PRICE TEN CENTS

Lady Collapses In Church Service

DIARINE PRIVATE FIRST CLASS, ROBERT J. JORDAN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gid G. Jordan of 75 Brannon Harris Way, Boston, Mass., receives congratulations on his promotion from his commanding officer Lt. Col. E. E. Hammerbeck at Farris Island, S.C., where he is serving with the Second Recruit Training Battalion. He was one of four men selected from his platoon to be promoted for demonstrating qualities of leadership throughout recruit training. Before enlisting in September 1957, Jordan attended Cathedral High School.

Virgil Akins Wins

Virgil Akins of St. Louis solidified his position as number one welterweight (at least in the eyes of Massachusetts' boxing) after flooring Tony DeMarco three times and battering the North knier into submission in the 12th round of their welterweight championship bout at Boston last Tuesday night. On the same card making his professional debut, 1957 National heavyweight champion Lee Williams from Roxbury kayaked Johnny Haywood of Youngstown, Ohio, in the first round.

Akins, who left some people still a bit unbelieving after his triumph during his last excursion to the Hub, was the master and made no bones about it once the action began to swell. Early in the bout he met in DeMarco a cautious boxer and when the latter belted home the most telling blow in the fourth, it turned into a slugfest with both lads applying the heavy ammo.

Drops Foe in 12th

DeMarco began to look good and the crowd loved it for they envisioned a possible return of the crown to this sector. But Virgil's sharpness and power became dominating in the seventh frame. While moving out of danger, Akins booked, then snared in a sharp right that stunned Tony in the eighth. Suddenly the left hook caught the North Elder on the chin and he toppled for the count.

Determination carried DeMarco but Akins simply dashed out the punishment. Tony appeared on the verge to make it as he staged a tremendous rally through the ninth and tenth rounds but Virgil's lashing was beginning to really tell. Akins had his foe down again in the eleventh, both times from a left.

In the twelfth, Akins' right belted DeMarco into helplessness and the St. Louis scrapper proceeded to belabor him at will. Tony staggered and reeled under the attack but wouldn't buckle. Another pile-driving right nearly turned him completely around, and at this point the referee stepped in. (Continued on page 5)

Nasser Gives Wedding Gifts To Premier Nkrumah

Accra, Ghana — Dr. Kwame Nkrumah, Prime Minister of Ghana, has received the decoration Grand Cordon of the Order of the Nile from President Nasser. Other gifts were a $200 gold cigarette case and a $5,000 diamond necklace and bracelet for Mrs. Nkrumah.

The presentation was made to the Premier by the President's special envoy Salah El Shaghat at a ceremony held at Government House, Osu, Ghana.

Bias Bill Bars Basketball Games

Greeley, Colo. — Because segregationists in the Louisiana legislature enacted a law forbidding "commingling of the races in athletic events," Colorado State College did not play three scheduled basketball games in Louisiana. One of the squad members of Colorado State College is a Negro. At the urging of the students body, the school decided that if Ollie Bell, 24-year old senior and ex-Marine, could not play, the 'twos was out.

Colorado's Governor Steve McNichols declared that Colorado State College's players are all American citizens and if the Louisiana colleges don't want to play, the games are cancelled. "Colorado does not recognize any such law," he pointed out. Though the school might forfeit $500 to each opponent for cancelling, the president of the College Board of Trustees said the $500 forfeits were "peanuts," in view of the issue involved.

Elected To Board

REV. E. C. McLEOD, pastor of Union Methodist Church, has been elected to the board of directors of the Lord's Day League of New England at the 63rd annual dinner Monday, January 27.

While giving her testimony of faith at services in Christ Temple Church of Personal Experience, 30 Kenilworth St., Roxbury, Mrs. Linnett V. Turner of 253 Harold St., Roxbury, fatally collapsed at 9 p.m., Sunday, January 19. A member of Ebenezer Baptist Church, of which Rev. Dr. William S. Ravenell is pastor, Mrs. Turner was actively engaged in interdenominational missionary work. One of her four sons is Rev. V. Simpson Turner of New York.

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon, January 24, from Ebenezer Church, with Chisolm Funeral Ch. pei, 532

Columbus Ave., Boston, as undertaker.

