U. S. Increases West Indies Quota

By William Harrison
No statement or act in the long series of events which made last Tuesday's banquet-ball upon red by the West Indies Federation Celebration Committee at the Hotel Sheraton, Plaza the year's most outstanding social affair evoked more prolonged salutes of applause than the announcement by Hon. Fred William Jandrey, deputy assistant secretary, Bureau of European Affairs, Department of State, that the United States Government, which he represented, was doubling the quota of West Indian immigrants allowed to enter under the McCarran Act.

Reliable sources surmised that the decision by President Eisenhower and Secretary of State John Foster Dulles was made on the advice of Hon. Maxwell M. Rabb of Brookline secretary to the Cabinet, who is resigning May 1 to join a New York law firm. Because of contact with persons of West Indian origin in Boston, Mr. Rabb, who has long served as the President's principal adviser on minority group affairs is one of the best informed high-ranking administration officials on Caribbean developments. Because of his TV debate with Governor's Councillor Christian A. Herter, Jr. on his jobs previous to battling recent Gov. Furcolo stated that it was impossible to attend in full dress, as he would have wished. He hailed the Federation as a major event in the history of America, declaring: "It is particularly fitting that we should be celebrating her Fed-

WBZ TALENT FINDS GET CONTRACT

Five local schoolboys who have been singing together for eight weeks have won an RCA Victor Recording contract.

Called the Interludes, they are: Fred Jackson, and Otha Smith, Boston English; Ken Loftman, Memorial; and Frank Anderson, Boston Trade-Ed Adams, Roxbury Boston Latin.

The singers who won the WBZ-WBZA semi-finals last week of a Westinghouse Broadcasting Co. Teen-age Talent Search, took second place in the final round.

However, the contest judges awarded the Interludes a special recording contract because of their fine showing.

GOOD CITIZENSHIP AWARD

Dr. Martin Luther King was the recipient of the Massachusetts Citizenship Citation for Civil Rights, Good Citizenship Citation on Sunday, April 20. In his acceptance speech to several hundred persons gathered at Freedom House, 14 Crawford St., Roxbury, Dr. King again uttered those now famous words: "I accept this award for the 50,000 Negroes of Montgomery, Alabama, who walked in dignity rather than ride in humiliation."

The Massachusetts Commission Against Discrimination has announced that a satisfactory settlement had been made in the case of Dr. Eugene A. Graham, Jr., a Negro scientist, who had refused accommodations for a Malden apartment house owner.

Following a conference at the MCAD offices in which all of the principals participated, Commissioner Walter C. Carrington said that the owner offered Dr. Graham, the complainant, accommodations in an all white apartment house owned by him. Dr. Graham declined the offer as he was already situated in an apartment in Arlington.

The apartment house owner agreed to return Dr. Graham's $115 deposit and also to pay damages of $250. Dr. Graham was satisfied with the terms of the settlement.

Dr. Graham, a MIT graduate, engaged by an electronics firm in Malden engaged in classified defense work, experienced a series of rebuffs when he sought to make his home in the community.

The vital importance of spiritual growth will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday.

Keynoting the Lesson-Sermon entitled Prostration after Death is the Golden Text from Jeremiah (17:17): "Blessed is the man that trusteth in the Lord, and whose hope the Lord is."

Selections to be read from Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (406:20-23): "We can, and ultimately shall, so rise as to avail ourselves in every direction of the supremacy of Truth over error, Life over death, and good over evil, and this growth will go on until we arrive at the fulness of God's idea, and no more fear that we will be sick and die."

From the Bible will be read the following (Luke 22:28): "For he is not a God of the dead, but of the living, for all unto him."

Later he attended Selma University, Selma, Alabama, where he graduated with honors. He became a Christian and joined and served as president of the 100 voice choir for many years under the late Rev. It was here he became interested in real estate and the variety store.

About 1936, he was appointed Boston agent for the Atlanta World. The paper publishes up to the extent that he started a house to house delivery on his bicycle. He was the agent for many other papers including the Norfolk Journal and Guide, which he continued until he passed on April 1, 1958, residing at 322 Northampton st., Boston, with his wife, Mrs. Edna M. Mitchell.

