Truman Says Dixiecrats Can't Walk Out

SEN. JOHN F. KENNEDY (second right) chats with headline guests who came from afar to greet him last Saturday evening at a testimonial dinner in Hotel Statler Hilton at which he was awarded a plaque by the Mass. Citizens Committee for Minorities Rights for his outstanding record as Congressman and Sen. Aaron on behalf of civil rights legislation. Led the right: Senator Paul H. Douglas of Illinois, native of Salem; Bishop W. J. Walla, president of the AME Zion Church; Senator Kennedy; and Hon. Bruce E. Jack, president of the bar association of Manhattan, New York City.

By Samuel F. Perry, Jr.
Former President of the Missouri State Teachers of England, Washington, D.C., for what is an extraordinary failure to exercise the necessary leadership at the proper time with respect to school integration in the South. Speaking at the testimonial dinner given at the Sheraton-Plaza for Attorney-General Ed- ward J. McCormack, Jr. the fiery Mr. Truman summed up the possibility that Southern Democrats might work a victory over civil rights.

"The South," he told his listeners, "isn't going to welcome them again. They served in 1868 and 1951 and they lost both times. They won't this time, and they won't this time again." Mr. Truman indicated that it was in December that in the last four years since the 1954 desegregation decision of the U.S. Supreme Court that "proper leadership had not been exercised.

"When it is expected leaders of account will enforce the law, that the law be enforced and not be cracked up as extremism take to heart. They come to believe that they, too, can break the law with impunity."

GREAT DAY IN THE MORNING

Some dates are memorable in the history of mankind, The Fourth of July, for example, commemorates the signing of the Declaration of Independence by the Founding Fathers. The birthdate of George Washington is celebrated on the 22nd of February. But December 25? Those are some of the dates which never vary. We cannot predict whether May 17 will be observed in the future, when segregation is only a memory, in perpetual observance of the U.S. Supreme Court’s decision in 1857 outlawing public school segregation. Today (that is, October 25) is one of those days which will predictably be important in world history, for it will mark the commencement of the concourse of the Sacred College of Cardinals: who will choose the new successor to Pope Pius XII. If Ernasto Cardani, 52, of Genoa, or Pope Pius XII’s Cardinal adviser, 75, of Munich, is selected, persons who think that an Italian or a foreign prince of the Church in the Curia is inevitable will rejoice in the outcome of what must be specified. The next occupant of the Papacy attests to the solidarity of the Roman Catholic Church amid all the heavy assaults against it by Communism, Nationalism, Secularism, and Materialism those foes to its very existence and spiritual mission.

In Boston’s Negro community today, the story of yesterday will mark the official visit made by Hon. Sir Granville Herbert Adams, Prime Minister of the Federation of the West Indies, since he vacated the post of Premier of Barbados to devote his energies as a statesman to guiding the future of his country. The wealth of history in the making of the path of self-government on the basis of democratic freedom. We send Sir Granville with warm fraternal hopes for success, for we are mindful of the difficulties of a statesman in solving the problems of a new nation.

ARE THE YOUTH GOING TO MARCH?

The "Youth March for Integrated Schools" scheduled to take place today in the nation’s capital today resulted in a legal battle which may require the services of counsel from the leadership of the NAACP Youth Council virtually inactive, anyhow far from robust, though it was the germinal factor in stimulating integrationist ideas. The legislative or political action of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People in the Greater Boston area will be the delegates, with superannuated "youths by courtesy"—persons of both races, on the lower ward of thirty. The harried and harassed leaders of the NAACP Youth Council, having been joined at Washington, under the voluntary discipline of supervision imposed by the urgency of a cause with which they are bound to be vitally concerned, would rescue scores from the despair and frustration confusing them.

The success of the near and far-fetched attack was made, probably not still physically strong enough to lead the Youth March, though God has spared him to continue giving us the benefit of his sagacious leadership. However, his valiant helpmate and his beloved Musser will be the leaders. We hope that they will not judge Boston’s poor showing in the line of march at typical of its entire citizen’s indifference or permanent, so far as the participation of its Negro residents goes in militant action for the freedom of full citizenship implicit in school integration.

D. C. BAR ARM, FINALLY ADMITS NEGRO LAWYERS

Washington, D.C. (Special) The District of Columbia Recorder’s Court, which has finally elected to admit Negro lawyers into its membership.