Mrs. Turner was a member of the Queen Esther Missionary Circle and the Progressive Club of the Ebenezer Baptist Church, Resthaven Women's Auxiliary, Home Missionary Society and Nurses' Unit of the United Baptist Convention of Mass. and Rhode Island.

Surviving the deceased are four sons: Rev. V. Simpson Turner of New York, Polmut A. Turner of Los Angeles, Lincoln A. Turner of Hartford, Conn., and Llewellyn S. Turner of New York.

NATIONAL ROUNDUP

NEW YORK — What W. C. Handy thinks of Nat (King) Cole's ability... why Bill Altway considered the "fastest-rising songwriter in the country"... how champion high-jumper Johnny Mathis has leaped to top stardom in a single night... These are among the topics explored in fascinating stories that appear in the first issue of the new magazine, "Popular Music," which reached the nation's newsstands on January 21. It is the first magazine of its kind to appear, and is brought out to fill the growing curiosity about the musical favorites of some 20,000,000 Americans.

INDIAN BRAVES ON THE WARPATH

It is a sad and sobering reminder of the virulent persistence of U. S. racism that many of those national newspapers which have carried editorials commending the North Carolina Indians for their direct action in routing the cowardly barbarians of the Ku Klux Klan with guns would not have praised Negroes in the Tar Heel State for defending themselves in the same manner. Nor would local law enforcement officers have refrained from aiding their kinsmen and neighbors among the hooded mobsters. Indeed, if not Negroes went so far as to fire back, in serried formation, at valiant Klan odds of one hundred to one, the news reaching the nation and the world would be that they had gone berserk.

As the Boston Daily Record, in its editorial of January 22 entitled "War Whoops Again", correctly states, "there has been little racial prejudice against Indians in American history—they seem to be doing well in several parts of the country particularly where there is oil as there is in Oklahoma.... But what the North Carolina Indians have done is bigger than land and oil and such manifestations of wealth... They stood on their dignity as human beings. They raised their heads high and showed that they were men.... For that we honor any American. Those Indians in North Carolina acted as men should in the presence of a bunch of bullying bums."

Whatever strategy and tactics required to destroy the Ku Klux Klan utterly, root and branch, to the last corpse, should and probably does have the approval of all freedom loving Americans, regardless of race, creed, color, or national origin. Let us not forget, therefore, in praising the Indians that the less favorably regarded, but more oppressed, Negroes in places like Montgomery and Tuskegee, Alabama, are also showing heroism through non-violent non cooperation with the evil of Jim Crowism. That is their technique.

"HYMAN PILL DAY" IN CAMBRIDGE

So rare are genuine integrity and probity in municipal government, as Lincoln Steffens pointed out half a century ago, that the office holder who possesses those virtues glows like a candle in the forest at midnight. The city council and mayor of Cambridge were altogether right in designating last Wednesday as "Hyman Pill Day" in honor of the veteran councilman, aged 85, who had served with such pre-eminent distinction for 24 years until his retirement last December 31.

Councilman Pill is a vigorous champion of civil rights, and endeared himself to Negro residents of his city by his vigilance in sponsoring resolutions in the council to promote their immediate interests as well as the national struggle of their people for the freedom of full citizenship on the basis of complete equality with all other Americans. His philanthropic generosity has aided Negro churches and community institutions, to save nothing of individual students in Harvard College or the Mass. Institute of Technology. Faithful to the traditions of his own creed, Mr. Pill respects and venerates learning, and so has exhibited unusual interest in the problems of higher education. It is to be hoped, therefore, that his advice and counsel will be available during his retirement.

WEST INDIAN FEDERATION

On January 6, 1955 another memorable event took its place in the annals of recorded history when Lord Hailes, P. C., assumed the office of Governor

On the Bookshelf

THE MEANING OF BANDUNG.

By Carlos P. Romulo.
Chapel Hill: University of North Carolina Press. $2.50

Among leading Asian statesmen, General Romulo holds a unique, if not solitary, position as an undeviating friend of the United States, for whose best traditions and highest ideals he has constantly maintained a confident and hopeful respect and veneration. In the East-West, freeworld-Soviet bloc struggle, known as Chief of the Philippine Mission to the United Nations, President of the General Assembly of the United Nations, Secretary of Foreign Affairs in the Philippine Government, or Ambassador to the United States, he has devoted his energies to warning Asians and Africans against putting on the yoke of Soviet domination after they have painfully emerged to the light of freedom from colonialism. This devotion, which is that of a Christian, American-trained diplomat, is manifest in this little volume which records his reaction to the historic Asian-African Conference at Bandung, Indonesia, in April, 1955.