In a brief prepared speech the members of the House of Representatives led the newly elected senators and the appointed Senators that they had the responsibility of insuring that the Federal Government in strength and purpose.

In reply Prime Minister Adams indicated that the reconstruction would need the help and encouragement of the British Government.

Qualified political observers privately have expressed the opinion that within a five year period the Federation may have independent status as Commonwealth Dominion similar in structure to Canada.

Recent development to the Indies point to a calculated effort to intensify the cultural and political ties between the two areas. For instance, American, Austrian, West German, Canadian and Mexican business concerns are currently being set up in the area. In Jamaica, for example, a Mexican mining concern is expected to spend in the neighborhood of $500,000 in refining copper and iron ore.

Understandably the trade of the Federation is currently geared to the economy of England. In 1957 the United Kingdom had an export trade with the West Indies of 166.1 million, while it imported goods from the West Indies totaling in value roughly $210 million. FACE PROBLEMS, CLERGY URGES CHURCH GROUP

"It is up to us to face the existing problems of our local community," urged Rev. Michael Haynes in his address at a Vital Challenge in a Crisis Hour, before nearly 150 men attending the 12th Baptist Men's Club breakfast at the Warren St. Center.

Rev. Haynes stressed the importance of the church's awareness of problems such as mental illness, education, recreation, housing and delinquency, and pointed out the role of the church must play.

Lashing the growing problem of alcoholism and laxity in respect for authority, the youthful cleric also urged his listeners to orient newcomers to Boston as a key to part of the problem on hand.

The church's effort to aid in the solution of the problem will gain its full status in the community.

He also advised a stronger concern and support of the religious education program to combat the ever growing delinquency and youth's neglect of the church.

Prior to Rev. Haynes' message, Mr. Elton of Christ Temple sang "A Believer's Rest." Hester introduced the main speaker.

Boston Trade's Tennis leader Earl Yale, opened their season in good stride with this week. Against his English High opponent he triumphed 7-8, 8-7, and on Tuesday against South Boston he won 6-3, 6-1.

Incidentally, in scholastic tennis the game can be won by one point after gaining six points.

Manny Burgo, lightweight amateur star bowed in the AAU quarter finale to heavyweight Syd Adams of Philadelphia who outpointed him. The New Bedford fighter had bowed out by decision in the New England finals but they figured his experience would make him a good bet for this sector's bid for a national crown.

In collegiate sports, ex-Memorial star Roscoe Baker is remembering a lot of action as a pitcher on Delaware State's team.

Speaking of Delaware, that's where track and baseball star Hewie Joyner is being followed by graduation from Memorial. Hewie picked up the big cup last week for capturing the Norfolk three mile race. Also setting his mind on school next fall is Latin's Johnny Haynes who will be attending University of Mass.

New Cereal-Milk-Fruit Combos

Ready-to-eat oat cereal served parfait style with cinnamon applesauce and milk is but one of many delicious combos developed for the Cereal and Milk Spring Festival. For the fifth year the American Dairy Association and the Cereal Institute have joined to sponsor this festival during April to promote the food value of cereal and milk.

An average serving of cereal and milk costs less than five cents, yet it provides top-quality protein, quickly available food energy, essential B-complex vitamins (thiamine, riboflavin, and niacin), and the important minerals (calcium, phosphorus, and iron). In the cereal serving, the cereal and milk supplement each other. The nutrients that are in smaller amounts in the milk, such as niacin and iron, are supplied in larger amounts by the cereal and vice versa. Cereal is low in calcium and riboflavin, for instance, and milk supplies these in greater proportion. This is an outstanding example of nutritional supplementation.

Here are some newly-tested cereal-milk-fruit combos:
Spoon one to two tablespoons of orange marmalade, current jelly, or spiced cherry preserves into a large sized cereal bowl. Top with your choice of ready-to-eat cereal and serve with milk.
Let your own creative ability take away and make up your own favorite cereal-milk-fruit combos.

