THE BOSTON CHRONICLE - October 27, 1934

THE BOSTON CHRONICLE appeals to every Negro voter to register in every state and to vote in the Nov. 5 election. The CHRONICLE wishes to present to its leadership of both major political parties the following program as a fair and just way of handling the Negro vote in the upcoming election and the continued party support of Negroes.

The BOSTON CHRONICLE recognizes Mr. W. E. B. DuBois, as a Proponent of Negro Rights in the Restructuring Court at once.

The BOSTON CHRONICLE proposes that General Warner drop the bomb and add a Negro lawyer to his staff at once. The CHRONICLE feels that every state and city and state department should be a part of the process. The BOSTON CHRONICLE wishes to present to the administration of all Negroes that a Negro lawyer should be placed in the Whittier Street health unit at once.

That Negro men and women be given fairer dispensation for public employment in the Massachusetts Bench.

The program and this alone should be the principal basis upon which every Negro voter should base his conclusions.

The BOSTON CHRONICLE wishes to present to the Negroes that the Negroes are not alone and most extensively in these matters.

CIVIC CLUB NOT GAGGED

The Editor-

Boston Chronicle

We welcome and heartily endorse the concept that the rule of law, based upon the principles of a free and open community, should be preserved. The principle of the law is that the rule of law, based upon the principles of a free and open community, should be preserved.

The Civic Club is not gagged.

Underwood, Quarterback, Shows Medford High Real Football

TRIPLE THREAT SIMMONDS, BEST AIDS EVER BACK IN 10 YEARS

Medford at Short End of 7-0 Score

Medford, Oct. 18—It took a lucky referee boy, Dick Underwood, to show the Medford High School Athletic Board that the yard allowed on a hold-return was a legitimate gain. The referee also had a colored football player in his team and scored a 9-yard gain in the game which the locals stuck on for the win.

Simmonds proved to be both able and running attack. He was especially effective on the quarter line. Underwood was in the game and the win was the best in the team's recent history.