The dominant roles at Bandung were played by Premiers Chou En-Lai of the People's Republic of China and Jawahar Nehru of India, Sir John Kotelawala of Ceylon and General Romulo, as personalities voicing distinct points of view. As the author says (p. 35), "Bandung was, in a manner of speaking, a historical pageant, symbolizing the coming of Asia and Africa," even though it is true (p.36) that "Bandung did not provide the design for a perfect world; it did demonstrate, however, the basic for hope."

Especially warm and worthy of quotation is General Romulo's tribute to the African participants (p. 34): "The African delegates, singly and collectively, presented an arresting picture of maturity and sober judgment. The African delegate argued persuasively for the recognition of the right of the trust territories in Africa to achieve nationhood. The rest of the African contingent gave ample evidence of restraint and sobriety that won the admiration of the conference. Convinced of the righteousness of their cause, they did not have, and did not choose, to overstate their case. Allegedly, the African representation was worthy of a continent on the march."

General Romulo's conclusion (p. 40) is not unassailable: "The conference at Bandung had to do with a new spiritual unity of Asia and Africa. It was not a flimsy either by the Communists or the neutralists; if anything, it influenced them and in some cases literally stopped them cold." After all, Chou En-Lai and Pandit Nehru share the spotlight, and so were bound to have done much influencing, though they did not wear the vacuum. How to assess the respective components of interaction

General of the West Indies Federation, which will achieve full dominion status much more rapidly than die-hard reactionaries desire or pessimists expect.

Days, months, and years of struggle still are ahead, for soft tropical breezes did not waft the Federation into being, as the outbreaks in Jamaica and Trinidad are constant reminders. Some of the economic difficulties, not lessened by current migration to Britain, remain to challenge the statesmanship of leaders like Sir Grantley Adams in Barbados, Dr. Eric Williams in Trinidad, and Norman W. Manley, Queen's Counsel, in Jamaica. After all storms subside, the Federation will be a strong bastion of democratic freedom.

U.S. Jobless Rise To Three Million

WASHINGTON—The number of jobless continued to increase more than seasonally in December, rising by nearly 200,000 to 3.4 million, Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell and Secretary of Commerce Sinclair Weeks reported.

The increase raised the seasonally adjusted rate of unemployment to 5.2 percent, its highest level in 3 years.

Births Reach All Time High

In 1957 Boston achieved an all time high for births to Boston residents with 24,374 already recorded. It is estimated that an additional 200 births will be added to the 24,374 when births to residents occurring outside the city are filed with City Registrar Macklin. In 1956 there were 23,460 births.

According to Dr. John H. Cauley, Health Commissioner, Boston has a most remarkable record for 1957. With this all time high in the number of births, not a single Boston woman died of a condition related to childbirth. Doctor Cauley said that as far as the Boston Health Department is able to determine, Boston is the first city in the world with a population of 600,000 or more in which the rate has not been a single death of a mother, who was a Boston resident, as a result of childbirth.

Church News - Events of the Week

Christian Science Services

The fact that the healing, saving power of the Christ, Truth is always present will be experienced at Christian Science services Sunday.

The Lesson-Sermon entitled "Truth" will include the following from Matthew (9:35): "And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people."

Correlative selections to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (494:30): "Our Master cast out devils (evils) and healed the sick. It should be said of his followers also, that they cast fear and evil out of themselves and others and heal the sick. God will heal the sick through man, whenever man is governed by God. Truth alone is error now as surely as it did nineteen centuries ago. All of Truth is not understood; hence its healing power is not fully demonstrated."

and the Misses Gertrude Smith, Josephine and Louisa Williams, and Bessie Hawkins.

Mrs. Isabella T. Ravelle and Mrs. Amy Johnson attended the Delegates Assembly for the Greater Boston Council of Girl Scouts on Monday evening at the Jewish Community Center, Brighton. Annual reports were given and new goals were set up.