SATURDAY, APRIL 26, 1958

Another historic anti-colonialist conference has taken its place beside the Asian-African Conference in Bandung, Indonesia, of April 1955. From April 21 to 23 the Conference of Independent African States met in Accra, Ghana, under the impetus of Prime Minister Kwame Nkrumah, and it will convene every two years, the next site being Addis Ababa, Ethiopia. The participating governments were Ethiopia, Ghana, Liberia, Morocco, Sudan, Lybia, Tunisia, and Egypt, which is to say, the self-governing Negro and Arab states on the continent. They were united, as was to be expected, in opposition to racialism and segregation, and so excluded were the governments in Africa which notoriously practice those vices, the Central African Federation — Northern and Southern Rhodesia, Nyasaland — the Union of South Africa and Kenya. Inevitably was protest against the brutal war waged by British imperialism against the Algerian people in their struggle for the freedom of national independence.

It is too early to gauge fully the effect of the Accra Conference, but one of its byproducts will be more unified and hence more effective action among the African Negro and Arab nations in the UNITED NATIONS on certain questions.

By Columbus Trenchard.

Nobody can gauge the amount of grief sustained by the Boston Negro community at the untimely passing of ex-Governor Paul A. Dever from the pitifully small numbers who attended the funeral in St. Peter's Church in Cambridge. At least one of them is a white benefactor of his patronage, who traveled great distances in Indianapolis to make the journey during a period of recession because of his large family. However, among the mourners seen were Mrs. Evelyn Barnes, a nearby neighbor; Dr. F. F. "Shag" Taylor; his brother, Bal; William Harrison, who came on the scene with two of the most potent legislators in the state, Hon. John J. Connelley, executive secretary to Gov. Foster Furcolo and the executive council.

Councillor William J. Foley, Jr., who is in quest of the Democratic nomination as Register of Probate for Suffolk County, has hosts of colored friends eager to help him. He ought to begin with the press, since its practitioners have longer memories and more reliable information than other sources.

Since State Senator John E. Yerxa is reportedly leaving the state and so will not seek reelection next November, it is rumored that Rep. John D. Brown (Ward 4 Republican) is weighing chances of succeeding him. Rep. Brown, who is also the efficient City Greeter of several mayoral administrations, has bolstered the sightseers out in droves; and the number of visitors from home coming to Washington during the school vacation period has given Congressmen pleasant duties, and opportunities to meet with them and provide such facilities by way of tickets, passes and advice as are available to a Congressman.

The Right To Work

Negroes of California are now encountering the same experience for the right to work that Boston Negroes had to deal with several decades ago. In the Boston areas Negroes at that time were barred from the Longshoremen's Union, consequently they were used as strikebreakers. The union objected, and turbulent times prevailed. The Negro laborers fought for their right to work even as scabs, to obtain living. This paper was in the midst of the fight and told the union that as long as Negro labor was discriminated against by the union it had a perfect right to obtain a living even as scabs. Later, wise heads in the union recognized not only the

The ninth and final week of the free chest X-ray survey for South End residents begins next Monday, April 28. The survey has been part of the Boston Chest X-ray Program, sponsored by the Boston Health Department, the Boston Tuberculosis Association, and the Massachusetts Department of Public Health. Efforts to find new cases of tuberculosis have been concentrated in the South End because it is an area of very high prevalence of tuberculosis. In addition to free chest X-rays for everyone age and over, tuberculin tests were provided by all children in the public and parochial elementary schools in the South End.

Next week a mobile unit will be located at 550 Columbus Avenue every afternoon until 6:00 p. m. and on Wednesday and Thursday until 9:00 p. m. There will be an additional unit at 66 Berkeley Street on Tuesday and Wednesday (April 29 and 30) from 12 noon to 6 P. M. and on Thursday and Friday, May 1 and 2, 1299 Washington Street from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The deadline for scholarship applications under the new State board of education assistance program has been extended from May 1 to June 1, it was announced by board chairman, Dr. Daniel H. O'Leary.

Dr. O'Leary said the extension would permit more college students to participate in the program inaugurated by Governor Foster Furcolo.

tactics, but their untenable position, and welcomed Negro longshoremen in the union. Other unions followed immediately.