Specifically, the issue decided by the court was whether the Association by-laws would be amended by striking the provisions in the by-laws requiring membership in the Recorder’s Court’s bar. The Committee of 15 on October 25th reported that the necessary two-thirds majority.

The controversial issue was first raised in 1898.

The Association’s Committee on Committees made a report that the change in the by-laws a report filed in May of this year.

At that time the Committee stated that the adoption of qualified lawyers from membership on racial grounds impeded the progress of the Association and that its recommendations being totally disregarded.

"Further consideration," continued the committee’s members, "the Association’s policy of affirmative professional organization in the District of Columbia which would give an opportunity to qualified persons solely because of their race."

October 25th was more than a necessary two-thirds majority.

THE FACTS

By Columbus Trenholm

Executive editor of the city bureau is all over the job during a campaign, and on this front are valuable to the candidates, writes their staff. For example, the third of November, 1960, Governor John F. Kennedy, in his last letter to Governor, Negro committee members and Negro citizens, are banding together to strengthen the labor movement.

Undersecretary of State Christian A. Herter, Sr., former bay State Governor, has informed the entire electorate that he is going to run for Governor, Governor Herberto L. Jackson of Malden, Rev. Dr. Richard M. Selleck, of the Western University, and John B. Hennigan, Jr., Democratic nominees for Governor in the next election.

Senator Thomas H. Hennigan, Jr., commenting on the results of his first campaign, has urged his constituents to join John L. Salitallactic, Jr., Democratic nominee for Governor in the next election.

At its political education meeting, on Wednesday, October 8, the Massachusetts Federation of Labor endorsed Senator John F. Kennedy, Governor Forster Forster, and Lieutenant Governor, Lt. Governor Murphy for re-election. Senator Kennedy, who has virtually completed his ninth annual trip to the State, has recently presented his Campaign Memorandum Plans to Senator Kennedy.

A sub-committee appointed by Rep. Bayley, who is now referred to as a"white"—especially the legislative session that Bayley had encouraged a 50 per cent increase in rent. Bayley’s vote was "yes." The Bill No. 178 would have limited severly any raise in the district, and any raise that has already forced long-time residents of the district to move—include landlords and tenants.

Rep. Bayley announced: "My opponent has agreed to debate all the vital issues of this campaign on Tuesday, October 28, at 5 p.m., at the University Club under the auspices of the non-partisan State Club, and, of course, we have agreed to underwrite all expenses.

Citing that in the election against Rep. Bayley is the Democratic nominee, Rep. Richard R. Caples of Ward 14, Polkians give the lead to each in this respective ward with Ward 14 holding the decisive balance of power. The other candidates who are still running are respectively independent and independent.

ANTIGLOP PAMPHLET DISTRIBUTED IN NEW YORK

The Newburgh City Council has voted to ask the U.S. Department of Commerce to investigate the distributors of an anti-German pamphlet.

One of the pamphlets was received by City Manager Albert J. F. Philips, who on record against the "mongrelization of the American race" and to oppose the NAACP.

The pamphlets were reportedly distributed by a French church in Somersworth, Me., and bore a Phoenix, Art’s postmark.

"The only way to keep men from sagging against grievances is to make them stand together (Woodrow Wilson)."
The Rambler

Well, here we go again ....

We all know the problems faced by the city's auto insurance companies. The rising cost of claims and the increase in theft are making it difficult for them to stay in business.

The Mayor has called a meeting of insurance companies and city officials to discuss solutions to this problem. We will keep you updated on the progress of these discussions.

The women in bowling

By Harriette Harkins

There were some changes made at the bowling alley last week. The club's new leader was a woman, and she brought new ideas to the game.

The Women's Bowling Association has decided to hold a tournament this weekend. All female bowlers are welcome to participate.

IN MEMORIAM

1954
OCTOBER
1954
IN LOVING MEMORY OF MATILDA M. PORTUONDO
Oh, what would I give to clasp your hand.
Your dear, kind face to see.
Your loving smile, your welcome voice,
That meant so much to me.
No one knows the silent heartache.
Only those who have lost can tell
Of grief that is borne in silence
For the one I loved so well.
My lips cannot tell how I miss her.
My heart cannot tell what I say.
God alone knows how I miss her
In a home that is lonesome today.