The weather did not keep very many away from the congregation last Sunday. The Gospel Chorus sang "I am a Soldier," "What a Friend" and "Lord, I Thank You." The Senior Choir sang an offertory number. The pastor's sermon subject in the morning was "Let Them Grow Together." In the evening it was "Christ the Great Disturber."

Sunday afternoon, February 2, the Gospel Chorus participated in the Festival of Music at the 12th Baptist Church.

One of the church members, Miss Mildred Turner, was hurtled from the church on Friday of this week.

The Pastor conducted devotedness at the Y.M.C.A. on Wednesday morning. He also delivered the message at Morgan Memorial Church on Friday morning.

PEOPLES BAPTIST CHURCH

Tremont and Camden Streets
Dr. Bernard M. Owens pastor
A large and appreciative congregation last Sunday heard the pastor preach on "New Power for a New Day." The early church was a power but when speaks of world powers today they think of countries and never the church. The church has lost its power because of the three types of members of which it is comprised. First those in the church who have never been born again; then those who have been born again but have remained in the cradle, they have not grown, they are still clinging to childish things. If the church is to regain its place as a world power it must be made up largely of those who have an undoubted faith and are true followers of Christ.

Scripture was read and prayer offered by Rev. Lorenzo Lynch.

The choir, under the direction of Jimmie L. Jackson, sang "Glorious is Thy Name" and "The Heavens are Calling." A Pot Luck Supper was held Saturday night by the Young Adult Fellowship, Herman Calk, president.

The date, April 27, has been selected by the church to present Buckner Gamby in concert at Jordan Hall on his return from two years' study in Vienna.

St. Mark Congregational Church Townsend St., Roxbury

Rev. S. L. Lavincount, pastor
Last Sunday morning Scripture reading was by Rev. Robert Smith, assistant pastor, St. Matthews Chapter 5, verses 1-12 inclusive. The sermon was by Rev. Lavincount, who continued with his discourse on the various large religions of the world. His topic was "Islam or Mohammedanism."

The choir sang two anthems, "Agnus Dei," by Bizet, as arranged for Women's Chorus (The soloist was Miss Dolores Cobb) and "How Lovely is Thy Dwelling Place," by Brahms. The soloist during the offering was Mrs. Annetta Elam Jones. The choir, under the director, Pearlman Lumpkin, and organist Rollins Griffith, be commended.

The flowers for the altar were given by the Angola Club in memory of their members. On the piano were flowers given by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Elam in memory of their children's aunt.

There were some visitors from the various churches within Boston and vicinity.

MUSIC NOTES

By William A. Rhodes

Dr. Clarence Cameron White, internationally famous composer, has announced that the American Symphony Orchestra will give the World Premiere performance of his symphonic composition, "Poems," to be played on Sunday afternoon, February 9, at 2:30 o'clock in the Brooklyn Academy of Music. Also "Poems" will be played on Friday evening, February 14, at 8:30 o'clock, at Hunter College Auditorium in New York. The Hunter College program is scheduled to be broadcast by Radio Station WNYC.

Columbia Ave. A.M.E. Zion Church will be filled to its capacity Sunday afternoon, February 2, by members of the church and by friends of Dr. Walter O. Taylor at a great testimonial musical concert to be given in honor of Dr. Taylor. Music of Handel's "Messiah," will be sung by combined choirs of Zion, Ebenezer, and People's Baptist Church, conducted by Dr. Rhodes. The admission is free. The concert will be at 3:30 o'clock. Persons who wish to avoid standing to hear the performance should come early in order to get a seat.

Myra Hoss, one of the world's greatest concert pianists will give a concert in Symphony Hall, Sunday afternoon, January 26, at 3:00 o'clock.

On February 14, the choir is giving an affair in the gym. Music will be furnished by Rollins Griffith and his orchestra. This affair is given to help in the purchasing of new robes for the choir.

Heart Sunday

Highlight of the 1958 Heart Fund campaign in Massachusetts will be Heart Sunday on February 23, when thousands of Heart Neighbors throughout the state will visit their friends to accept the contributions making possible the Association's work.