In California it is rumored that a quarter of a million Negro voters will unite with anti-laborites to pass a state right to work law in defiance of the closed union. Recently, a prominent Negro union leader, Mal Young of Mechanics Local 47 of California, said that it is going to be very difficult to convince a Negro that he should vote against a right to work legislation, if he has gone through the experiences of being turned down by a union because of his race.

According to the NATION, similar measure was adopted in Arizona due to the votes of Negro and Mexican - American people who had been unable to obtain skilled work because of trade union Jim Crow practices. By voting for the right to work law, the dissenting workers explained they were voting for freedom and progress for them-

California Negroes are caught between the Scylla of discrimination and the Charybdis of anti laborites and must run the gauntlet in the lesser of two evils.

Anthropologist Margaret Mead, author of "And Keep Your Powder Dry" and "Male and Female," will discuss "Sex Freedom and Responsibility" this coming Sunday evening, April 27, at Boston's For Hall Forum. The noted researcher, lecturer, and author will conclude the spring series of

A graduate of Barnard College, Dr. Mead earned her M.A. and Ph.D. degrees at Columbia University. She was named Associate Curator of Ethnology, American Museum of Natural History in 1942 and Adjunct Professor of Anthropology, Columbia University in 1955.

Dr. Mead spent many years living among various South Sea peoples, an assignment for which she has had to learn seven primitive languages. She is studying contemporary cultures in the light of her perspective gained in the research on small, homogeneous, stable societies, and in the further development of cultural theories of human behavior.

Judge Reuben L. Lurie will preside at this meeting. Following her address, Dr. Mead will answer questions from the audience. Doors open at 7:45 P. M. and the public is cordially invited to attend.

QUESTION: I was born in the South and have no public birth record. I do have a discharge certificate from World War I, showing my age at the time I enlisted. Will this be good to prove my age for Social Security?

J. W., Roxbury, Mass.
ANSWER: Yes.

QUESTION: I am over 65 years old and earn about $34.00.00 per year. If I should retire, how much would my Social Security be? My wife is 65, too, and never worked under Social Security. How much would she get?

La. J., Roxbury Mass.
ANSWER: Based on the information you furnish, your monthly benefit would be about $95.10, and your wife would get about $47.60 per month, making your total benefit about $142.70 per month.

LET GEORGE DO IT!
by John Foster. New York: Harcourt, Brace & Co. $3.50.

By now it is well known that the pseudonym of this first novel belongs to His Excellency the Governor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, William Bradford Furbulo, Yale College graduate, and the early governors of this colony and state such as John Winthrop and William Bradford. In any instance, we should be so should conclude no surprise that the chief executive who is our contemporary should write a novel. The last few months of his career as Congressman and U.S. Treasurer. What is surprising is his excellence, because Mr. Furbulo has never entered any claims to fame. He is a man of great power, however, this hilariously funny novel, with its memorable characters drawn from life, such as the candidate's Grandmother, the candidate's father, the candidate's brother, Peter Martin, the chief protagonist himself, convulses the reader with unrestrained laughter while its pages are turned. The chapter has its comic epiphany.

Mr. Furcolo's purpose in writing the development of a "nobody" from obscurity to triumph at the polls as state representative is evidently serious. He shows how an intellectual zero can be foisted upon the electorate by a resourceful George because we the voters are too lazy to demand more of our office holders than surface cordiality and employment of all the tricks of the trade. We read the novel with the governor's purpose uppermost in our brain cells, it is a clever satire without the biting sting of the great Russian 19th-century novelists, Voltaire, or Jonathan Swift. To be sure, but nonetheless it is serious, but nonetheless highly serious in its ultimate intention, and impact.

Peter Martin is a composite of many politicians who have come under my personal observation as well as other readers who will have obtained close up views of them during various campaigns. Likewise, his adventures are not incredible or farfetched.

SPORTS

Baby Tiger's Short Hooks

Nothing New

Yours truly has nothing new to talk about in the sport of boxing. In the New England states boxing is going from bad to worse. The two day national championship which was held in Boston Garden was a financial flop, and the New England team was worse than I have seen in Boston for 28 years.

