THE BOSTON CHRONICLE appeals to every Negro voter in Boston and the Commonwealth to present to the leading public men of the city the following protest against the unfair and impartial consideration for the bulk of their votes in the coming election, and these points are hereby submitted for their consideration:

1. That a Negro be appointed as a Probation Officer in the Probation Department of the Commonwealth.
2. That District Attorney Folse place a Negro on his staff.
3. That Attorney General Warner drop the bars and add a Negro to the staff.
4. That both a Negro physician and dentist be placed in the Public Health Department.
5. That Negro men and women be given fairer consideration in the city and state departments.
6. That a Negro lawyer of repute be placed on the Massachusetts Bar.

This program and this alone should be the principal basis upon which every Negro voter should base his conclusion. Throw your vote in the major party that acts first and most strenuously on these points.

PLEDGE YOURSELF AND VOTE NOV. 6 ACCORDINGLY.

I am telegraphing to you word of the above political program as suggested by the Boston Chronicle and I PLEDGE MY VOTE Nov. 6th for the above program, and I pledge myself, in so doing, to all that these requirements, irrespective of my present political affiliation.

EDITORIAL

MASS. NEGRO VOTERS BECOME OF AGE.

CATE and circumstances have a queer way of raising issues, and that seems to be the inconsequential thing in the Negro's affairs.

As a matter of fact, the Negro's right to vote was not the issue that the Negroes in the South were struggling for as they sought the ballot. It was the change that came over the Negroes in Mass., the change in the Negro's attitude towards the American Republican and Democratic Party. The Negro realising the revolution had come, in his mind, and the Negro's attitude towards the political parties had changed. What was the matter was the fact that there seemed to be no consciousness.

As far as the Negroes were concerned, they had a splendid opportunity in the leadership of our great party, one that had received less consideration in national politics than any that has ever been given them in Massachusetts. They had a leader in Mr. Prentiss and a leader in the conduct of society and nicely the Negro Republican. The party realising the change, and therefore he will not consider him in his offer of the office, and therefore as the Republicans in 1888, after having had to do with the party that in 1880, had to do with the party in 1880, the time was not ripe for a Negro to take the seat of one of the important positions in the state.

With these facts in mind both of these parties must do everything within their power to win the Negro vote.

We say, it is an opportunity for the Negro to do a little more of his own. In the time of his life that's the first cut, definite understanding with his good white political brother, no matter what side of the fence he's on. Make him definitely declare his hand. Do not permit him to rest on the records of his past action, but teach him that this is not a beginning but the beginning of something greater than hard times. This year, the common ordinary Negro cannot take the place of the man of affairs; he cannot take the place of the man who is going to walk a walk of a different kind. He also knows that the Government is in the hands of the people, that with the defeat of the Democrats the Negroes are no more dead in the state for the next four or six years, and with a little guide the Democrats will lose their power with the Federal administration.

With these facts in mind both of these parties must do everything within their power to win the Negro vote.

The problem of the Republican is not the problem of the Negro. They are not the same problem, and it is not a question that the Negroes have a right to be considered. With that, the Republican is their problem. The party that is going to win the Negro vote is going to have a walk of a different kind. He also knows that the Government is in the hands of the people, that with the defeat of the Democrats the Negroes are no more dead in the state for the next four or six years, and with a little guide the Democrats will lose their power with the Federal administration.

With these facts in mind both of these parties must do everything within their power to win the Negro vote.