NEW YORK—Plans for an intensive voter registration campaign in selected cities of six southern states and stepped-up but less intensive activity elsewhere in the South were announced here by Kelly M. Alexander, chairman of an NAACP committee designated to implement a program developed by southern leaders of the Association in Atlanta last November and approved by the NAACP Board of Directors. A goal of 1,000,000 Negro voters in the South by 1960 was set at the Atlanta meeting.

26, at 3:00 o'clock.
—In Gloucester Memorial Presbyterian Church Sunday afternoon, February 9, at 3:30 o'clock, musical tea will be given. Fred G.G. Quaker is chairman of the program. Some of the soloists will be Dolores Flavors, young talented artist of Ohio, and Anna M. Forbes, local soprano who is well known. Other talent on the program will be announced later.

AKINS REPEATS

On Tuesday, January 21, in the Boston Garden, Virgil Akins of St. Louis turned in a "trick" all over, once again proving that the first one was not a mistake of sheer luck. Mr. DeMarco took an awful beating. From now on he will be unable to throw punches and give and take as he once used to do. Tony was never a champion in a 15-round contest, for he never learned the art of boxing and how to preserve himself to last for any length of time.

Boxing or fighting is an art, not a slaughter. Until one learns that we are only killing our selves in a miserable and slow death, one is in the same boat with Tony. The right kind of fighting Tony has never learned. Too bad, Tony, you possessed the body, but your brain was not trained.

Fighting By Mistake

Tony DeMarco declared that he made a mistake in the first meeting with Akins and that he was not going to repeat it in his return match. Remember, friends, that one cannot profit by his or anyone else's mistake if one cannot think. You and I know DeMarco was not "laughing" at Akins.

One cannot think the right way if one is not taught how. Most of us were born with five senses, but most of us of those five senses have not been cultivated to perform many varieties of which our bodies are capable of doing.

Let us hope that Tony has made and saved enough money to let this be his last fight. I think everyone who saw the bout is earnest at heart will agree and is.

with me that it ought to be Tony's swansong. Nobody can forever take beatings like those which he has been taking. It is now too late for Tony to learn.

Someone Else

Good luck, poor Tony, you have done your job the very best you could, under the circumstances of your condition. Let a newcomer take over and learn from your mistakes while you sit back and take it easy. The fight game will still go on without you. You are still young, and so you can enjoy some of your life, if you quit the ring, as I suggest. I will also suggest that you do not try to make a comeback. In other words, let us call it quits so far as boxing concerns yourself.

Manager Signing Kennels in Florida

Raynham, Mass. — General Manager Russ Murray has arrived in Miami, Fla., for the express purpose of signing kennels for the 44 night meeting at Raynham Park this spring. This marks the first time in eight years that Murray will have personally had a hand in the signing.

Many of the greyhound owners and trainers he will talk with got their New England from Raynham Park eighteen years ago, and a number of them have gone on to be the biggest names in the business, have grown rich in the process as well.

Among those Russ Murray will sit down with are: Happy Stutz, Larry Nave, Skinny Beckner, Guy Gavin, and Mitch Kirkland.

With racing Commission approval, Raynham Park will conduct a 44 night meeting, opening on Friday, April 18, and continuing through Saturday, June 7.

NATIONAL ROUNDUP

Montgomery, Ala. — Scientist George Washington Carver is the most popular Negro in Alabama history, according to the Negro high school students of that state. In second place, they ranked singer Nat "King" Cole. Hank Aaron of the world champion Milwaukee Braves came third, topping the Tuskegee game, Booker T. Washington, who was fourth. Another baseball star, Willie Mays was tied for fifth while ex-heavyweight Joe Louis was sixth.

BY VIN HAYNES

Rookie left winger Willie O'Ree of the Quebec Aces became the first Negro to appear in a National Hockey League game last week when the Boston Bruins used him in spots against the league - leading Montreal Canadiens. Willie's play with the Bruins was short-lived but it is expected that the 22-year-old rookie will be back in the line-up before long.

The veterans will continue to do the bulk of duty for the Bruins and when Willie comes back up he'll be a member of the third wave. O'Ree's opportunity to make history came when he replaced Gerry Ehaman who had returned to his Springfield club. Ehaman was filling in for Leo Labine, the ailing regular for the Bruins.

