Bias Bill Bars Basketball Games

Greatly, Ohio—Because organi zations in the Ohio legis lature enacted a law forbidding "competitive" and "athletic events," Colorado State College did not schedule basketball games in Louisiana. One of the squad members at Colorado Col

INDIAN BRAVES ON THE WARPATH

It is a sad and sobering reminder of the virulent persistence of U.S. racism that many of those national newspapers which have carried editorials commending the North Carolina Indians for their direct action in routing the cowardly barbarians of the Ku Klux Klan with guns would not have praised Goes in the Tar Heel State for defending themselves in the same manner. Nor would local law enforcement officers have refrained from aiding their kinmen and neighbors among the hooded mobsters. Indeed, if ten Negroes went so far as to fire back, in sorried formation, at valliant Klan odds of one hundred to one, the news reaching the nation and the world would be that they had gone berserk.

As the Boston Daily Record, in its editorial of January 22 entitled "War Whoops Again," correctly states, "there has been little racial prejudice against Indians in American history — they seem to be doing well in several parts of the country particularly where there is oil as there is in Oklahoma.

But what the North Carolina Indians have done is bigger than land and oil and such manifestations of wealth. They stood on their dignity as human beings. They raised their heads high and showed that they were men — for that we honor any American.

Those Indians in N. Carolina acted as men should in the presence of a bunch of bullying bums.

Whatever strategy and tactics required to destroy the Ku Klux Klan utterly, root and branch, to the last corpse, and should probably have the approval of all freedom loving Americans, regardless of race, creed, color, or national origin. Let us not forget, therefore, in praising the Indians that the less favorably regarded, but more oppressed Negroes in places like Montgomery and Tuskegee, Alabama, are also showing heroism through non-violent non cooperation with the evil of Jim Crowism. That is their technique.

HYMAN PILL DAY IN CAMBRIDGE

So rare are genuine integrity and probity in municipal government, as Lincoln Steffens pointed out, that the office holder who possesses those virtues glows like a candle in the forest at midnight. The city council and mayor of Cambridge were altogether right in designating last Wednesday as "Hyman Pill Day" in honor of the veteran councilman, aged 85, who had served with such pre-eminent distinction for 24 years until his retirement last December 31.

Councilman Pill is a vigorous champion of civil rights, and endeared himself to Negro residents of his city by his vigilance in sponsoring resolutions in the council to promote their immediate interests as well as the national struggle of their people for the freedom of full citizenship on the basis of complete parity with all other Americans. His philanthropic generosity has aided Negro churches and community institutions, to say nothing of individual students in Harvard College or the Mass. Institute of Technology. Faithful to the principles of his own creed, Mr. Pill respects and venerates learning, and so has exhibited unusual interest in the problems of higher education. It is to be hoped, therefore, that his advice and counsel will be available during his retirement.

WEST INDIAN FEDERATION

On January 6, 1958 another memorable event took its place in the annals of recorded history when Lord Halles, P.C., assumed the office of Governor-
AKINS REPEATS

On Tuesday, January 25, at 7:30 p.m., in the Boston Garden, Virgil Akins of St. Louis turned the 15-round contest over, once again proving that the first one was not a mistake of sheer luck. Mr. DeMarco took an earful beating. From now on he will be unable to throw punches and give and take as he once used to do. Tony was never a champion in a 15-round contest, for he never learned the art of boxing and how to preserve himself to last for any length of time.

Boxing or fighting is an art, not a slaughter. Until one learns that we are only killing ourselves in a miserable and slow death, one is in the same boat with Tony. The right kind of fighting Tony lacks. Too bad, Tony; you possessed the body but your brain was trained.

Prodding By Mistakes

Tony declared that he made a mistake in the first meeting with Akins and that he was not going to repeat it in his return match. Remember, the trick is not to profit by his or anyone else’s mistake if you can. If you and I know DeMarco was not taught to think, cannot think the right way if one is not taught how. Mistakes are made, but with most of us the same five senses have not been cultivated to perform many of the things of which our bodies are capable of.

Let us hope that Tony has made and saved enough money to let his be his last fight. I think everyone who saw and is earnest at heart will agree with me that it ought to be Tony’s swansong. Nobody can force a champion to fight as long as he wants to fight, which he has been taking. It is good for both of them to let Tony learn. Someone Else

Good luck, poor Tony, you have held your own for the very best you could, under the circumstances of your condition. Let a man learn to fight and learn from your mistakes while you are back and take it easy. (The fight game will still go on without you.) You are still young, and if you earmark your youth, you can enjoy some part of your fighting life, if you quit the ring, the guilt is on me, I suggest. I will also suggest that you do not try to make a comeback. In other words, let us call it quite as boxing concerns yourself.

Manager Signing Kernels in Florida

Raynham, Mass. — General Manager Daniel LeBlanc arrived in Miami, Fla., for the exchange meeting with the for the 44 night meeting at Raynham Park this spring. He arrived in Miami last week and emitted his contract with the Pleasure booking firm. Too bad, Tony; you possessed the body but your brain was trained.

Rudy Smith of Bates College defeated Paul Cheston of the University of Iowa turned second in an exchange meeting of the K. of C. Friday, April 18, and continued through Saturday, June 3.

ROUNDUP

Montgomery, Ala. — Scientist Glenn Reynolds announced that the most popular Negro in Alabama history, according to the Negro high school students of that state. In second place, they placed Edwin Womble. Hank Aaron of the world champion Milwaukee Braves came third, topping the Tuskegee ace, Booker T. Washington, who was fourth. Another baseball star, Willie Mays was rated third while ex-heavyweight Joe Louis was sixth.

How Two-Mile Favorite

The Descent from Iowa became the new favorite of two mile and 3,000 yard races. Mackenzie Jones went into his event with a 20% lead and a half to go. He extended his lead to ten lengths, then slowed to a thunderous applause in 4:04.2, nothing in way of a new record. M. E. McKenzie, Wayne Bishop and Carl Fertney finished in order.

MEDFORD EVENTS

BY MARGO WILSON

The Women's Federation of the Smithfield Baptist Church will hold an annual Valentine's Day tea at the church's Senior Prom on Wednesday, January 25, at 8:30 p.m. Please call Mrs. William Cioci, or any member of the church, to attend and bring a friend.

From home in military service is Captain Loyd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tyner of Long Neck, West Medford, and William Thompson, who is a resident of 131 Hamilton Ave. His company is home permanently, but William Thompson's company is stationed in Hawaii.

The Masons of the community gave a very enjoyable dinner to the Lieutenant of the West Medford Community Corps.

The following girls and boys of the community attended the Medford High School Senior Prom, on the 17th day of January:

WOMEN

Bonnie Booth, Barbara Talbot, Diane Maddex, Harvey Jones, Sandra Maddex, Donald Franklin, Dennis Smith, Janet Laughlin, and Joyce Finlay. All enjoyed the prom tremendously.
