woodhouse, Jr., Yale College graduate, who is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Enoch O. Woodhouse of Mother W. Williams Memorial A.M. Zion Church, Roxbury.

MEDFORD EVENTS

By Margo Wilson
Rev. Phillips' message to the congregation last Sunday was "But one thing is needful." The flowers on the altar were given by Marjorie, Lorraine, and Alexander, Jr., in loving memory of their father, Alexander Henderson.

The senior choir will present an evening with the spirituals tomorrow June 21, at 7:30. Earlier, at 12:15, the church will hold graduation exercises for the Sunday Church school. The church school picnic is planned for Saturday, July 12.

Here are the results of the Retreat held on Saturday, June 14, at Andover Newton: For various reasons many of the elected did not attend. Those who attended agreed to conduct the series of workshops for the benefit of Shiloh. The fact - evening workshops will be conducted on four consecutive Sunday evenings, beginning September 21, 1953. A vote to the elected: Although you were absent, and your reason valid, nevertheless you are still needed to assist the program, hence become not weary nor afraid of well doing.

ZION BAPTIST CHURCH
211 Cottage Street
Rev. H. Tom Harris, Minister

The Ten Thumb Wedding presented to a packed house was a real success financially and from the entertainment point of view. It was under the auspices of the Sunday School, Mrs. Gertrude Hinton, supt. The cast of characters: bride, Pamela Taylor; bridegroom, Lawrence Minard; best man, James Minard; maid of honor, Diane Falie; mother, Rene Branch; father, Marshall Taylor; ring bearer, Bruce Elliot; flower girl, Joyce Jackson, Diane Langston, June Jensen; soloist, Betty Langston; bridesmaids, Cornelia Langston, Vicki Smith, Charlene Davis, Michele Branch; ushers: Frederick Falie, Paul Davis, John Branch.

The ladies of the choir put on a fine rally Sunday which was followed by a delicious dinner in the vestry. Fathers' Day attendance almost matched that of Easter. Rev. Harris spoke at St. Charles St. Church for Dr. W. C. Davis, minister, at the evening service.

Rev. Grady Davis, dean of the School of Religion, Shaw University, and formerly minister of Zion Baptist Church while working for his Doctor of Philosophy degree at Boston University, will speak Sunday morning.

Mrs. Mayne Kelly and Mrs. Octavia Dorsey from Hartford, Conn., spent last week with their niece, Mrs. Elaine Hinton. Miriam F. Senhouse of Arlington St., was awarded a scholarship for medical study next year at Iowa State University. She graduated from the School of Home Economics. She was also an honor board representative, an executive board representative and a member of the Home Economics Club, and the Junior Welcome Committee.

Irwin Barnette of Jerome St., visited the Boston Naval Shipyard during Student Government Day.

Thought for the week: Luck has a peculiar habit of favoring those who don't depend upon it.

Receives Radcliffe Degree
Daniels once said: "The secret to success is constancy to purpose."

This quotation adequately fits Miss Norma Carrington, formerly of Cambridge, who received her Bachelor of Arts degree at the graduation exercises of Radcliffe College in Cambridge last week.

Miss Carrington is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Carrington of W. Medford, Mass. She overcame physical disabilities after a number of years to gain her objective.

Sincere congratulations to Miss Carrington and may she continue to garner more laurels in her chosen field.

Hearty congratulations are extended to Mr. Divakar Salvi of Cambridge, who received a Master's degree in Sociology at the University of Connecticut last Sunday. Mr. Salvi is the husband of Mrs. Takako Salvi, nee Sato, and is the father of three lovely children.

Birthday congratulations are in order for Master Ernest DiNatale, Jr., who observed his natal day last Sunday. Young Ernest is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest DiNatale of Franklin St.

The congregation was particularly pleased to see Mrs. Henry Rice last week at St. Bartholomew's Church. To those who may not know, Mrs. Rice has been ill, but is much improved at present.

To the young people in the New England area, be sure to watch the program called, "The World We Want," on TV Channel 2. This program will give an idea of schoolchildren from various parts of the world.

One of the grandest parties of the season was held on Saturday evening to mark the graduation of Livingston K. Coakley, who received his B. A. degree in Business Administration from Northeastern University on Sunday.

The party was sponsored by Mr. Coakley's cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Percival of Westminster Avenue, Roxbury. Scores of his friends were at the party, and he was the recipient of many gifts.

Mr. Coakley is from Nassau, Bahamas.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Swainson, and their lovely daughter, Deborah, of St. George's, Bermuda, were the week end guests of their cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Geromino of Mass. Ave., Boston.

Miss Swainson is a graduate of Alma College, St. Thomas, Ont., she will do graduate work

At Girls' State

Shirley J. Owens, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. N. Owens of 12 Walnut Ave., Roxbury, left Boston Friday, June 13, for Bridge-water State Teachers' College, where she will attend Girls' State, which is a practical application of Americanism and good citizenship. Its purpose is to provide citizenship training for girls of high school age in every constituent department of the American Legion Auxiliary. Mrs. Elizabeth Crutisp is president of the sponsoring unit.

William E. Carter Post is sponsoring Miss Owens, who is a junior at the Roxbury Memorial H. School. She is a member of the New Hope Baptist Church, and has been a member of the high school; she is enrolled in the National Honor Society. At present, she is her class governing councillor. During her sophomore year she was president of her class and was run for the same office for her senior year. In 1951, she attended a dinner at the Sheraton Palace in honor of "Women of the Future," as one of the "Women of Future John B. Hynes.

Doctorate Gained

The degree of Doctor of the Art of Oratory was conferred upon Dr. Mildred S. Griffith of 104 Harvard Avenue, West Medford, by Staley College of the Spoken Word at its May 23 commencement exercises.

Dr. Griffith is president of the Staley College Guild; member of the National Association of Parliamentarians; charter member, past treasurer, and recently secretary to the Massachusetts N. A. P.; and executive member of the Middlesex County Employment Council. She is listed in Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

ATTORNEY BOURNE

coming to Boston until his death, he was associated with militants like the late William Monroe Trotter, the late Dr. M. A. N. Shaw, and Dr. R. A. Simmons of the National Equal Rights League.

He drafted many anti-discrimination bills and argued before the legislature for their passage long before the fair employment practice act was passed in 1942. Many fledgling lawyers gained their first practical experience through working in his office after admission to the bar, and he gave readily of his counsel and advice as a learned advocate to his professional colleagues, often without compensation. Only blindness which incapacitated him a decade ago compelled his retirement from his professional and public service.

MISS GRANT'S RECITAL

Sunday afternoon, June 22, at 4 p.m., a large group of friends heard Charity Grant, a pupil of Mildred Jenkins Houghton give a recital of songs in the Parish hall of the Arlington St. Church, Boston. Mrs. Dorothy Pettemont gave tastefully support on the piano.

Miss Grant's selections were of the best and her performance was perfect. One of the audience was left gasping at the words, as so often happens. Each note was full and clear. Perhaps this singer should spend a little more time and effort on the production of her high notes, and sometimes her voice shrill, but such a nervous reaction could be excused for a singer at her first recital.

Mrs. Houghton should be congratulated for presenting a musical treat that brought the songs to the audience. All together it was a delightful evening. —Sue Hentzen