Middleweight Ray Drayton added another victim to his list of victories at Raynham by knocking out Kenny Stoker in two minutes of the second round in his battle at the Rolla arena. On the same card, Raynham Brown fought ex-school and amateur star Guy LeConte to a draw.

The New England A.A.U.

Smith, Jones Top In K. of C. Meet, Gilbert Victor

Rudy Smith of Bates College and Charlie "Deacon" Jones of the University of Iowa turned in separate sparkling events in last week's Knights of Columbus Truck Meet at Boston Garden. Winston-Salem's Teachers ace Elias Gilbert captured the high hurdle, and ran a brilliant relay leg in his evening's effort.

In the Eddie Farrell 500 yard run, the specialty restricted to New England college entries only, ... took the lead from the sound of the gun and maintained it. Whirling down the stretch, he outdistanced the rest of the field by nearly ten yards.

Smith almost added further luster to his name by doing up a huge gap in Bates' relay skirmish with Rhode Island, Brown and Connecticut. Bates finished a close second to Rhode Island.

New Two-Mile Favorite

The Deacon from Iowa became the new favorite of two mile runs for Bostonians with a steady drive and a sprint finish. Shaking off the threat of Gordon Mackenzie, Jones went into his sprint with a tap and a halt to go.

He extended his lead to ten yards at the gun and rolled away to a thunderous applause in 9:42, nothing in way of a record but a brilliant finish. Middlefield's Wayne Bishop and Carl Partz finished in order.

Cleanliness is possibly the most of a baby's care. A baby-streptococcus bacteria have practically no resistance to infection. Every sister should make it a rule to let her hands be clean before preparing or serving baby's food, and also before touching baby or anything with which he comes into contact.

SIDE GLANCES

Indoor Track and Field Championships will be held at Phillips Academy in Andover on Wednesday, February 5th, at 7:00 o'clock. This event will attract a large host of collegiate entries in the nation. Among possible defenders will be Boston University's Gene Ellis.

Art Jones and Frank O'Connell really turned the heat on as they moved Brighton to a 102-53 triumph over Hyde Park last Tuesday. Art hit for 22 and Frank tallied 27. Martie and Paul Gomes played up on New Bedford as they paced New Bedford Vokey 74-58. Martin tallied 20 and Paul sunk 22.

Mary and Moore sunk 22 points apiece to earn Brockton a 57-41 triumph over Watertown. Sugar Ray Robinson and champion Carmen Basilio will resume their war in a 15-round main event for the world's middleweight crown in Chicago on March 25. Everyone will be looking forward to this bout wondering if the colorful Robinson will be able to regain the crown he yielded last September by a split decision. Only disheartening thing is that there will be no national television of the fight.

Thomas Sets BAA High Jump Record Brown Wins '500'

Big John Thomas of Rindge Tech continued his assault on existing local high jump records last Saturday by erasing the old mark set annually by A.A. school boy meet at Boston Garden while Al Brown of Malden pulled an upset triumph in the 300 yard run.

Higher Mark

Thomas established a new mark of 6 feet, 3 and three quarter inches in the jump and almost had company but for Morris Beckwith's brush of the stick in the Newton star's last attempt. The Rindge ace prepared to go for higher stakes of 6 feet, 3 one half inches and watched as a host of interested collegiate coaches down for the evening's K. of C. games. But the pressure was on following the high and tried try was spoiled only by his foot on his descent. However, he carried the determination over into the evening's event and finished in a second place tie. Bob Barkedale and Mike Herman at the height.

If anyone felt Al Brown he did not have a chance at the 300 yard run he certainly did not believe it, because he set the record gasping with his 34.2 seconds mark in his trial heat. It showed that it was not merely chance, the grid captain-lect of Malden repeated the time out, running Joe Goodward of English, Bob Parks of B.C.H. and Nate Martin of Lynn Classical. Parris Nipped

Surprises were handed down earlier when favored Bobby Parry did not have a chance at the 300 yard dash. Parry was nipped by Larry Smith of Newton star to 36.50 yard dash crown in 57.5 seconds. Smith also made it a repeat performance because he earned the same honor in the semi-final against the speedy Malden star. The second heat of the 600 yard run found two top favorites, Alan Jackson of Rindge

Women In Bowling

By HARNETTE HARKINS

Bowling with candlepins is great fun and a very healthy pastime, but this type of pin is very temperamental at times and refuses to go down even if you hit them at what seems to be the right spot. Ann Glina of the SPEEDSTERS had perfect control over her own Saturday night. She broke the high single with a lousy 131. Keeping up with the record breaking strings in the C.W.B.I. is a tall order. Two weeks ago the record was held by Dotie Hawkins of the FLASHIES. Anything can happen before the season is over but Ann has given us all something to shoot at.