Boxing as an interesting sport is a thing of the past because of amateur boxing. Small clubs to build talent are thrown out of the window, and that fact leaves nothing to build the interest in the art of one of the greatest sports in America. Unless amateur boxing and small clubs are revived in New England, boxing in Boston in two years to come will be forgotten. There will be no such thing:

Kelley vs. Pep

Tuesday, April 29, at Mechanic Building, Jimmy Kelley of Lowell, Mass., will meet the well known ex-feather weight champion of the world, Willie Pep, who has before. We all know what he is before. We all know what he is capable of doing. He is not the Pep of old, but he is good enough for Kelley. The under card should be exciting.

Tommy Tibbs, New England

lightweight champion, is the best fighter whom we have had for many years. He takes on all comers in all parts of the world, and wins, but he is colored, and so the strong force of prejudice in our cultured state blocks this hometown colored fighter's gate attraction. Tibbs will have to go to other cities to make real money while Boston languishes in dire need of good fighters.

Brooklyn Close Doors
The amateur boxing shows in Brooklyn closed their doors for the summer. It looks bad, therefore, for amateur shows anywhere in New England this summer.

AT RAYNHAM PARK

Raynham, Mass. — Raynham Park will continue its 30-night racing program through June 24, with some of the outstanding greyhounds in the country scheduled to participate in the card programs to be staged nightly, except Sunday at Russ Murray's friendly track.

The New England greyhound racing season opened at Raynham last Friday, featuring the annual inaugural. As the season progressed general manager Russell Murray will stage extra-special events, such as the juvenile stake for $5,000 on Friday, May 30, and the annual running of the Raynham Derby on Thursday night, June 5.

Hampton, Va. — Harper Phillips of the art department faculty at Hampton Institute, exhibited 23 oil paintings and 2 mobiles at Alabama State College in Montgomery, April 18, as part of the 50th anniversary celebration of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority.

380 YARD RUN

AS BU TOPS TUFTS

Big Gene Ellis of Boston University captured the 380 yard run in a dual meet between the Terriers and Tufts University track teams last week at Medford. The Terriers triumphed 85-49.

Ellis pursued teammate Hank Dionisio, was clocked in 2:00.5 for his half mile effort. The former English High School star added strength to the team victory with a third place finish in the mile run.

Ince Nips Settele

Plagued by injuries during the indoor campaign, Tufts' Basil Ince came back strong to edge out B. U.'s top scorer Dave Settele in the 100 sprint in 10.2 seconds. Settele emerged the meet's individual star by posting two 1st prizes in the 120 high and low hurdles; second in the pole vault as well as the dash, and third place in the broad jump.

Mapp Wins Two

Jumbo Basketball ace Ed Mapp was also a double event winner. He leaped 12 feet, 10 1/2 inches for the broad jump triumph. He finished in a three way tie for honors in the high jump at 6 feet.

NATIONAL ROUNDUP

New Brunswick, N. J. — Women will take an increasingly active part in the economic affairs of the Nation, Mrs. Alice K. Leopold, assistant to the Secretary of Labor, said in an address here. "Projections indicate that women will account for more than half of the million increase expected in our working force between 1955 and 1965, Mrs. Leopold said.

1. Match the 25 numbers on your Cross-Out Card with the 25 numbers in the First National advertisement that is in your local newspaper each week. (This week's numbers are listed afterwards in this advertisement.)
2. If any of the numbers on your card — and if they are arranged in a straight row — down, across, or diagonally — you have a winning card mailed to you. You will receive your prize within 14 days.
3. A game of 25 numbers will appear in our newspaper advertisement for 12 weeks. Play all of your cards against all of these ads — but in order to have a winning card, you must have a winning number in the ad. Numbers in different newspaper ads can not be combined to get a winning card.
4. All cards are playable in all 12 weekly games. Save every card and every ad! A copy of each week's advertisement will be posted in all stores.
5. "Cross-Out" is limited to adults only. First National Bank and Trust Company is not responsible for prizes.