The 'straight' ARROWS continue to hold on, in fact they have increased their lead to three over the PINS and over the METEORS. The score now stands: ARROWS, 45 pins; SPEEDSTERS, 42; OWLS, 39; METEORS, 37. The new record WOWS, 36 each, and the PINS, 26 points behind in 6th place.

It must seem very funny to the ARROWS not to have the WOWS in the lead over their old rivals. We are afraid the cold rivalry that we enjoyed in the past will have to be postponed for this season. The WOWS a very rocky start, losing three of the regulars at the very beginning of the season. The win was a relief and all taking that their sails however, because Zee is back and Ada Green and Benice Burgess are doing a wonderful job.

The OWLS AND FLASHES are the only two teams to come up with perfect scores. Teams winning three were SPEEDSTERS, PINS and the OWLS split with the CHIPS.

Credits to the spares who come out faithfully every week, they really are the backbone of the game. As many of the teams will testify.

OPEN LETTER TO THOSE WHO HAVE LEFT US:

Dear members, We realize that some of you have left for reasons beyond your control but to those of you who have other reasons put aside the petty things and let us all miss you and need you to make the C.W.B.I. the great league it always was. Just one great big family.

THE CHERRY BOWL roll of promises to be the biggest and cost unique that has ever been led at the '55. We hope to see our many friends out to catch the giant bowl o' rama on February 22.

WOMEN'S

The Strikers are in first place by 3 games. The Jets are in second place. The Atons hold the third place position. Evelyn Tyrner held position of High Single for the evening with a score of 111 and Fausella Booker kept position of High Three with 315 points.

The Team Standings
The Atons and Pirates are tied for High Team Single with a total of 474 points and the Jets have the standing of High Team Single with a total pinfall of 1363.

The Three Top Women For Evenings
1st place is Fausella Booker with an average of 93.6; 2nd place is Evelyn Tyrner, 92.6; and 3rd place, Mary Smith, with 90.6.

EMMANUEL BAPTIST CHURCH

Hillside and Eastern Avenues

Rev. Earl W. Lawson, pastor

"God Has No Granchildren" was the theme of the pastor's message last Sunday to the congregation attending the morning worship services. Chapter verses 1 to 13, was read for the lesson reading with the scripture taken from the 8th chapter of John verses 12 to 59. The Pastor, in his sermon, mentioned flowers were donated by Miss Harriet Smith, in celebration of the birthdays of her mother and sister.

Mrs. Hazel Henry was in charge of the church nursery, sponsored by the Esther Philathea Bible Class.

The Esther Philathea Bible Class held a cottage service meeting at the home of Miss Margaret McCall.

Lycurgus Lockman, church director, has gone to the bedside of his father in Baltimore, Maryland.

Prayers are asked for all who are sick or shut-in. The list includes the following: Mrs. Nova's Gaddie at the Carlton Home, Roxbury; Carl Fisher at Lemuel Shattuck Hospital, Jamaica Plain; Richard Smith at Whitman Memorial Hospital, Everett; Rebecca Clark at McFarlane Memorial Manor, Malden; Leonard Jackson at home; Mrs. Bathia Valentine at home; Mrs. Hannah Farmer at home; Sarah Baxter at the Grover Manor Hospital in Revere; and Mrs. Sera J. Carter at home.

During the past week the pastor attended the Boston Unit Association Executive meeting at the First Baptist Church, Malden, and reported on the work of the Ordination Council of which he is chairman. He attended at Cambridge Baptist Church a teacher's meeting on released time religious education. Last Wednesday evening the pastor was consulted at a luncheon with the Malden Family Service. Mrs. Gloria Harris attended the monthly meeting of Middlesex County Board of Christian Education in Arlington; the meeting was also attended by the pastor. He was guest speaker for the Morse Class for Men at the First Baptist Church, last Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock on "Great Lessons From Parking Motors." The class was attended by about 50.

O'Banyoun's Observations

Last Sunday morning St. Paul A.M.E. Church showed the effect of cold weather by rather small audience; but so many have the habit of coming to hear the Spiritual lessons, and eat the Spiritual food which is always dispensed by Rev. Dr. Barrow. We made up in enthusiasm for the lack in numbers. As usual, the Pastor retailed the message which must have come from the Holy Spirit. His subject was "Feed My Sheep," text in the Gospel of St. John, 21st chapter. Senior choir occupied, also a usual, and the Spiritual warble, as well as the heat in the auditorium, made everybody glad to have been there. I don't know who invented the months and days rally which the Pastor projected on the members (and friends), early in the year; but it is lots of fun, and it is coming again by popular demand. Come on out and hear about it. Tomorrow is the time of St. Mark's Choir performance, at 7 p.m.

Maile Sheppard, wife of the talented, veteran flute player, Charlie Sheppard, has gone on to eternal life, departing this life, January 13, and all who directed this couple, with condolence with Charlie for the temporary loss of his mate.

I seem to have trouble getting the Liberal Arts Club performer in charge of the church nursery, liberty of reporting that Fred Riggs was the soloist at their last meeting, Sunday, January 13, Tomcorrow, 5:30 p.m.

Max A. van der Samen, Colebridge-Taylor Musical Association will hold its regular, monthly meeting, with Percy Steele, speaker, supported by Estelle Broadhead and Miss Steele. The eulogists for the annual presentation of honorees, Sunday, February 25, St. Mark Church, have been chosen: for Mrs. Ernest Mrs. Estella Crosby, Mrs. Mamie Davenport; for Miss Gladys Hols, Mrs. Elsie Joseph; for Dr. Charles G. Steward, Ernest O'Banyoun; for Mrs. Eleanor Wallace, Mrs. Ruby Henderson. The interspersed musical numbers will be published as soon as released by chairman Lillian Williams.

President Louis E. Pasco, Sr. of the Equal Rights League has given me the green light to go ahead with the annual salute to Frederick Douglas, on the anniversary of his birthday, February 14. So, let us all tie to Douglas Square, at noon of that day. We expect to have traditional exercises. Hoping for element weather, we usually have a tribute to the memory of Douglas from the girls of the school, one from the boys of Sherwin School, placing of a wreath by the City of Boston, and remarks by speakers who will be in attendance. We will devote the details to a later issue of the CHRONICLE.

Among the trail blazers who have gone on ahead I note the

THE SOCIAL WHIRL

By Miss DORIS E. ROOSA

Hello, Bostonians!

Isn't it good to see the rain after having so much snow to be melted. Hope it all melted before the next one promised us.

The Jack and Jill Club of Boston held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Anna Carter, 31 Brookline St., Roxbury, present to enjoy the meeting and the delicious repast were Mesdames: Marjorie Catron, Marion Westbrook, Dorothy Williams, Zelda Wilson, and Ora Woodard. The January Freedom House Community Coffee Hour will take place this Saturday, January 23, at 9:45 to 11:15 instead of on Tuesday as is the custom. This Coffee Hour will honor Lady Kate E. Korsh, wife of the chief justice and former governor general of Ghana, West Africa. Lady Kate and her husband, Sir Arku Korsh are here to meet members of our judicial bodies and to study our judicial structure. Lady Kate is interested in children and devotes her time to Y.W.C.A. work, nursery school, day care centers, etc. While in Boston they are living at Dana-Palmer House at Harvard University.

"The Women" will be presented at the N.E. Mutual Hall, Friday, February 7. The sponsors are the Professional and Business Men's Club of Boston.

You and your friends are cordially invited to attend a cocktail sip and fashion show on Sunday evening, February 16, from four until 10, at 86 Harold St., Roxbury. There will be professional models in the latest fashion in cocktail attire. Why not join the Jack and Jill Club of Boston in this gala social gathering with cocktails, soft music and the latest in fashion. Subscription $1.25.

Until next week send your news to Doris E. Roosa, 140 Chestnut St., Cambridge, 38, Mass.
